

27/.

C 30707

~~supplied~~ <sup>most of whom were from Hawaii</sup> furnished under contract. The Kenny Takahashi Co. formed <sup>about the middle of</sup> ~~during~~ April was a one man concern who supplied 30 ~~more~~ a few ~~men~~ laborers to the railways and about ~~100~~ <sup>Japanese</sup> domestic servants. The Japanese general contract Co formed during July supplied between 400 and 500 men up to the end of October, the <sup>Employment</sup> Nittoh Company formed on August 1st, like the Kenny Takahashi Company supplied mostly domestic servants, about 200 in ~~all of~~ ~~the~~ these months. The Oriental Contract Company was an ~~company~~ establishment with a large name but doing a small business.
 The company was formed on the 5th of October, was composed of one ~~man~~ Japanese who had secured employment <sup>as domestic by between 200</sup> for ~~about~~ about 30 of his fellow-countrymen ~~during~~ up to the time its manager was requested to appear before the Commission.
 The Canadian Japanese Development Co
~~The Japanese Company~~ formed still later in the month of October, was the ~~Canadian~~ <sup>Japanese</sup> Development Company under a new name, the latter <sup>company</sup> had been ~~formed~~ formed in June of the year previous, and had supplied about 50 men to mills during the previous