LIFE.

Let me but live my life from year to year,
With forward face and unreluctant soul,
Not hastening to, or turning from the goal :
Not mourning for the things that disappear
In the dim past, nor holding back in fear
From what the future veils ; but with a whole
And happy heart, that pays its toll
To Youth and Age, and travels on with cheer :

So let the way wind up the hill or down ;
Through rough or smooth, the journey will be joy ;
Still seeking what I sought when but a boy,
New friendship, high adventure, and a crown,
I shall grow old, but never loose life's zest,
Because the road's last turn will be the best.

—HENRY VAN DYKE.
