

CORRESPONDENTS' CORNER

HARTLAND

Hartland, N. B., Sept. 27. — It has been definitely decided that the potato flour industry being promoted by Hatfield & Scott, as representatives of the Potato Products Co. of Belleville, Ont., will be located at Woodstock, the old Dunbar foundry building to be utilized, while the town grants water at cost, a stated rate of taxation for 10 years, and making concessions. This place was making a bid for the industry but the adjourned meeting to be held last Friday night petered out, only the secretary putting in an appearance. However, Hartland will get a share of the industry, as the promoters have decided to establish a branch industry in the form of a starch factory here.

The condition of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Foster, victims of last Thursday's auto accident, is improving, although it may yet be necessary to perform an operation on Mr. Foster to replace one of the kidneys which has been forced from its natural position. Mrs. Foster's most serious injuries are also internal, but the physicians are hopeful of a speedy recovery. Mrs. Colwell and her daughter, who were not so badly hurt, have practically recovered.

The work on the new footwalk on the Andover bridge is nearing completion. The steel frame has been finished and the planking partly done. The walk will be opened to the public in a week or so.

Ira Burley, who has conducted a general store at Upper Kent for some years, has sold out his business and, with his family, will shortly remove to Toronto or Montreal.

Mrs. Willis of Queens county, has been the guest at Andover of Mrs. A. C. Bell.

Hon. Isaac Stephenson, of Marquette, Wis., the aged United States senator, is again visiting the scene of his boyhood days in Hartland and the district surrounding. He is accompanied by his brother and several female relatives.

Mrs. F. B. Slotterbeck of St. Louis, with her sister, Mrs. Allen Lister, of Asterville, has been visiting relatives in St. John and their old home at Grand Lake.

Mrs. H. H. Tibbitts and Miss Gertrude Tibbitts of Andover, left last week for Hartford, Conn., where they will remain some weeks.

On the afternoon of September 15 at the residence of R. E. McBride, East Glassville, his eldest daughter, Alma A., was united in marriage to Clarence G. Robinson of the same place. Rev. J. A. Corry of Rungoson, an uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony in the presence of near relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Fernie, while Harold McDougall supported the groom. The summer wedding party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Estabrooks has as a guest at her home, her brother, Mr. Harry Chase of St. John.

ST. GEORGE

St. George, N. B., Sept. 28.—Dr. Hugh L. Russell and family returned to Buffalo on Thursday, after spending the summer here.

Mrs. Barbara Clark, Boston, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur C. Jordan.

Mrs. Charles Rehndage, Boston, and relative, Miss Irene Maxwell, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell.

Mrs. Hugh Lawrence has returned home after a visit with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. J. Douglas Stewart and child returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., on Wednesday, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kelman.

Miss Winifred Maxwell of South bridge, Mass., is here visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John David Maxwell.

Miss Clara Dewar is spending a few weeks in Fair Vale, Kings county, the guest of her friend, Miss Mabel Henderson.

Mrs. George Meating returned home on Monday after a week spent with her mother, Mrs. Ella J. Moore, St. Stephen.

Miss Carrie Hanselbacher is visiting her father, A. Hanselbacher of Elmville.

Mrs. Douglas Seamans is visiting her mother, Mrs. William Short, of St. Andrews.

Miss Sarah Keating returned to her home in St. Stephen on Saturday after spending a couple of weeks here as the guest of Mrs. George Frailey.

Miss Royce Goss left on Monday for Boston, accompanied by her relative Rev. Dr. Stewart, at whose home she will spend the winter. Before returning she will visit friends in Hartford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clark of St. Stephen arrived here on Saturday and will pay a short visit at the home of Mrs. Clark's father, John Spotted.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Milne returned to their home in Hartford, Conn., after a few weeks' visit at the home of Mr. Milne's sister, Mrs. William Mercereau.

Miss Minnie McIntyre, Boston, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Dodd.

Walter Messenett has finished building a club house on the shore of Lake Umbagog, on Friday evening.

Mrs. Messenett gave a "house-warming" to a large number of friends. Dining was indulged in until 12 o'clock, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ralph Constantine of Houlton, is the guest of Mrs. Harry Cook.

J. J. Kerr, Cambridge, Mass., is visiting at the home of George Marshall, Sr.

Miss Alma Coffey has as her guest this week, Miss Katherine McGrath of St. John.

ANDOVER AND PERTH
RED CROSS SOCIETY

On Friday, Sept. 24th, the Andover and Perth branch of the Red Cross Society shipped to Red Cross headquarters, St. John, N. B., a box containing the following:

7 quilts, 10 hospital shirts, 1 pillow, 1 lb. absorbent cotton, 5 yds. 12-inch adhesive plaster, 8 tumbler covers, 1 roll gauze, 220 large gauze sponges, 145 small gauze sponges, 74 prs. socks, 3 pads, bundle of mouth wipes, bundle of old cotton and linen.

This branch recently organized a "Victoria County Sock Day," asking the assistance of all the Red Cross branches and Women's Institutes of the county in soliciting socks. The people responded nobly, 538 pairs were sent in, 494 pairs going to the 55th Battalion at Valcartier and the balance through regular Red Cross channels.

TITUSVILLE

Titusville, Sept. 29.—A very interesting event took place Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 22nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson, when their niece, Miss Leona Severson, was united in marriage to Roy Macgowan, of Barnesville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Hatfield. The bride was beautifully gowned in white net with pink silk trimmings and carried a bouquet of carnations. Little Miss Marjory Carlson, cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl and was gowned in white and carried sweet peas. Immediately after the ceremony a dainty supper was served to about seventy guests.

The many handsome and useful presents which were received gave evidence of the esteem in which the young couple are held.

Mr. A. N. Brubaker, student, minister of the Presbyterian church, gave the summer months, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday last. Both he and Mrs. Brubaker have made many friends on this field who will sincerely regret their departure. They left Monday morning for Princeton, N. J., where they will attend college.

Miss Theora Titus has returned home after spending two weeks with friends in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Morrison, Lakeside, were visiting friends here on Wednesday.

Miss Pearl Hanlin has returned home after spending the summer in St. John.

Mrs. W. C. Matthews and baby, of Macaan, N. S., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hanlin.

Rev. J. S. and Mrs. Mackay are guests of Mrs. Mackay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Taber.

Miss Lelia Tabor left Tuesday for Moncton where she expects to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Parwell, Springdale, Maine, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, of Shesbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hatfield have moved into their new home over their store.

Mrs. Gideon Stephenson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Joe Peake, attended the exhibition at Fredericton.

Miss Pearl Mean spent Sunday with Gussie Greer.

Judson Burlock returned home from the hospital at Woodstock where he has been for three months.

One day last week George Foster came near meeting with a serious accident while going up the hill near Emery Kent's the brake refused to hold and the car backed down the hill and over the edge of the bridge. Fortunately one wheel struck a tree which held it.

Steamship Item.

Battle Line steamer Sellasia, Captain Abbott, sailed from Oram today for Sandy Hook, for orders.

Miss Sarah Keating returned to her home in St. Stephen on Saturday after spending a couple of weeks here as the guest of Mrs. George Frailey.

Miss Royce Goss left on Monday for Boston, accompanied by her relative Rev. Dr. Stewart, at whose home she will spend the winter. Before returning she will visit friends in Hartford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clark of St. Stephen arrived here on Saturday and will pay a short visit at the home of Mrs. Clark's father, John Spotted.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Milne returned to their home in Hartford, Conn., after a few weeks' visit at the home of Mr. Milne's sister, Mrs. William Mercereau.

Miss Minnie McIntyre, Boston, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Dodd.

Walter Messenett has finished building a club house on the shore of Lake Umbagog, on Friday evening.

Mrs. Messenett gave a "house-warming" to a large number of friends. Dining was indulged in until 12 o'clock, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ralph Constantine of Houlton, is the guest of Mrs. Harry Cook.

J. J. Kerr, Cambridge, Mass., is visiting at the home of George Marshall, Sr.

Miss Alma Coffey has as her guest this week, Miss Katherine McGrath of St. John.

Miss Sarah Keating returned to her home in St. Stephen on Saturday after spending a couple of weeks here as the guest of Mrs. George Frailey.

Miss Royce Goss left on Monday for Boston, accompanied by her relative Rev. Dr. Stewart, at whose home she will spend the winter. Before returning she will visit friends in Hartford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clark of St. Stephen arrived here on Saturday and will pay a short visit at the home of Mrs. Clark's father, John Spotted.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Milne returned to their home in Hartford, Conn., after a few weeks' visit at the home of Mr. Milne's sister, Mrs. William Mercereau.

Miss Minnie McIntyre, Boston, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Dodd.

Walter Messenett has finished building a club house on the shore of Lake Umbagog, on Friday evening.

Mrs. Messenett gave a "house-warming" to a large number of friends. Dining was indulged in until 12 o'clock, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ralph Constantine of Houlton, is the guest of Mrs. Harry Cook.

APOHAQUI

Apoahqui, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Arthur B. Gameter and children of Bridgewater, N. S., returned last week to her home after a month's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Amasa Ryder, who has been enjoying a visit with relatives at Havelock, returned home on Wednesday last.

Miss Blanche Sharp, professional nurse of South Framingham, Mass., is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

LR. SOUTHAMPTON

Lower Southampton, Sept. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Davies left on the 23rd for North Bay, where they will spend a week or two with their daughter, Mrs. E. H. Gillett.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Brewer, of Hawkebay are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter.

Mrs. L. C. Robinson, of Maine, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Asa Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanford Hagerman, who have been spending their honeymoon in Nova Scotia, returned home Saturday night. They will reside at Queensbury.

Miss Blanche Sharp, professional nurse of South Framingham, Mass., is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was celebrated in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon, the edifice looking very beautiful adorned with the fruits of the field and many flowers. The pastor, Rev. Mansel Shewan, gave a very appropriate address, and Thanksgiving hymns were sung by the choir. H. G. Marr and party with are parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Sharpe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Folkins very much regret their removal from this community. Mr. Folkins having accepted a position with the Sussex Mercantile Co. and will be leaving to take up their residence in Sussex this week. Mr. and Mrs. Folkins have been very popular in social and musical circles and will be much missed, and also by their removal the Methodist church sustains a loss.

The annual Harvest Festival was