Ottawa, February 29, 1908.

Sir,-

I beg leave to refer to communication addressed you on the 18th of July last, in connection with proceedings proposed to be taken against Mr. P. Bonhomme, who had been notified that he must leave St. Nicholas Island, it being portion of the Caughnawaga Indian Reserve, and I have to say that the Department would be pleased to receive a communication in this matter from the Assistant Attorney General, as promised in letter of the 2nd of July last.

Your obedient servant,

L. J. L.
Secretary.

The Hon. Lomer Gouin,
Prime Minister
Province of Quebec,
Quebec.
