

blance to the widow's farthing, than the larger, but in proportion to their means smaller, subscriptions of those who are in affluent circumstances.

In addition to this amount, a collection was made at St. Paul's Church in this City on Sunday last, after a sermon by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, which amounted to the sum of £38 12s. 5d.

New Committees were formed in the settlements of Rawdon and Douglas, both under the pastoral care of the Rev. George Morris, just previously to the last annual meeting of the Society. Your Committee, however, was not informed of their formation in time to acknowledge it in the last Report. Immediately after that general meeting, those Committees handed in, by the Rev. George Morris, the sums of £8 5s. from Rawdon, and of £1 18s. 3d. from Douglas. During the present month, they have forwarded by the same channel from Rawdon, the sum of £5 7s. 2½d. and from Douglas a balance of last year's contributions amounting to £2 0s. 6d.

The Antigonishe Committee has remitted during the past year the sum of £15 13s. Of this sum £3 was directed to be remitted to the Society for Propagating the Gospel in Foreign Parts, in aid of Missions to the heathen, and was included in the sum of £8 18s. 11d. sent in April last, as mentioned in a note appended to the last annual Report. This, and the Committee for the adjoining mission of Guysborough, have manifested the greatest interest in this branch of missionary operations: and the sum so forwarded is chiefly composed of the remittances of those two Committees.

The Shelburne Committee handed in, by the Rev. T. H. White, the sum of £4 9s.—of which one fourth was by request returned in books.

From Yarmouth, the Rev. A. Gilpin has forwarded the
