A. M. Elliott, of Bothwell, was a Chatham visitor yesterday.

John Waters, of Ridgetown, was a visitor in the city on Saturday.

R. Watson, of Mull, was registered at the Merrill House on Saturday.

The retail clerks of the city will hold a meeting to-morrow night.

Miss Susie McQueen sang an O. Salutaris in St. Joseph's Church last evening.

J. W. Smith and J. W. Campbell, of Stewart, were Chatham visitors on Saturday.

Miss Gertrude Montague, of Austin's, spent Sunday with Miss L. Marshall in Chatham township.

Humane Officer McGregor has been confined to his home for the last few days with la grippe, but is able to be out again attending to his duties.

Mrs. John Thornton, of Smith's Falls, is in the city spending the day with Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Thornton.
She leaves this evening for Petrolia, where she will visit Mrs. Harry Thornton, who is seriously ill.

W. B. Wells has returned from Big Point Club. He brought back two dead wild geese besides the two live ones which he took down to use as decoys. They were out in the water anchored by stones and were calling loudly. Two Frenchmen heard them and, sneaking stealthily up, were just going to bag Mr. Wells' geese when he saw them. By the exercise of considerable lung power the veteran sportsman succeeded in saving the lives of his two wild geese.

LOCAL LEGAL

At Osgoode Hall, on Saturday, before Winchester, Master, in Chambers, the following cases were tried:—

McDonald v. Park.—Casey Wood, for plaintiff, moved for order setting aside præcipe orders for security for costs.

B. N. Dars and C. A. Moss for defendant, contra. Motion refused with costs.

This motion was brought in connection with the suit to set aside the will of the late Sarah Jane Macdonald, Chatham. J. G. Kerr and G. B. Douglas are acting for the defendants.

O'Flynn v. Middleton.—C. A. Moss, for defendant, moved for order removing and discharging certificate of his pendens with costs. E. E. A. DuVernet, for plaintiff, contra. Reserved.

AGAINST THE JESUITS.

Not Likely to be Readmitted to Germany.

Berlin, March 30.—The Government's intention to abolish the Jesuits from Germany announced in the Reichstag by Chancellor Von Buelow recently will not be realized. It is learned that the agitation against the measure that followed the action of Bishop Korum in March last, in threatening the parents of Roman Catholic children who attended the State schools of Treves with ecclesiastical penalties, has resulted in such changes of views on the part of the various Governments that the Bundesrath now has a majority against the Jesuits' readmission. The question goes to the Bundesrath after Easter, where it will either be voted down or indefinitely postponed.

Dead on the Track.

Bothwell, March 28.—Two oil men returning from the midnight relief discovered the body of George Macdonald of West Bothwell lying between the tracks. Macdonald had evidently been struck by the eastbound Wabash express. An inquest will be held. Macdonald was about 28 years of age and a son of Robert Macdonald, a farmer of West Bothwell.

Death of G. F. Swift.

Chicago, March 28.—Gustavus Franklin Swift, President of the Swift Packing Company, died at his home to-day of internal hemorrhages, resulting from a surgical operation performed several days ago. He was 65 years of age.

incorporated with a capital of $200,000.
It will do a general metal manufacturing business, and will purchase the business of the Stanyon Engineering Company.

The City Laundry Co., Limited, has been organized to carry on a general laundry business and acquire the interests of other laundry firms in the city.
The capital will be $150,000, and the head office, Toronto. The provisions directors are P. H. Patriarche, F. G.
D. Durnford, and J. W. Siddall.

ronto Carpet Manufacturing Co., Limited, is authorized to increase its capital stock from $150,000 to $300,000.

RETURNING CONSTABULARY.

Arrivals by the Carthaginian Had to Pay Passage.

Halifax, N.S., March 28.—Three ocean steamers, the Dominion Line Canada and the Carthaginian and Bavarian of the Allan Line, landed a total of 3,381 passengers here on Friday. The Allan Line Carthaginian was fourteen days on the passage. Her passengers totalled 628—22 second and 43 third class. They were mostly British, with a sprinkling of foreigners. She had among her passengers 22 returning Canadians of the South African Constabulary. They had been two months on the trip from Pretoria and Bloemfontein. They tell the same story about the trip as the Carthaginian, that Canadian officers being removed and British and burgher officers being put in their places, and they were disgusted with the manner in which affairs were being conducted. They had to pay their own way from South Africa to London, and Lord Strathcona, the Canadian High Commissioner, paid their way to Halifax, and they were assisted from here to their homes. The returning soldiers were: John Lehman, W. G. Birney, W. Thomson, W. MacGillivray, all of Calgary, N.
W. T. J. Miller, Dunnville; F. Hodgson, F. Hunter, W. Barker, J. Price, H. Mann, Toronto; T. W. Reynolds, Brandon, Man.; R. V. Johnson, St. Catharines; J. Ireland, Burlington; W. Plunsted, Beaverton; F.
Hazellett, Fredericton, N.B.; W. Cooper, H. G. Bart, and J. M. J. M. N.B.; J. A. Fraser, Lancaster; F. S. E. Fisher, Chatham; R. L. Willis, Nelson, N.B.; R.
McIntyre, Duluth, Minn.; K. Taylor, Prince Albert, N.W.; H. Cheney, and R. D. Muir, Winnipeg; R. Ansie and H.
Bevan, Galt; C. L. Young, Brantford; F. Beaman and J. Beaman, Chesley.

"IT'S GOOD TEA."

This is what the proprietor of Red Rose Tea claims for it. Some say the claim is too modest, but you may notice that a grocer is very often asked—"Have you any good tea?" The word "good" in this sense is probably intended to mean "best." So perhaps Red Rose Tea is The Best Tea.

Greatest Store

What the Big Store Says

We appeal to the people of Chatham and vicinity. This great mercantile establishment was created and exists to supply their wants, and during the years of our existence our patrons have watched us expand and grow, and have vindicated our liberal policy thousands upon thousands of times.
Always the very best at the very lowest possible price, consistent with reliable merchandise. Courteous treatment, truthful advertising, money refunded on all goods not satisfactory, and prompt deliveries have played their important parts in making this Chatham's greatest and pleasantest store in which to trade.
