Hydro Commission Net Yet However, Ready to Recomend Development DANGER OF FLOODS

Toronto, March 8-The Hydro-

Electric Commission is not yet ready to recommend power development hydro-electric engineers and the C.A. training of the boys, but the controlling periodical floods that devastate considerable areas, but the commission believes that the project is not impracticable. Hon. Finlay Mac Diarmid, speaking in the Legislature to-day in reply to a By Courier Leased Wire motion by J. H. Ham, of South Brant, asking for a return of correspondence relating to the Grand Riv-ber that the commission had the matter under consideration. The minister agreed that there was a lot to be said in favor of a diversion the time. The latter, in the back of the stream from a point north of seat, escaped uninjured. Hurlburti Galt to Dundas, but emphasized the madvisibility of attempting to deal here.
