

Rebels play top university teams

The Rebels travelled to Sherbrooke, Quebec this past weekend to play some of the top university teams in Canada. The eight men's teams involved in this event were University of Manitoba, Universit  de Sherbrooke, University of Toronto, Universit  de Laval, Penn State, University of Regina, College de Sherbrooke and University of New Brunswick.

In round robin play the Rebels started off by playing and losing to Universit  de Sherbrooke 15-2, 15-11, 15-10. UNB began slowly, taking some time to get the kinks out from their long, cramped drive to Sherbrooke that day. By the second and third game they were rolling but not fast enough to conquer the home team.

Their next match was rather a disappointment when they lost to Regina Cougars 15-2, 18-20, 15-8 and 15-6. The Rebels could have and should have beaten this team. Errors in the last two games cost the Rebels valuable points.

After a good night's rest UNB showed a little more spirit and talent. Penn State got quite a surprise when they found themselves down 9-3 in the first game. UNB's glory, however, was short lived as the Nittany Lions stepped it down and won that match 15-11, 15-2, and 15-5. The other round robin match saw the Rebels lose to fifth ranked U of T Blues 15-5, 15-5, and 15-6.

After going 0-4 in the preliminary rounds, UNB had no choice but to face the Regina Cougars in a battle for seventh position. The Rebels fought the match out the full five games but in the end took a loss of 12-15, 15-12, 15-10, 13-15 and 15-12. The match lasted 2 hours and twenty minutes, a well-played game by both teams involved.

Obviously, one can say that this tournament gave UNB an opportunity to play some of the stiffest competition in the country. Manitoba, ranked no. 3 in Canada, took Penn State in the finals to win the tournament.

From this competition the Rebels proved to themselves that they can compete with the best at that level of volleyball. If UNB plays as a team and cuts down on their number of errors they commit in a single game, then they will be more successful.

This week UNB travels to Moncton to play the U de M Blues, their last AUSA match before the Christmas break.

"We want football"

—Devils lose 3-1, 7-3, 10-2

By ERIC DRUMMIE

They skate, pass, shoot, score, but also lose. This was the story this past weekend and Wednesday Night. UNB dropped three games in a row to UCCB, St. F.X., and U de M.

UNB had a chance to beat UCCB but were unable to score, hitting four posts and out shooting UCCB 29 to 24. It was a good day for the game star, rookie goalie, Chris Bailey. Bailey was playing in his first game and stopping 21 of 24 including two breakaways.

On Sunday it was a different story against St. F.X. UNB was sloppy in the first period giving up a short handed goal to St. F.X., for the first goal of the game. The Devils came back but to no avail. Chris Bailey played well in the first and start of the second periods but started to fail in the end of the second and was replaced by Rob Jefferies for the third. UNB scored two more goals but was too little, too late as St. F.X. had already done too much damage.

On Wednesday, U de M played UNB at the Aitken Center for the last game of the first half. U de M Blue Eagles started off strong, and never looked back with a 4-1 lead at the end of the first. Renato Marino scored UNB's goal. Faltering Rob Jefferies was replaced by Chris Bailey in the first period, but despite Bailey's good play he had no more luck than Jefferies., though he did stop two breakaways. Come the third period the score was 6-1. Most of the fans were starting to leave by now, due to the lack of excitement in watching the game. By the middle of the third period UNB had lost its spirit and was too drained to mount an attack. U de M took advantage of this and scored four more times. This brought comments from the fans as to "what he problem was," "why do we bother," and "I'd rather watch a losing football team". UNB's second goal was scored by Hugh Hospodar.

UNB's next challenge is the Christmas Tournament. Hopefully they will be up to the task. We can only wait and see if they will start the new year with a new outlook.

I would like to wish the best of luck to the team over the holidays. I would also like to apologize to Rob Jefferies for the mistake in spelling his name last week. The fans from Bridges House would like to wish the team good luck over the holidays as well. They also asked if I would say Happy Birthday to Nemo, Who's birthday is the 9th. Merry Christmas and good luck boys!
