Only two sales were made on the board. It is expected that this week's meeting of the board will be the last for the season.

Prescott Journal: Work has progressed steadily on the Hornerie church and we hear that the place of worship will be dedicated in a few weeks. One point about the Hornerie church might well be taken to the credit of the churches. They built only as they had the means and their church when completed is paid for.

Mr. Joshua Legge of Gannaque has been for some time in the Michigan country, and out of the way of ordinary communication. Mr. Legge died on Wednesday night, and telegrams were sent him then and previously, but he was not known if they reached him. On Friday, however, he telegraphed from Sault Ste. Marie that he received them and was on his way home.

A teacher in a Boston suburban public school received the following "eggsuge" from the mother of a boy who had failed to be present on a certain day: "Dear teacher: Please eggsuge Andrew James yesterday. He started all right, but him and another boy stopped for a little swim in the river, and a dog came along and carried off Andrew James' pants and shirt and he had to stay in the water until the boys came and got more pants and shirt for him, and then it was to late. Under the circumstances you could not expect him to be there so kindly eggsuge."
