

of Law, and to issue all Warrants necessary for such purposes: Provided always, nevertheless, that no person who shall be removed by any such Warrant as aforesaid, shall, by means of such removal, be deprived of such right to be tried or discharged, as such person would by Law have been entitled to if not so removed; and in every case in which any such person would have been entitled to have been tried or discharged, if such person had continued in the Gaol or Prison to which such person was before committed, it shall and may be lawful for such person to apply to be bailed or discharged, in the same manner as such person might have done if he had remained in the Gaol or Prison to which such person was before committed, as aforesaid.

Right to be tried in place where offence committed, and to be bailed, not taken away.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That for and during the continuance of this Act, in all and every case in which application shall be made for Her Majesty's Writ of Habeas Corpus to any Court or Courts, Judge or Judges, within this Province, by any person or persons who are or shall be in Prison within this Province, at or upon the day on which this Act shall receive the Royal Assent, or afterwards, charged by any public authority, with High Treason, misprision of High Treason, or Treasonable Practices, such Writ of Habeas Corpus, if allowed, shall not be made returnable in less than thirty days from the time of its being allowed; and in all and every such case and cases, it shall be the duty of such Court, or Judge or Judges, and of each and every of them, and they are hereby required, when and so soon as such application for such Writ of Habeas Corpus shall to them be respectively made, to give notice and information thereof in writing together with copies of such application, and of the Affidavit or Affidavits, or other paper-writings, on which such application shall be founded, to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government, for the time being.

Restrictions relative to the granting the Writ of Habeas Corpus.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be and continue in force to the end of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Limitation of Act.
