The Company being in want of funds to pay the conres, added tractors, called in stock, and sued several stockholders who on nearly neglected to respond to the calls, a number of judgments re finished. were obtained in favor of the Company; but in one of three and the suits instituted in the Division Court in Bayham, the 16 miles,) question as the Company being properly incorporated was operly exraised, and in this issue judgment was given for the de-, over and fendant. The question involved was, whether there had nting very been a sufficient amount of stock subscribed to entitle the s consider-Company to the privileges of incorporation under Statute the subse-16 Victoria, Cap. 190, as it appeared that the Secretary st heavily, of the Company, without ANY AUTHORITY, (as was subsebeen paid quently proved,) had struck-out the name of a Stockholder who had died, and the amount subscribed was thereby Company made to appear less than £4,000, the sum inserted in the of £4,000 instrument referred to in the Statute, as being the capital f the ratestock of the Company. In consequence of this decision, the this loan, operations of the Company ceased at once, and have never A By-Law since been resumed. Soon afterwards the second coupons assed, and on the debentures fell due, and the debenture-holders apdelivered plied to the Treasurer of the Township for payment, but hese were were informed that he had no funds on hand for their red not been demption, and that the debentures together with the hat consecoupons attached thereto were illegal; since that time the Council have continually refused to pay either principal or ere accordinterest on the debentures, and allege, as an excuse for led, and a non-payment, that the By-Law No. 116 under which they ote on the were issued was illegal, inasmuch as it reserved no sinking the defeat FUND for the redemption of the debentures, making them There is a charge on the general funds of the Township instead of these two providing for raising a sufficient sum by special rate, and

Anthony Scealey, purchaser and holder of debenture did not recite the amount of rateable property in the Township according to the last revised assessment roll.—

The debenture-holders are therefore without remedy unless the By.Law and proceedings subsequent upon it are legalised by Act of Parliament.

ouilding o

cond loan opinion of ip TAKING s in favor any way