Historic Spots At Hortonville

Mr. S. Curry, is an old, intelligent and respected resident at Hortonville. Near to his residence at the head of the public wharf stands an extremely large elm tree of magnificent proportions, rearing its lofty head to the skies. Many years ago it was planted a small twig, it is now venerable with years, and beneath its shade Mr. Currie was born. Not very far from where this fine tree luxuriates is found a small level plateau jutting out into the water. Viewing this spot has given rise to a possible theory that from this plateau the Acadian French embarked in boats to the vessels sent to carry them away as expatriated from Nova Scotia more than 2000 years ago. Though not definitely settled, yet the spot looks feasible and is thus historic.

The above from the Windsor, Tribune, is of interest. The one defect is a typographical error which makes our country sound like ancient history. The expulsion of the Acadians at Hortonville, was in 1755, hardly 2000 years ago.

Rev. H. A. Fish of Owen Sound, Ontario, Past Grand, Chaplain of the most Worshipful Grand Orange Lodge of British North America, will speak twice in Kentville, Sunday 18th., inst. in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in the morning at 11 o'clock and in the Baptist Church in the evening at 7.30. Those who wish to hear the great questions of the day discussed by so compident an authority should not fail to be present at one or the other of these services.

A Sale of Fancy and Useful articles will be held by the busy workers (girls under 14 years) on the grounds of Mrs. K. T. Hibbert, Port Williams on Tuesday afternoon August 22nd., from 4 to 8 o'clock. Ice cream will be served proceeds for field comforts. Come and encourage the girls in their first attempts.

PROCLAMATION

GEORGE the FIFTH, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come or whom the same may in any wise concern,—GREETING :

A Proclamation of conditional amnesty respecting men belonging to Class I under the Military Service Act, 1917, who have disobeyed our Proclamation of 13th October, 1917, or their orders to report for duty, or are deserters or absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

E. L. NEWCOMBE, } WHEREAS considerable numbers of men belonging to Class I under our Military Service Act, 1917, called out on active service in our Canadian Expeditionary Force for the defence of Canada under Our Proclamation of 13th October, 1917, although they have thus become by law soldiers enlisted in the Military Service of Canada,

AND WE DO HEREBY STRICTLY WARN AND SOLEMNLY IMPRESS UPON ALL SUCH MEN, and as well those who employ, harbour, conceal or assist them in their disobedience, that, if they persist in their failure to report, absence or desertion until the expiry of the last mentioned day, they will be pursued and punished with all the rigour and severity of the law. SUBJECT TO THE JUDGMENT OF OUR COURTS MARTIAL WHICH WILL BE CONVENED TO TRY SUCH CASES or other competent tribunals: and also that those who employ, harbour, conceal or assist such men will be held strictly accountable as offenders and subject to the pains, penalties and forfeitures in that behalf by law provided for their said offence.

Have failed to report for duty as lawfully required of them under the said Military Service Act and the regulations thereunder, including the Order in Council duly passed on April 20 last,
Or have deserted,
Or absented themselves without leave from our Canadian Expeditionary Force,

And it is represented that the very serious and unfortunate situation in which these men find themselves is due in many cases to the fact that, notwithstanding the information and warning contained in Our Proclamation aforesaid, they have misunderstood their duty or obligation, or have been misled by the advice of ill-disposed, disloyal or seditious persons.

AND WHEREAS we desire, if possible, to avoid the infliction of the heavy penalties which the law imposes for the offences of which these soldiers have thus been guilty, and to afford them an opportunity within a limited time to report and make their services available in Our Canadian Expeditionary Force as is by law their bounden duty, and as is necessary for the defence of Our Dominion of Canada.

NOW KNOW YE that we in the exercise of Our powers, and of Our good will and pleasure in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare and cause to be published and made known THAT THE PENALTIES OF THE LAW WILL NOT BE IMPOSED OR EXACTED as against the men who belong to Class I under Our Military Service Act, 1917, and who have disobeyed Our Proclamation aforesaid; or who have received notice from any of Our registrars or deputy registrars to report for duty on a day now past and have failed so to report; or who, having reported and obtained leave of absence, have failed to report at the expiry of their leave, or have become deserters from Our Expeditionary Force, PROVIDED THEY REPORT FOR DUTY ON OR BEFORE THE TWENTY FOURTH DAY OF AUGUST 1918.

By Command,
Thomas Mulvey
Under-Secretary of State.
