the forerunners of more serious disease, it save unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most seeptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incarable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tenrlungs need this de ence; and it is unwise to without it. As a safeguard to children, and the distressing diseases which beset the Throat
