

Servia's Reply to Ultimatum Of The Austriam Empire

London, July 29.—Servia's reply to Austria's ultimatum is summarized as follows:
 First—Servia agrees to the publication in its official journal on the front page of the formal declaration submitted by the Austrian government condemning the subversive propaganda and deploring its fatal consequences, regretting the participation of Servian officers in this propaganda, repudiating any further interference with Austro-Hungarian interest and warning all Servians that proceedings will be taken in the future against any persons guilty of such machinations.
 Second—Servia agrees to communicate this declaration to the army in the form of an order of the day.
 Third—It promises to dissolve the societies which may be considered capable of conducting intrigues against Austria.
 Fifth—Dismissal from the army and navy officers and the removal also of civilians whose participation in any anti-Austrian propaganda may be proved. The Servian Government, however, protests against Austrian officials taking any part in the enquiry.
 Sixth—The Servian Government asks for an explanation as to just what part the Austrian officials are to be called upon to take in the inquiry into the Sarajevo plot, and it is announced that Servia can only admit such participation as would be in accordance with international law and good neighborly relations.
 Seventh—To sum up, Servia accepts all conditions and all demands of Austria and makes reservations only regarding the participation of Austrian officials in the inquiry. It does not give its formal refusal to this point, but confines itself to asking explanations.
 Finally of the Austrian government finds this reply inadequate, Servia appeals to the Hague tribunal and to the powers which signed the declaration of 1909 relative to Bosnia and Herzegovina.

CASE ONE OF FRAUD ON THE INSURANCE

Guilty Woman Was Jailed,
But Took Sick and Signed Confession

London, July 29.—The story of a British army officer's determination to undergo penal servitude rather than defend himself at his wife's expense, although she was proved guilty, is told in a document sent to all members of parliament by Sir Herbert Raphael, M.P., who is trying to secure a rehearing of the case of Lieut. Cecil Aylmer Cameron, of the Royal Artillery, and his wife, who were both convicted in 1911 of fraudulently claiming $32,000 insurance on a pearl necklace which Mrs. Cameron said had been stolen from her, but which she never even possessed.

Shielded His Wife

Lieut. Cameron refused to go into the witness-box at the trial to prove his non-complicity in the fraud for fear of making his wife's case worse. The result was that both were sentenced to three years' penal servitude. The husband served two years of his sentence, but the wife was released after a few weeks owing to a dangerous illness. Mrs. Cameron, fearing that she was about to die, made a complete confession exonerating her husband. She showed that she had duped him, and that up to the very last she had feared to confess her deception lest she should lose his love.
 A petition, remarkable for the names of the signatories, has been addressed to his majesty asking for a rehearing of the case. It contains the confession and other evidence which Mr. Cameron knew, but refused to use at the trial. The Scottish secretary, Mr. McKinnon Wood, has persistently refused to advise his majesty to grant the petition, which was signed by Cameron of Lochiel, the head of the clan; five dukes, including the Duke of Norfolk, the premier peer of England; Lord Lansdowne and five other marquises; Lord Roberts, Lord Grey, Lord Cromer, and Lord Selborne; 20 members of the Privy Council; 123 generals; nine bishops; two archbishops and 17 bishops; a long list of officers, peers, barristers, professors, doctors and others, numbering more than 4,000.

Lord Middleton and Lord Denbigh are going to bring the matter forward in the house of lords and Sir Herbert Raphael in the House of Commons.
