Why do They Die?

WRITTEN ON THE DEATH OF WILLIAM J. BERHORST, MEMBER OF THE CATHOLIC UNION, CHATHAM.

Why do the young and the beautiful die?
Why do they leave us? God knows why;
We may not question His high decree,
But still the poor heart's cry will be
Why do they die?

Why do the noble and generous die?
Why do they leave us? God knows why;
He has but called them a little before,
Soon we shall meet them on heaven's bright shore,
There we need ask this sad question no more
Why do they die?

Why do the best and the holiest die?
Why do they leave us? God knows why.
Hath not the Master of fruits and flowers
A right to the fairest in Earth's fair bowers,
If he chooses to pluck the opening rose,
Shall we our stubborn will oppose?
While from our hearts goes up this cry
Why must our loved ones die?

Why must our best beloved die?
Why must they leave us? God knows why.
The smallest sparrow may not fall
Without His knowledge, who governs all,
He loved them best, so called them home
From His dear presence ne'er to roam,
And we who're left in exile here,
Cry while we shed the blinding tear,
Why must our best beloved die?

O Father of mercy, and Lord of light!
Thou knowest what is just and right,
Thy loving hand wounds but to heal,
The hearts affections to reveal.
Thou who didst weep at Lazurus' tomb
Console us in this night of gloom,
Teaching our poor bruised heart's to cry
E'en till their last expiring sigh,
Thy will be done.

LOCAL NEWS.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Joseph Lumley, representative for the Dominion Paper Co., is in the city, on his way west, on business for that company.

OBITUARY.—We are sorry to announce the death in Ireland, of the father of Mr. P. O'Keefe, of Strathroy, which occurred a few weeks since. We deeply sympathize with Mr. O'Keefe in his bereavement.

THANKS.—The proprietor of the RECORD returns his sincere thanks to the people of East and West Williams for the liberal and hearty manner in which they received the travelling agent of the paper, Mr. W. Walsh.

OUR STEAMBOATS.—The Thames Navigation Company contemplate having a dredge built this summer in order that the channel near the Forks may be rendered navigable during the season. The machinery is under construction.

FIRE.—On Monday evening the dry goods store of Mr. H. B. B. Alley was destroyed by fire. Loss estimated at $10,000. Partly covered by insurance. The building was owned by G. G. Magee, and was fully insured.

THE CANADIAN SENSATION.—McDowell's company will appear at the Mechanics' Hall Thursday and Saturday evenings of this week in the popular play "H. M. Ship Parliament." It is well worth seeing.

ACCIDENT.—A young man named Bayley, son of Conductor Bayley, G. W. R., met with a severe accident on Thursday. He was knocked off the foot board of the pony engine by a low switch, and sustained severe injuries by being thrown heavily on the track. Though the injuries are serious, it is thought no fatal results will follow.

NAVIGATING THE THAMES.—A movement is on foot for making the Thames navigable between London and Chatham. The estimated cost is half a million of dollars. At present no decided steps are being taken in the matter, but before the summer sets in our capitalists may perhaps discover a "bonanza" and set to work.

THE DONNELLY CASE.—The magistrates have delivered the following decision in this case:—The examination of witnesses by the able counsel both for the prosecution and defence being now concluded, it is our judgment that we find sufficient evidence against the prisoners now before us to send them for trial before a higher tribunal. We therefore commit James Carroll, John Kennedy, Martin McLachlin, James Ryder, John Purtell and Thomas Ryder to the common jail to await their trial at the Assizes, and thereat to be convicted or discharged by the Judge and jury.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

HOW IT WAS OBSERVED IN LONDON.

On Wednesday last, 17th, our fellow-countrymen did not forget to pay the usual honor to the memory of the patron saint of Ireland. Green badges were the order of the day, and from the number seen on the breasts of passers-by, we can realize what a large element in our midst is the Irish population.

At ten o'clock solemn High Mass was celebrated in the Cathedral, Rev. Father Tiernan acting as celebrant, Father Dillon as Deacon, and Rev. Mr. McKeown as sub-deacon. His Lordship Bishop Walsh was seated on the throne. Rev. Father O'Mahony delivered the sermon.

The musical part of the service was more than usually grand. The regular choir was ably assisted by Messrs. John Marshall and Prof. Jones, who kindly volunteered for the occasion. Mozart's 12th Mass was rendered in a most creditable manner, an orchestra assisting to make its production a rare musical treat. Mrs. Cruickshanks, the organist, deserves great credit for the artistic manner in which everything passed off. After Mass the organ and orchestra played "St. Patricks Day," Tho' the last glimpse of Erin," and the "Last Rose of Summer," in beautiful style.

The church was crowded in every part, and the services were such as to leave a lasting impression on those in attendance.

The orphans of Mount Hope took up a collection, and it must have been a most generous one, judging from the appearance of the plates.

In the evening a grand concert was given under the auspices of the Irish Benevolent Society. The management was placed in the hands of Mr. G. Sippi. This of itself is quite enough to convey the impression that the programme was choice, and carried out in a manner worthy the occasion. A large crowd thronged the hall, and the singers and performers were heartly applauded in each piece. The band of the 7th Fusileers contributed not a little to the success of the concert.

THE IRISH FAMINE.

The following additional sums have been received by Rev. M. J. Tiernan during the past week.

Rev. W. Flannery, (per Mr. Doyle, Port Stanley)	$ 30 00
"J. Carlin, Woodstock	131 00
Mr. Patrick Cleary and wife	7 00
By private subscription	56 00
Patrick Ryan	1 00

The following is the result of the collection taken up in the Catholic Mission of Mount Forest, in aid of the Irish Relief Fund; Mount Forest, $275.75; Ayton, $101.25; Proton, $30.00. Total, $407.00. A draft for this amount was sent by the Rev. Father O'Connell to the Right Rev. Bishop Crinnon, of Hamilton, who will forward it to Bishop Gillooly, of Elphin, Sligo, Ireland. A subscription to the extent of $200 has been made to the same fund by the congregations of Elora and Fergus.

The Irish Relief Committee of Point Edward's concluded its labors on Tuesday evening last, having forwarded 52 barrels of oatmeal to the Duchess of Marlborough, purchased with the proceeds of the collections raised in the village. This is a very creditable showing in the cause of charity for this little municipality, consisting mainly, it might be said wholly, of the working classes. A good deal of credit is due to the committee and the collectors for their promptness of action and zeal in this matter.

NEBRASKA.

The following letter, received from Bishop O'Connor, by Mr. J. M. O'Sullivan, of this city, will prove of interest to parties who may contemplate moving westward.

J. M. O'SULLIVAN:—

DEAR SIR,—I send by this mail a pamphlet that will give you good reliable information about Nebraska, and Greeley county in particular, where our colony is located.

I encourage no man of family to come here who cannot bring into the state from six to eight hundred dollars. He can put up a house of sod for eight or ten dollars, but he needs a team of oxen which will cost $100, or horses which will cost $150, a plough, a cow, and the ordinary furniture, and must support himself till he gathers the full crop of corn and vegetables.

Some men who have brought but two or three hundred dollars have done well, but this is not to be expected.

If you decide to come to Nebraska, two of you should do so immediately, as by so doing you can take timber claims, and homesteads for all four, which will cost you nothing. You can also build houses for your own and the other two families, and have everything ready for the spring work in March. This will save you much trouble. The soil in Nebraska is the richest in the world, and the climate is unsurpassed anywhere. Churches and schools will be built in Greeley county immediately, and there will be a resident priest there. There are over sixty Catholic families now there, and more than a hundred have purchased. We expect all our lands to be broken this coming summer. Sincerely yours,

†JAMES O'CONNOR.

THIRD DIVISION.—Senior Class—P. Brien, E. Mooney, E. Kilroy, J. Cronin, G. St. Louis, P. Bain, P. O'Hanlon, A. O'Connor, W. Askin, G. Marentette, T. Chittles, A. Ouclette, G. King, A. Shuck, U. Meloche. Junior Class—H. Christmann, G. Rocheleau, P. Ramoth, T. Rochford, W. Lee, E. Shinners, A. Vogel, C. Williams, F. Penniman, J. Port, J. Guilfoyle.

On Friday, an accident occurred at St. Thomas, which resulted in the death of a middle-aged lady named Goodwin, from Strathroy. It appears that Mr. Charles Goodwin and his wife were attending the funeral of Mrs. Goodwin's mother at St. Thomas. On returning from the funeral the team which Mr. Goodwin was driving became scared, and dashed away down the hill, tipping over the buggy and instantly killed Mrs. Goodwin. Mr. Goodwin was also seriously injured, and is not expected to recover from his injuries. The unfortunate affair has cast a gloom over the neighborhood.

ST. THOMAS.—Pocock Bros., of this city, have established a boot and shoe store in St. Thomas. From what we know of Mr. Stephen Pocock, a member of the firm, who will have charge of the establishment—and we know him well—we have no doubt he will succeed in building up a large trade. He has all the qualifications for success—a thorough knowledge of his business, an obliging disposition, and the utmost integrity. We trust our many friends in St. Thomas will give him a call when they are in need of anything in the boot and shoe line.

THE CATHOLIC PRESS.

THE wisdom of the Church in forbidding her priests to marry was strikingly illustrated in this city last week. The Episcopal Rector of Christ Church gave notice to his people a short time ago that he would be obliged to seek another field of ministerial labor, as the salary he was receiving at their hands was wholly inadequate to the support of a large family. To illustrate the utter insufficiency he assurred them that in six months he had received but $1,400 in salary, adding, "it must be evident to every one who has any knowledge of the necessary expenses of a large family in a city that such an amount is utterly inadequate. I must therefore resign." In a financial report of St. John's church, published a short time ago, we find the item, "Year's salary for Bishop and two priests, $2100." Seven hundred will support Bishop Ryan a whole year; fourteen hundred dollars will not support Dr. Schuler six months. "It is all in the family."—Western Watchman.

The Herald has not killed Mr. Parnell by its violent attacks on him. On the contrary, he seems to become stronger and more popular under its abuse. This is owing to the fact that our fellow Irish citizens more than distrust the disinterested honesty of the Herald in the whole business, while Americans, true to their principles of fair play to all parties, are desirous of having the case of Ireland laid before them by an Irish landlord, who has discarded his class associations, in order to espouse the cause of an oppressed people. Irish grievances have only come before them in the shape of sneering comments from the London Times and slanderous diatribes by Mr. Froude, all of which have been copied into the anti-Irish papers in America. The Herald must use facts and arguments, and not English statements and wholesale vituperation, before it convinces the liberty-loving people of America that Mr. Parnell is a demagogue.

Who has not seen the Irish drama advertised in flaming letters on the bill-boards? "The Rapparee," "The Colleen Bawn," "Sogarth Aroon," "Cushla Machree"—any title will do, provided it be Irish, in green letters, with the stage Irishman in a picture disarming at least a dozen red-coated soldiers. And who has not seen the door of the theatre crowded on the evening announced with Irishmen and women, who ought to have more respect for themselves than to countenance these outrageous travesties on Ireland and the Irish? Carleton wrote an abominably vulgar book, "Paddy-go-Easy"—it is to be hoped that none of our readers remember this work—which seems to have served as a model for the typical stage Irishman. And then the colleen to whom a villainous agent makes love, in her low-necked dress and with a display of stocking which would cause her expulsion from that dear little chapel of which she speaks so gushingly to slow music! Irishmen should not encourage this kind of thing. It is in Lent the Irish drama generally appears on the boards, and Catholics are all the more culpable who, during this holy season, assist at performances in which their race, and indirectly their religion, are caricatured.—Catholic Review.

ECONOMY IN HEATING.—Messrs. McLennan & Fryer, plumbers, &c., 244 Dundas st., have patented an Economical Hot Water Heater, for heating dwellings, churches, &c. The invention consists of a series of iron pipes, arranged in a furnace similiar to a box stove, in such a manner that every particle of heat is utilized before going up the chimney, thereby saving a great amount of fuel. Their premises, which are three stories in height, was heated comfortably last month with less than a cord of wood. They have been experimenting as to the quantity of pipe that the furnace will heat, and have now one thousand feet in their establishment. Of course furnaces can be made for larger buildings when necessary. Explosions are made impossible, by the arrangment of an expansion tank placed on the top story, in which a gauge glass is fixed to show the quantity of water in pipes, and from the top of which tank is a smalll iron pipe open to the air, which acts as a safety valve. The heater will burn wood or coal equally as well, and especially recommends itse f to parties in the country, as the quantity of water required averages from one to two quarts per week. All parties interested in the proper heating of their houses, would do well to pay the firm a visit, and see for themselves the large quantities of pipes heated by a very small fire.

THE AGRICULTURAL.—This Savings and Loan Company have now taken rank among the most successful monetary institutions of the Dominion. Although called the Agricultural, and doing a business largly among the farming community, its transactions are extending among all classes, and all have great confidence in its stability, while the utmost pleasure is experienced by those who have business with the Agricultural from the courteous and straightforward manner in which they are dealt with by Mr. Roe, the efficient manager, and his able staff of assistants. The Board of Directors comprise some of our most prominent and responsible business men, and to the careful manipulation of its affairs in the hands of these gentlemen may be attributed its unprecedented success. Money can now be obtained from the Society at a very low rate of interest.

As the salve made by the old Irish lady at Ailsa Craig is given to the poor free of charge, we feel some interest in stating that report says of it that a failure to cure any sore, no matter by what name called, is a thing unknown to it, that is, if the cancer, king's evil, ulcer, or wound be at all accessible to it, and the affected one be not too far gone before its use is commenced. The Rev. T. Atkinson, of Ailsa Craig, Ont., replies to all enquires about it.

MUSIC.—We are pleased to notice that Mr. Lewis Mitchell, a Catholic young man of much ability, and a thorough master of his profession, has taken up his residence in London. For some time past he has held the position of organist in Woodstock.

TELEGRAPHIC.

FRANCE.

Paris, March 13.— A secret Cabinet Council gave rise to the reports that differences arose about the Jesuit question, which are to-night semi-officially denied. The committee of the Right Senators has decided to accept no compromise about seventh clause of Ferry's Educational Bill, and to take no part in the debate on the second reading.

London, March 14.—A Paris dispatch says in spite of semi-official denial it is clear the Cabinet is divided on article seven of Ferry's Education Bill. A modification of the Cabinet is very probable. It is semi-officially given out that it may be necessary for the French Ministry to ask the Chambers to proclaim martial law in order to suppress possible disturbances.

Paris, March 15.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day the Left introduced an interpellation, asking the Government what course it will pursue relative to unauthorized religious confraternities. The Premier emphatically repeated the declaration of yesterday, that he would apply existing laws. He demanded complete liberty of action. He would always be ready to render an account of his acts. He asked for a complete vote of confidence by a large majority. The motion introduced by the Left, expressing confidence in the Government, and relying on its firmness to enforce the laws against unauthorized congregations, was adopted 338 to 147. The Extreme Left abstained from voting. The minority were all members of the Right. The Ferry Educational Bill, as amended by the Senate, was adopted.

UNITED STATES.

San Francisco, March 11.—The 24th of March is the day fixed by the agitators for abating the Chinatown nuisance. It is believed the agitators will be dissuaded from causing the threatened trouble. It is certain communism is the real object of the Kearneyites. Every arrangement is made to meet the first act of violence.

San Francisco, March 16.—The police judge has sentenced Kearney to six months' imprisonment in the House of Correction and a fine of $1,000. It is probable that he will take the case to the Supreme Court on a habeas corpus.

San Francisco, Cal., March 16.—In sentencing Kearney the judge said it was not his duty to punish a prisoner for a similar offence in the past, but to confine himself to the present case; he would pass judgment without prejudice, feeling or vindictiveness, but the sentence imposed would indicate his estimate of the gravity of the offence. Kearney received the sentence in silence, but his features expressed the utmost surprise and indignation. He previously stated that he expected to get off with a fine of $20. After leaving Court he freely expressed anger, denouncing the penalty as outrageous, and claiming he would beat it. Probably, in the expectation of a nominal sentence, his Counsel neglected to demand a jury trial, and having no recourse in that direction filed an appeal to the Superior Court, furnishing bonds of $3,000. Many expressions of gratification at the judge's action are heard on all sides.

Austin, Texas, March 16.—Matthew and David Dow, Scotchmen, settled in Bell county, and commenced teaching the doctrine of santification, and thus destroyed the domestic tranquilltity of a number of families by arraying wives against their husbands. A party of men, on February the 10th, flogged the Dows and ordered them to leave the country. The British Consul at Galveston demanded of the State Department what action had been taken to punish this outrage on British subjects. The acting Secretary of State replied that the local authorities were ready to act upon proper affidavits. A writ of lunacy was sworn out against the Dows, and they were declared insane, but the Superintendent of the asylum at Austin denied them admission, and they moved here and remain quiet.
