PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, May 29.—Mr. Boyer (liberal, Vaudeville), was informed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier that A. B. Castonguay had been dismissed from the federal police for gross misconduct.

Col. Hughes (conservative, Victoria) said that when he had put a question concerning this matter on the order paper he had been told that Castonguay had not been employed in the department of marine and fisheries since his dismissal from the police.

Col. Hughes introduced a discussion upon an occurrence in Kings county, N. S., the riding represented by Sir Frederick Borden, where two local liberals M. P. Messrs. Wickwire and Dodge had been elected to the House of Commons.

Mr. Bennett (East Simcoe) said that he had been asked by a constituent to inquire into the matter of the election in Kings county, N. S., where two local liberals M. P. Messrs. Wickwire and Dodge had been elected to the House of Commons.

time. Since the minister of justice made that statement—a very carefully considered statement which he read to the house—there has not been any opportunity so far as any concerned to make any observations with regard to it, and if it would be convenient to the government, I would like to speak on that question at an early date as possible. In saying this, of course I do not desire to put the minister of justice to any inconvenience if he is indisposed; I merely mention it in order that my request may be conveyed to the prime minister and to the minister of justice. I am unable to discuss the question until the government brings the bill on again.

HE HOPES FOR BOUNTIFUL CROPS.

Hon. L. P. Farris was in the city yesterday on his way to Fredericton to attend the Government meeting.

Mr. Farris says that the past few days have made a wonderful difference in the country so far as crops are concerned. The season is unmistakably backward in all sections, but within the past week grain has come along splendidly and potatoes are showing up nicely.
