

- 148 Q: How old are you now? A: Twenty, now.
- 49 Q: And how long ago was it that your father was here? A: Eighteen years. His father been here 10 years.
- 50 Q: Did your father never tell you what he did when he was in this country? A: No, he ~~hadn't~~ didn't tell me.
- 51 Q: Did he drive a street car? A: No.
- 52 Q: Did he keep a hotel? A: No.
- 53 Q: Did he keep a store? A: No.
- 54 Q: Did he work out as a servant? A: Well I think he work outside, something like that.
- 55 Q: Why did you not say that at the start? You certainly must know what he was doing. What was he doing outside, working on the railway? A: I can't tell what kind of work he was doing.
- 56 Q: Well, what did he give you $500. for? A: He says he old now, and give me $500.
- 57 Q: Did you ask him for that? A: I asked him, my father.
- 58 Q: Do you often ask him for $500.? A: No; just this time.
- 59 Q: Why did you ask him this time? A: Well, he says, people in China talking about Canada.
- 60 Q: The newspapers? A: No, not newspapers - people.
- 61 Q: Well what did they say about Canada? A: They say pretty good wages over here.
- 62 Q: Who told you that? What people? A: Some of them Chinese come home from Canada.
- 63 Q: Can you tell me the names of any of them? A: Wong Hing told me.
- 64 Q: Does he live in Vancouver? A: He is here, in Golden.
- 65 Q: Where did you see him, in China? A: Yes.
- 66 Q: How long ago? A: About 3 months.