ST. THOMAS Business COLLEGE

Four applications from other business colleges for teachers, is our record for last week. We cannot supply the demand on our school for such help.

We do not place 300 students in positions in one year; neither does any other Canadian College. No ONE Canadian College ever prepared 300 students for office work in one year. These are facts that cannot be contradicted.

We stake our reputation upon EDUCATIONAL RESULTS. We will refund the money to any student who is not satisfied with the instruction given in our school, after a trial of one month.

Now is the best time to enter. H. T. GOUGH, Principal. St. Thomas, Ont.

Foreign Notables

Alfred Dreyfus has written giving an account of his imprisonment.

The Duke of Cambridge is the only member of the royal family who employs a woman to cook.

The Duke of Fife is said to keep 12 suits going at the same time, and never wears the same clothes twice in one week.

Dr. Gallus Ritter von Hochberger, imperial and royal counsellor of the Austrian court, who resides at Carlsbad, is 97 years old, has been in practice 71 years and still gives medical advice.

The Duke of Cornwall and York, Lord Roberts and Lord Alverstone have been elected honorary members of the London Savage Club. The club has only four other honorary life members—the King, Sir H. M. Stanley, Dr. Nansen and "Mark Twain."

The newest Prussian census shows that Emperor William's landed property includes 83 separate estates, aggregating about 124,800 acres.

Next comes Prince Pleiss, with 75; the Dukes Ujest and Ratibor, with 52 and 51 respectively, and then the King of Saxony, who owns 50 large estates.

The British House of Commons has its story teller in chief in the person of a Mr. Tully. His latest yarn is of a Scotch inn-keeper who for years got tipsy every Sunday afternoon. One Thursday he got drunk by mistake, thinking it was Sunday, and found a couple of his guests playing billiards. He insisted that they stop, saying that he would not allow anyone to play billiards in his house "on the Sabbath."

Mis Critics. "What it takes to make a Paradise," some one has said, "depends upon the person who is going there."

There was once an artist who painted a picture of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. It was exhibited publicly. One day the painter, entering the hall, saw two men, who appeared to be farmers, standing before the picture.

"Now," said the artist to himself, "I can hear an unprejudiced opinion of my work."

He drew near, and listened to what the farmers were saying.

"Well, John," said one, "what do you think of it?"

"It's pretty good," said the other, "but there's one thing about it that strikes me as a little mite queer."

"What's that?"

"Why, he's got Eve with a Rhode Island green in her hand."

"Well, what of it?"

"Hum! Seeing that the first Rhode Island green was raised in this century, I don't quite see how they could have had them in Paradise!"

"No greenings!" exclaimed the other contemptuously; "how do you suppose they could have got along in the Garden of Eden without the Rhode Island greenings?"

Clearly Understood. They seldom gave dinner parties, and what they gave were small. But they liked things done decently and in order, and generally had the best.

On the afternoon of one of the little parties the host summoned the boy in buttons and said to him: "Now, John, you must be very careful how you hand round the wine."

"Yes, sir."

"These bottles with the black seals are the best, and these with the red seals the inferior sherry. The best sherry is for after dinner, the inferior for sherry you will hand around with the hock after soup. You understand—hock and inferior sherry after soup?"

"Yes, sir, perfectly," responded the boy in buttons.

The evening came and with it the guests. Everything went on swimmingly till the boy went round the table asking of the guests, "Hock or inferior sherry?"—London Tid-Bits.

A Dentist's Queer Will. A dentist died in a rural town in England recently, after spending over fifty years pulling the molars of his fellow citizens. He had made it a hobby to keep all the teeth which he had drawn in the course of his professional career, and took great pride in the collection. When his will was opened it was found that he had ordered his collection of teeth to be placed with him in his coffin for burial. His heirs fulfilled his command, and almost thirty thousand teeth were put into the coffin with the dead dentist. If some archaeologist of the future century shall happen to open that grave, he will find "food for thought" and some difficulty, perhaps, in explaining the presence of so many teeth.

Time for Thought. A man is measured by his solitudes. He who dies all moments of isolation is as conscious of guilt as he who avoids all companionship is palpably moribund. "Use sometimes," says George Herbert, "to be alone."

No flower comes to its fullness of beauty or sweetness wholly by sunshine or entirely by shade. "When thou hast entered thy closet," says our Lord, communion is possible and revelations will come. The man who is afraid to meet himself is the man for others to avoid.—Chicago Interior.

Artificial Asphalt. One of the chemical papers reports an experiment by which an artificial asphalt was produced, which closely resembles the natural substance. Fresh herring and oily pine wood were distilled in an iron retort and the produce was condensed in a Liebig condenser. The experiment seems to confirm the theory that asphalt and petroleum are the products of a natural distillation by which the remains of early forms of animal and vegetable life have been transformed in the heated crust of the earth.

That Some Time. Gaylord—Glad to have met you, old boy. Come up and see me some time.

Meeker—I declare it's too bad! It will be impossible for me to come then. I've an engagement elsewhere. So sorry.

A NOTED PHYSICIAN

Makes an Important Statement of Interest to All Women.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—The honest, intelligent physician is above the 'School.' Whatever is best in each case should be used, no matter to what school a physician belongs. I, as a matter of conscience, can only prescribe the best, and as I know and have proven that there is nothing in Materia Medica which equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female disorders, I unhesitatingly prescribe it, and have never yet been sorry, and I have many letters for ovarian troubles and for falling of the womb or ulcerations; it absolutely restores the affected parts to their normal condition quicker and better than anything else. I have known it to cure barrenness in women, who to-day are happy mothers of children, and while the medical profession looks down upon 'patents,' I have learned, instead, to look-up to the healing power, by whatever name it is known. If my fellow physicians dared tell the truth, hundreds of them would voice my sentiments."—Dr. W. A. WANTA, Lansing, Mich.

DR. W. A. WANTA, of Lansing, Mich.

The record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cannot be equalled. Accept no substitute.

Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address Lynn, Mass.

A PROXY THAT FAILED. "Tiffington was voted out of our golf club."

"What for?"

"Oh, he got so lazy that he made carried the bag."

THE WATCHWORD OF WOMEN. Modesty is woman's watchword. Whatever threatens her delicate sense of modesty, frightens her. For this reason many a woman permits diseases of the delicate womanly organs to become aggravated, because she cannot bring herself to submit to the ordeal of unpleasant questioning, offensive examinations, and obnoxious local treatments, which some physicians find necessary. Doubtless thousands of the women who have taken advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, have been led to do so by the escape thus offered from a treatment so repugnant to modesty as any sick woman may write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., in perfect confidence, all letters being treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential, and all answers being sent in plain envelopes with no advertising or other printing upon them. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been long hailed as a God-send to women. It makes weak women strong, and sick women well. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither cocaine, opium or other narcotic.

The prodigal son had to come to himself before he came to his father.

Alive, Yet Half Dead. This is the condition of thousands of growing girls and women. Can't eat enough to be truly alive. Digest so little of what they do eat, as to scarcely know what life really means. Miserable! Of course. Eat more, digest more, then feel streaming through life's renewed current, the buoyancy, the strength, the hopefulness of youth. Simply do as you'll just use Ferro-China, the wonderful blood maker, nerve strength and brain vigor. McColl & Co., druggists, know all about it. Call and ask them about it.

Man's knowledge is seen in his questions more than in his answers.

A Sick Stomach is always relieved, and its unpleasant consequences averted by taking drops of Polson's Nervine. A little sweetened water, or a little lemon juice, will prevent the nausea and its soothing and stimulating powers, calms the stomach and enables it to complete the process of digestion. Nervine times the best remedy for stomach and bowel troubles. Nervine will cure you. 25c.

Never buy what you do not want because it is cheap; it will be dear to you.

The Pain of Sore Feet. Just about the most tantalizing of all pains comes from sore feet. To get relief bathe the feet in warm water and then rub them with Polson's Nervine. It penetrates through the pores of the skin, takes out the soreness, reduces swellings, invigorates the tired muscles, tones up the circulation, and prevents the feet from becoming sore again. Nervine is a protection and safe-guard against the pains and aches of the entire family and cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, &c. 25 cents.

A woman's disposition may be told by the style of dress she affects.

Rules for Success in Life.

The following sixteen rules are kept printed on a card by a member of one of the oldest mercantile concerns in New York city, and, with other good literature and much fatherly advice, are handed to young men of his acquaintance from time to time and otherwise distributed where they will do good. It is safe to say that the success of the establishment referred to has been built up along the lines indicated by these rules. We recommend them to the attention of our readers:

1. Keep good company or none. Never be idle.
2. If your hands are not usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind.
3. Live up to your engagements. Keep your own secrets, if you have any.
4. When you speak to a person, look him in the face.
5. Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue.
6. Good character is above all things else.
7. Ever live (misfortunes excepted) within your income.
8. Make no haste to be rich, if you would prosper.
9. Never play at any game of chance.
10. Earn money before you spend it.
11. Never run into debt unless you see a way to get out again.
12. Never borrow if you can possibly avoid it.
13. Do not marry until you are able to support a wife.
14. Be just before you are generous.
15. Be temperate in all things.
16. Save when you are young to spend when you are old.

The Jeweler Was Well Caught. "Will you please examine this diamond," said a man who stepped into a jeweler's shop, "and tell me what you think of it? If it is a good stone, I think I will buy it."

The jeweler took the gem, which was uncut, and looked at it critically for a moment. Then, in a confidential tone he said:

"Well to tell you the truth, that isn't a very good stone. It hasn't much fire; it is badly cut, and there is something here very much like a flaw."

Then he held the diamond under a microscope and examined it carefully, finally observing: "No, it isn't exactly a flaw, but I shouldn't call it a perfect stone. Now if you want something really fine, I have here—"

"Excuse me," the other man interrupted; "I don't think I'll buy a diamond to-day. This is a diamond that one of your assistants let me take on Saturday on approval, and he has been forty dollars on it. Please let me have my money and we will declare the deal off."

Her First Patient. Some years before the Crimean war, in a Derbyshire village, a young girl might have been seen kneeling on the brick floor of a shepherd's cottage. She was bending over a great rough sheep dog, while a gentleman at her side was looking at the animal's paws, which had been badly hurt. The shepherd was going to drown poor Cap, the dog, thinking that he would never be of any more use, but the friend who examined him, and did the same thing again, and before long Cap was as well as ever.

The girl was Miss Florence Nightingale, and when she grew up she went to the Crimea and nursed the sick and wounded soldiers, who had no friend to care for them in that cold and dreary climate.

The Volcano—Vesuvius. Signor Matteucci, who has been studying Vesuvius for many years, recently made a report on the activity of the volcano. From July, 1895, it kept constantly in action for more than four years, the flow of lava ceasing in September, 1899.

The depth of the crater was the lava rose to within 240 feet of the top, when a series of explosions within the centre began. Some blocks of lava were projected 1,800 feet perpendicularly into the air. One block weighed thirty tons, and Signor Matteucci estimated that it took 610,000 horse power to eject it.

Five hundred thousand cubic yards of lava and ashes were belched forth in April and May. The crater is thirty feet higher than before, so that Vesuvius rises now 4,300 feet above sea level.

Cream of Peanut Soup. To make a cream of peanut soup put half a pint of peanut butter into a quart of milk; add half a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of pepper, a tablespoonful of grated onion, a bay leaf, a saltspoonful of celery seed, or a little chopped celery tops. Cook this in a double boiler for ten minutes. Moisten one tablespoonful of cornstarch in a little cold milk, add it to the hot milk, and stir until smooth and thick. Strain through a fine sieve, and serve with squares of toasted whole wheat bread. Nuts are sufficiently oily without adding butter. Any nut or mixture of nuts may be used in the same manner.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Conscientious by Degrees. It is well to be thankful for small mercies. Such is the opinion of a man from whose pocket was stolen a purse containing $25. Some months later he received this letter: "Dear Sir: I stole your money. Remorse naws my conscience, and I have sent you $5. When remorse naws again I'll send you some more."—Tit-Bits.

Traits of the Kangaroo. The big gray kangaroo of Australia measures about seven feet from the tip of its nose to the end of its tail. He can run faster than a horse, and clear 30 feet at a jump.

LIFE WORTH LIVING.

Why not have the free use of your arms and legs. Drive out the rheumatism and feel that life is worth living. Wm. Lee, gardener, No. 793 Princess street, Kingston, Ont., suffered for years with rheumatism in the shoulders and arms. Three bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure made a new man of him. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days treatment, 50 cents, at druggists or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

Sympathy and sincerity are the sister keys to all hearts.

Deafness is Curable! Sufferers from impaired hearing will be glad to know that their affliction is probably not due to any organic defect in the ear, but results probably from a thickening of the lining of the middle ear caused by catarrhal inflammation. Hundreds of perfect recoveries as a result of the inhalation of Catarrhose are reported, and on the highest authority we recommend this treatment to our readers. Catarrhose quickly restores lost hearing, and its efficiency is placed beyond dispute by the case of Mr. Foxall, of St. Thomas, who recovered perfect hearing by using Catarrhose, after years of deafness. Price $1. At Druggists or by mail, from Pulson & Co., Kingston, Ont.
