

to the best possible advantage, the congregation is recommended to consider very carefully the proposal to provide increased accommodation.

It is satisfactory evidence of growing interest in the missions of the Church that the congregation since its last Annual Meeting, has undertaken to support two laborers in the Home and two in the Foreign Field. We are sure that the result will be increased blessings upon our own work. The work amongst the young people continues to prosper as their own report will indicate. No part of the Church's work has more hearty sympathy on the part of the session. In all the goodness of the past we rejoice and commend ourselves and our work to His abundant grace with whom is the residue of the spirit, and from whom every good gift comes.
