NEWS OF NORFOLK

T. J. Agar Will Conduct Crown Cases at Chatham Assizes

OTHER SIMCOE NEWS

Write Simcoe Agency, Box 311, or phone 336-3 all matters regarding delivery of subscriptions, news items or advertisements.

(From Our Own Correspondent).
Simcoe, Oct. 27.—Mr. T. J. Agar, of Simcoe, has been retained to take the Crown business at the Chatham Assizes, commencing on Monday. There are on the docket two murder cases, two train wrecking cases and three bribery cases. The slate is clear in Norfolk.

Setting Out of Court.
Morris Finkle's action for misrepresentation against an employee of Roy Wallace, was settled out of court yesterday. The defendant paying the costs, re-possessing the animal and returning to Finkle his promissory note.

Mr. Finkle claimed that the horse was represented to him as sound and seven years of age and would drive single or double. Finkle claimed that it was now broken and could not travel at all.

Old Ends of News.
L. W. Fick will next week resume the cutting of saw logs on the old Sovereign homestead, now owned by Lou Barber.

George Edwards, of Varenay, is moving to the Frank Somers farm in Townsend, near Rockford, and Fred Marr, of Colborne street north, will return to his Woodhouse farm, which Mr. Edwards is vacating.

Mrs. James McBride, of Tillamook, has joined her daughter, Mrs. Leslie Blackwood, of Toronto, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. T. J. Agar.

A working gang of some twenty-five men are carrying the gas pipe to the Lynedoch field. They are making about half a mile a day and are within four miles of their destination. The pipe being laid now about two miles this side of Lynedoch is a four-inch one.

Several from this district attended the Provincial plowing match.

A Time For the Boys
Our delivery boys will be ready to take on new subscribers on Nov. 1st and all orders sent will be promptly attended to. The Simcoe agency is already considering a plan for giving the boys of the town quarter of an hour of real amusement some time during the Xmas holiday season and the bigger our subscription is; the greater the fun. Every subscriber whose subscription is paid up to Jan. 1st, 1918 can without one cent of money or any trouble whatever, nominate one boy for our proposed special; provided the subscriber has been on the list for at least one month. It will be necessary then to subscribe for The Courier before November is out; and why not when it comes in? The Courier is not paying two men a salary to go from house to house daily; soliciting that it be substituted for a paper already taken; nor scattering sample copies profusely along the streets. Neither is it offering six weeks' subscription for the price of one month. Our aim is to spend the money for good delivery and the news while it is news; and we thankfully acknowledge the liberal encouragement and support received in so many ways from so many sources.

STOP DANDRUFF! HAIR GETS THICK WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Girls! Draw a Cloth through Your Hair and Double its Beauty

Spend a Few Cents! Dandruff Vanishes and Hair Stops Coming Out

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff, is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance and richness and an incomparable glass and lustre, and try as you will, you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how easy and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson III.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 21, 1917.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Ex. iii, 8-13; vi, 14-18—Memory Verses, Ex. vi, 14, 18 Golden Text, Ps. 5. 4—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The two portions selected for today's lesson, with the intervening chapters, tell of the rebuilding and dedication of the temple, heretofore and many hindrances. The prominent human instruments are Zerubbabel the governor, Joshua the priest and the two prophets Haggai and Zechariah. Chapters iii, 8, and vi, 14, and the writings of these two prophets. In chapter iii, 2, 8, notice that the very first thing they did was to build the altar and offer burnt offerings unto the Lord, reminding us of the shedding of blood of Gen. iii, 21, Noah's altar after the deluge, Abraham's altar to the Lord and after his return from Egypt and the altar just inside the gate of the tabernacle, the only way of access to God (Gen. ix, 20; xli, 8, xlii, 4; Ex. xxix, 38-43). All blessing is the cause of the finished work on Golgotha, of which all sacrifice was typical and without which there can be neither service nor worship. There is a sentence in chapter iii, 4, which is applicable to all our daily life and to all our service. "As the duty of every day required," or, as in the margin, "The matter of the day in his day." It is also found in most helpful connections in Ex. xvi, 4; II Kings xxi, 30; I Kings viii, 60; and elsewhere. It is the practical application of the prayer "Give us this day our daily bread."

As the foundation of the house was laid the weeping of the old people who had seen the first house and the joyful shouting of the younger people because of the house about to be built was very confusing, but it was heard afar off (iii, 11-13). Our praise and thanksgiving because of the one only foundation that has been laid should be heard afar off, even to the ends of the earth, that all who will may build thereon, for the gospel of God concerning His Son is for every creature (Ias. xxviii, 16; I Cor. iii, 11; Acts iv, 12; Mark xvi, 15). In the matter of ordinary buildings to lay a foundation is one thing and to complete the building may be quite another because of many hindrances. In this case the adversaries wanted to join Israel in helping to build, but the governor and the priest would not accept their help, saying, "Ye have not the right to do with us to build our house unto our God." Therefore the adversaries in every way hindered the work and caused it to cease until the second year of Darius (iv, 14; 23, 24).

They that are in the flesh—that is, unsaved people—cannot please God (Rom. viii, 8), and such should not be asked to help in any way in what is really the work of the Lord. The Lord cannot accept service, either in the pulpit or out of it, from those who are not His, for without faith it is impossible to please Him (Heb. xi, 6). There are many Christians who are more than willing to accept help from any one, and pastors and workers have been known to appeal to the ungodly for funds to carry on what they call the Lord's work, but it is wrong. The Lord said through Haggai, "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine" (Hag. ii, 8), and if the work is His He will care for it without any help from the ungodly. I have proved this for nearly forty years (June, 1910, and my little monthly, Kingdom Tidings, now in its twenty-sixth year, tells on the first page of each issue what a wonder working God we have.

The servants of the God of heaven and earth (v, 11) should be able to say to the world what Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lift up mine hand unto the Lord, the most High God, the possessor of heaven and earth; * * * that I will not take anything that is thine lest thou shouldst say, I have made Abram rich" (Gen. xiv, 22, 23). According to II Chron. xvi, 8, the Lord is looking over the earth for such as are whole hearted for Him that He may show Himself strong for them. But we cannot have a whole heart for God while leaning on the world. Darius, having caused search to be made, found the decree of Cyrus concerning the building of the house and sent word to the governor beyond the river and his companions, saying, "Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place." And he also ordered that all they needed for building and expenses and sacrifices be given them day by day without stint (vi, 7-10). How much more and without fail will the Lord Jesus do for His own and for all work that is really His! (Rom. viii, 32).

So the building was finished (vi, 14, 15), and He who said on the cross "It is finished" will finish all that has been purposed in Him from all eternity, the building of His church, the restoration and salvation of Israel and the filling of the whole earth with His glory. His enemies shall be subdued and the Lamb shall overcome, for He is King of kings and Lord of lords (Rev. xxi, 14). The lesson begins with the keeping of the Passover after the dedication of the temple (vi, 16-22). Whether it be Israel or the church or the individual believer, the beginning and ending of everything are in Christ by virtue of His great sacrifice of Himself for us and because He will surely finish all that He has begun.

TO KNOCK ITALY OUT OF THE WAR

Austro-German Offensive is Being Desperately Waged
CLAIM MANY CAPTIVES

London, Oct. 27.—The desperate attempt to knock Italy out of the war now being made by the Germans has resulted in the most desperate fighting yet witnessed on this front. The Italian official statement today announces that the evacuation of the Bainsizza plateau has been decided on. Cadorna's great drive last August. His forces conquered the great mountain peaks forming the western boundary of this high ground—Monte Santo, Monte San Gabriele and Kuk, and then drove the Austrians ahead of them across the comparatively level upper ground.

According to the German official statements, the Teuton troops are marching rapidly forward, and have already captured 30,000 Italians. The claim that 300 "guns" were captured is a sample of the way the Teutons word their reports. In this instance "guns" do not mean cannons, but principally machine guns, as the statement adds, "Many of them were heavy ones."

At many places the Germans are now fighting on Italian territory, the war office reports. The Germans passed beyond their objectives, the announcement says, and threw the Italians from strong near by positions.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID DISEASE

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions. They affect all the organs and functions, membranes and tissues, and are directly responsible for the readiness with which some people contract disease. For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. It is distinguished for its thoroughness in purifying the blood, which it enriches and invigorates. No other medicine acts like it. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Insist on having Hood's.

Why Canada Needs More Money

UP to date the war has cost Canada about $700,000,000.

Canada has spent in Canada over $400,000,000 on her own account.

Canada has spent in Canada on behalf of Great Britain over $300,000,000.

What Canada spends for Great Britain is really loaned to Great Britain and will be repaid or credited to Canada later on.

Great Britain needs so much ready cash to finance her own expenditures at home for herself and for our Allies that she must buy on credit from Canada, and from every other country where she can get credit.

Of course Great Britain's credit is so good that other countries, in order to get her trade, are quite as willing to give her credit as we are in Canada.

Canada wants to help Great Britain not only because Canada wants Britain's trade but because we are Canada and she is Great Britain—both members of the same great Empire, kin of our kin, our motherland.

For Canada it is both a filial and patriotic duty to supply Great Britain's war needs and remember, her needs are our needs. Also it is in Canada's self-interest to supply those needs and thus keep open a market for our products.

Now, Britain needs our wheat, our cheese, cattle, hogs, and many manufactured articles.

Canada also needs many of these things—between the two it amounts to more than a million dollars a day in cash.

And the producers must be paid in cash.

Neither Canada nor Great Britain could go to a Canadian farmer and buy his wheat or his cattle on credit.

The farmer and all other producers might be ever so willing to give their country credit but they could not do it because they have to pay cash for wages, for rent, materials, etc. They must be paid in cash, or its equivalent.

So Canada says to Great Britain:—"I will lend you the money so that you can pay cash to Canada's producers for what you want."

"I will borrow this money from our own people just as you borrow money from your people."

"I will also borrow from the people of Canada money to pay cash for all the products that Canada, as well as Great Britain, needs in Canada."

That is Canada's practical, patriotic part in helping to win the war.

Without this credit the Canadian producer could not sell to Great Britain, and without these Canadian products the war would be prolonged.

So it is necessary for Canada to give to Great Britain the credit in order that Canada's own producers, who need a market, will have one; and in order that Great Britain which needs the products to win the war, will get them.

Now how does Canada get the money by which both Canada and Britain can pay cash for Canada's products?

By borrowing it from the people of Canada through the sale of Canada's Victory Bonds to be offered in November.

That is why Canada's Victory Bonds are offered to the people—to raise money to help to finish the war.

"Canada must keep her shoulder to the wheel even though it be a chariot of fire," and the way for Canada to keep her shoulder to the wheel is by buying

Chicago's Year

If Eddie has Another Repeater, But it if He Slumps

Before tucking baseball bat for the long winter us take one final whirl and see what chance the appear to have of retaining they won the other day Detroit Free Press.

Rowland's club is the league's record show that beyond argument it has not a star position it is not actually any and its team-work is prosaic. It is game and besides. Two things that determined at this time a big hearing on its club however. One is Eddie condition and the other of players that will into the military service.

Cleto was the largest for in the Chicago club this year. He pitched the of his career and the best American League hurler deliver. If he can come with another such season do not get too bad. So do not get too bad by the drafting of volunteers their stars, it looks like a more season of success for Cleto, however, is going toward the time when he faded. In fact he has gone usual lifetime of a major star and he may not be 1918.

Not Enough Pitch Should Eddie have only any year, it would be very Rowland's club to come again because of the weakness of his hurling as from Eddie, Rowland has pitchers that may be won and counted upon as stars. Faby is a great Claude Williams a very possibly destined to achieve with another year's. Russell is capable of pitched ball on occasion, he is in bad shape and unless the kinks out of it, he worked often. Danforth
