

Canadian Banking Practice

THIRD EDITION

Questions on Custom and Usage and Law, Published under the Auspices of the Canadian Bankers' Association.

Compiled by JOHN T. P. KNIGHT

Some years ago, the Editing Committee of the Journal of the Canadian Bankers' Association announced to their readers that through a column in said Journal headed "Questions on points of Practical Interest," enquiries on Legal Points arising in the course of a day's work in a bank would be replied to, and that the answers to such questions would be given under the advice of counsel where the law in the case submitted was not clearly established.

The hundreds of questions and answers on Canadian Banking Practice deal with nearly every possible point of practical interest likely to present itself during the daily routine of a bank. The replies relate to acceptances, cheques, endorsements, deposit receipts, letters of credit, circular notes, warehouse receipts, partnership accounts, bankers' lien on goods, forgery, alteration and loss of negotiable instruments, bills of exchange, promissory notes, principal and surety, etc., etc., etc.

The compiler of "Canadian Banking Practice" has classified and indexed the Questions on Points of Practical Interest. The value of such a work must be apparent, and a copy of the book should be in the possession of every bank official, barrister and business man in the country who desires to be informed upon points likely to arise in the course of dealings between banks and their customers.

In the daily course of the banking business, while much is mere routine, every one of experience knows that questions are constantly arising which necessitate an appeal to authority for guidance in the novel circumstances presented. The man who can meet such occasions and act with sense and discretion is the man who is likely to rise in his profession. In the present work is given a book of ready reference containing some six hundred answers to such questions by a committee of bankers eminently fitted to give authoritative advice.

The book is handsomely bound in cloth; price $4 per copy.
