ACCIDENT TO SIR CHARLES.

Was Returning from a Political Meeting and the Coach Upset.

[SPECIAL TO TELEGRAPH.] EDMONT N. N. W. T., Jan. 8.—It was Friday night, while returning to Strathcons. that Si Charles Tupper met with his accident. He in company with Mr. D. vin and a reception committee were returning from the meeting at 1 a. m., when the coach, with four-in-hand driven by Jack MacDonald, coming down a steep grade, swerved and was overturned, throwing the party out. J. B. Mercer caught the venerable leader and held him up, breaking his fall somewhat. He received some injury to his knee and was severely shaken up. The rig was righted and the party proceeded. CALGARY, Jan. 8-In an interview with Sir Charles he stated that though severely shaken up he is satisfied he will be himself again in a few days. He left for the east bunday murning. Mr. Davin had his nose cut.

It was shown that the second contingent was not thought of when the fund was opened or action would then have been taken on somewhat different lines; that what action was taken bound the committee to a certain course relative to the first contingent, and this course had to be indicated in faith to the men who left with the assurance that this fand was for them or for whom of their relatives cley might direct. Then it was said there should be but one fand to cover both contingents, but the contention was put for hithat the action of the committee on the tirst contingent was binding and that there should be a separate fund for the accond critingent.
