

and that the little patients will receive the attention for which, he said, the hospital was noted.

*
* *

Her Excellency Lady Grey said it gave her much pleasure to be present on the happy occasion of the formal opening of such a beautiful ward. She referred, in a gracious manner, to the loving care and thoughtfulness shown in making the ward so complete in every detail. She expressed pleasure that the children would have a separate ward, fitted up with every convenience to make them comfortable while sick, and a play room for convalescents. « Many a grateful mother's heart will bless the ladies of the May Court club, » said Her Excellency. She again expressed the grateful feelings that would be experienced on the part of the little children and formally declared the ward open.

Then the members of the May Court club came in for warm congratulations from all