BOSTON, Nov. 13.—The Herald says: Dan Patch is at last a bona fide champion. While the great son of Joe Patchen (2:01 1-4) has generally been considered to be the foremost pacer in the country for several seasons, by virtue of his work behind a wind shield, at which game he was unsurpassed, Star Pointer's record of 1:59 1-4, made at the Readville track in 1897, had never been beaten under the old conditions and methods until at Memphis last Saturday Dan Patch paced in 1:58, lowering the world's record for pacers by a second and a quarter.

BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER SAYS PRINCE LOUIS

Kept Busy Monday Attending Entertainments--Cheered by Men of American Warships--United Sailors Mingle With British Tars--Prince Attends Horse Show.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Prince Louis of Battenberg passed today in a fashion that would have tested the stamina of a political candidate engaged in a campaign of the whirlwind order, and stood the strain with a fortitude worthy of a British admiral. He began his round of entertainments with a reception at the Chamber of Commerce, where he was greeted by a representative gathering of captains of commerce and finance.

A SPLENDID EVENING. "You have given me and my men a splendid evening," the Prince said as he passed between them, "and I thank you for myself and for them. Blood is thicker than water, and we are glad to be ashore," he added, paraphrasing the hearty sentiment, "glad to see you ashore," which followed "tattall's" famous phrase on the menu card's first page.

Written on the frontpiece of the menu cards this famous saying of the American Naval Officer Tattall never found more impressive expression than it did tonight at the dinner of the Bowers at Coney Island which the enlisted men of the first squadron of the United States North Atlantic fleet gave to the enlisted men of the second cruiser squadron of his Britannic majesty's navy commanded by Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg.

ice, they marched to Stauch's pavilion, on the Bowery, and received a noisy welcome along the route.

At the door to receive them were Chairman Schumacher and the members of the reception committee. The band played a medley of popular sailor songs, while the twenty-five hundred sailors were being assigned their seats.

During the dinner it developed that through some misunderstanding the British sailors had been granted shore leave only until 7 o'clock in the morning. A committee of two, Yeoman, F. C. Webster of the Missouri and Boat-swain F. A. Smith of the Kentucky, representing the committees on reception and arrangements, laid the matter before Prince Louis, who promptly extended the leave of his men until noon tomorrow.

While the men merrily at Coney Island, the warrant officers of the British squadron entertained the warrant officers of the American ships at a ball on the Drake. A special dancing floor was laid under a canopy composed of ensigns representative of every nation in the world, even that of Japan mingling with the more sombre one of Russia. The centrepiece consisted of the American stripes radiating from a cluster of 48 incandescent lights representing the stars.
