Italian Government, says the Paris edition of The Daily Mail to-day. Her delegates were declared to regard the ownership of New Guinea as vital to the existence of Australia.

Premier Clemenceau, however, the newspaper adds, promised Australia his full support in safeguarding her position.

There is no possibility now, The Daily Mail declares, of Australia continuing her independent opposition to the plan.

One result of the attitude taken by Italy in yesterday's discussions, The Daily Mail states, was the decision that the mandatory system of administration should only be applied to non-European territories.
