

If any convict be prevented from labour by sickness or any other infirmity, not intentionally produced by himself, he shall be entitled, by good conduct, to two and a half days remission from his sentence every month.

Case of sickness provided for.

68. For and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Act made and passed by the Parliament of Canada, in the session held in the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty's reign, chaptered twenty-nine, and intituled "An Act respecting Procedure in Criminal Cases and other cases relating to the Criminal Law," or in any other Act of the Parliament of Canada, no person sentenced in New Brunswick or Nova Scotia to imprisonment with hard labour for less than one year, shall be received or imprisoned in the penitentiary from and after the first day of May, which will be in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight; nor, after the first day of May, which will be in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, shall any one sentenced in either of the said Provinces to imprisonment with hard labour for less than two years, be received or imprisoned in the penitentiary.

Period for reception of short term convicts, in N.S. and N.B. limited, under 32-33 V., c. 29, s. 96, extended.

ROCKWOOD LUNATIC ASYLUM.

69. It is hereby declared, that the lunatic asylum situate at Rockwood, near Kingston, in the County of Frontenac, in the Province of Ontario, together with all the tract and parcel of land belonging thereto, as now known to be measured and bounded, and all buildings on the said piece of land erected, or hereafter to be erected, shall be, and form part of the Kingston Penitentiary, but not subject to the control or authority of the Warden, and be called "Rockwood Asylum."

Rockwood Asylum to be part of the penitentiary. Proviso.

70. Every piece or parcel of land hereafter to be acquired by Her Majesty for the uses and purposes of Rockwood Asylum, upon proclamation by the Governor, published in manner hereinbefore set forth, defining the limits and boundaries thereof, shall also form part of the Kingston Penitentiary.

And any further ground acquired for it.

71. It shall be lawful for the Inspector to have, use and exercise all the privileges and powers granted to him by this Act, and he shall perform all the duties made incumbent upon him hereby, with respect to the government, management and maintenance of Rockwood Asylum, and of the lunatics confined therein, as are conferred or rendered obligatory upon him with respect to the penitentiaries, subject to such instructions as shall be, from time to time, from him received from the Minister of Justice.

Duties and powers of Inspector as to asylum.
