

3/ Petty jealousies seem to be the chief cause of trouble.
Through storm and shine our Arthur Meighen Club has calmly gone on its way making votes, smoothing rough spots, educating the people, bringing out new talent, and in general, doing its duty to the party.

But there is the rub!
We are entirely dependent upon our jobs plus contributions. In these hard times both have fallen off alarmingly.
We have had an additional expense thrust on us this year. Up to the present we have had the use of some chairs belonging ~~ing~~ to the local

MEIGHEN PAPERS, Series 5 (M.G. 26, I, Volume 179)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA