

SUPPLEMENT.

Since writing my book in the following pages, I made the following discovery ~~the serving of process~~ ra

1st. The first session of the first Parliament of Upper Canada, met at Niagara on the 17th of September, 1792, and prorogued on the 15th of October following.

John Graves, Simcoe, Lieutenant-Governor:

From 1792 to 1822 Sheriffs served all process, and were paid by salary.

The second session of the eighth Parliament of Upper Canada, met at York on the 21st day of November, 1821, and prorogued on the 17th January, 18~~21~~<sup>22</sup>. Sir Perigine Maitland, K. C. B., Lieutenant-Governor:

In this session an act entitled "An act to repeal part of, and amend the law now in force respecting the practice of Her Majesty's Court of King's Bench in this Province" was passed. In Section 45 of the Act, authority is given the Judges to establish fees to be taken by all officers of the Court."

In the same session an act entitled "An act to reduce into one act, the several laws now in force establishing district courts, and regulating the practice thereof; and also to extend the powers of said District Courts, was passed. Section 27 reads as follows: "And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid." That it shall and may be lawful for the persons hereinafter named to demand and receive the following fees. Then follows a table of fees for Judge, Commissioner, Attorney, Sheriff, Clerk and Crier.

Both acts passed January 17th, 18~~21~~<sup>22</sup>
