

EGG LAYING CONTESTS

The Dominion Experimental Farm will conduct a second series of egg-laying contests, beginning Nov. 1, 1920, to continue for 23 consecutive weeks. The names and locations of the contests will be as follows:

Canadian Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Farm, Ottawa, Ont.
Provincial Contests.
Prince Edward Island Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Station, Charlottetown, P.E.I.
Nova Scotia Federal Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Farm, Nappan, N.S.
New Brunswick Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Station, Fredericton, N.B.

Quebec Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Station, Cap St. Jacques, Que.
Ontario Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Farm, Ottawa, Ont.
Manitoba Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Farm, Brandon, Man.
Saskatchewan Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Farm, Indian Head, Sask.

Alberta Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Station, Lethbridge, Alta.
British Columbia Egg-Laying Contest—Experimental Farm, Agassiz, B.C.

Note—The "Canadian" is open to entries from anywhere. The "Provincial" is confined to entries within the province in which it is situated.

Fees.—The entry fee for the Canadian Egg-Laying Contest at Ottawa is $15. The entry fee for all Provincial Contests is $5. One-fifth of the entry fee must accompany the application, which must be received before Aug. 15.

The balance must be paid upon notification of acceptance of the entry, which will be by Sept. 30. Should the entry not be accepted, the first payment will be refunded, but should the balance of the entry fee not be received by Oct. 10, the application will be cancelled and the first payment forfeited.

Failure to forward the pen when instructed automatically forfeits the fee, and the application is cancelled. All cheques or money orders must be made payable to par in Ottawa, and made out to the "Accountant, for Egg-Laying Contests."

Entries.—Entry forms and rules and regulations will be supplied upon application to the Dominion Poultry Husbandman, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, or the Superintendent of the Experimental Farm upon which the contest you wish to enter is conducted. (See names of contests above.)

Entries must be made direct to the contest you wish to enter, along with the first payment, before Aug. 25, 1920.

RECORD OF PERFORMANCE AA.
(Dominion Experimental Farms Announcement.)

Rules and Regulations.
1. Number—Each entry or pen shall consist of ten birds of a standard variety, and each bird must be typical of the breed and free from standard disqualifications.

2. Substitution—Each contestant will be allowed to keep his pen of 10 birds up to strength throughout the contest in the Canadian Contest two reserves intended as substitutes must accompany the original birds, and will be housed with them in the pen. The 10 birds for the original pen must be specified before the contest begins. Further substitution will be allowed as will accompany each shipment, which he paid, and the entry package returned before the next shipment will be forwarded.

11. Feeding and housing—The birds while in the contest will receive the best of feed and care, and the system of feeding will be mixed grain in litter morning and evening, and dry mash in a hopper before them all the time. Green feed, grit shell and bone-meal or green bone will also be supplied. They will be kept in houses having glass and cotton fronts.

12. Eggs counted—The contest shall be decided by the total number of marketable eggs laid by each pen. Exceedingly hard-shelled eggs, soft-shelled eggs, or eggs weighing less than 20 ounces to the dozen, will not be given official credit.

13. Disposal of eggs—All eggs laid during the contest become the property of the Department of Agriculture, and those not shipped as breeding eggs will be sold at market prices.

14. Reports—A report of the contest weekly record of each bird and weekly and total record of each pen will be issued at the close of each week. Copies of this report along with a monthly summary will be sent to each contestant and to all papers that will publish the contest.

15. The Return of the Birds—If no notification as to the return of the birds has been received by October 1, 1921, the birds on the completion of the contest will be sent by express collect, to the owner's address from which the shipment was made. Should any of the pens not be laying towards the close of the contest, and they will be returned earlier, so as to make room for birds entering for the next contest.

16. Sale of Transfer—No recognition of sale or transfer of birds during the contest will be made, nor shall any entry be withdrawn during the contest, except for reasons stated above.

17. Record of Performance—All birds in the contests not otherwise disqualified, and whose eggs average 24 ounces to the dozen that in 23 consecutive weeks lay 150 eggs, will receive certificate of record of performance AA, and those that lay 225 eggs will receive certificate of advanced records of performance AA.

18. Responsibility—While every precaution will be taken, neither the management nor any official of the contest will be held responsible should loss occur.

19. Final decision—In all cases, the decision of the management shall be final.

20. Declaration of Health—Each entry of a pen, and each additional entry of a male or female, must be accompanied by a declaration stating that the bird has not been affected with chickenpox or tuberculosis for at least three months previous.

21. Banding—The birds may be banded by the owner with his own bands before shipment, but will be rebanded with sealed contest bands upon arrival at the contest, and the original bands removed. The contest numbers corresponding to owner's number will be supplied him.

22. Delivery—The birds must be delivered at the contest when notified by the management, express prepaid. This will be from the 15th to the end of October. Address the shipping crate plainly with the address of the contest as given in the announcement, and on each crate put your own address which must be the same as the address under which the application was made.

23. Rejection—The management reserves the right to refuse any entries, to reject and return to the owner, or destroy birds suffering from contagious or infectious disease, or in any way unsuitable for the contest, to clip the wings of any bird that may be troublesome, to reject all birds that show impurity of breeding or standard disqualifications, and to return to the owner pens from which eggs have not been received by December 15.

24. Breeding—The owner will be allowed to send after February 15th, a suitable male to mate with his pen, and all eggs from a mated pen from March 1st to May 1st will be shipped to the owner or to any other single address which the owner may designate. The eggs will be shipped once a week in bulk and only to the one address throughout the two months. All eggs collected that are not cracked or broken will be included in these shipments. As the mating of the pens is not optional, it will be noted that in cost of production awards, a proportionate deduction of feed will be made in the pens having a male bird.

25. Price—Eggs so shipped will be charged for at ten cents an egg and will be shipped, express collect. A bill will accompany each shipment, which he paid, and the entry package returned before the next shipment will be forwarded.

11. Feeding and housing—The birds while in the contest will receive the best of feed and care, and the system of feeding will be mixed grain in litter morning and evening, and dry mash in a hopper before them all the time. Green feed, grit shell and bone-meal or green bone will also be supplied. They will be kept in houses having glass and cotton fronts.

12. Eggs counted—The contest shall be decided by the total number of marketable eggs laid by each pen. Exceedingly hard-shelled eggs, soft-shelled eggs, or eggs weighing less than 20 ounces to the dozen, will not be given official credit.

13. Disposal of eggs—All eggs laid during the contest become the property of the Department of Agriculture, and those not shipped as breeding eggs will be sold at market prices.

14. Reports—A report of the contest weekly record of each bird and weekly and total record of each pen will be issued at the close of each week. Copies of this report along with a monthly summary will be sent to each contestant and to all papers that will publish the contest.

15. The Return of the Birds—If no notification as to the return of the birds has been received by October 1, 1921, the birds on the completion of the contest will be sent by express collect, to the owner's address from which the shipment was made. Should any of the pens not be laying towards the close of the contest, and they will be returned earlier, so as to make room for birds entering for the next contest.

16. Sale of Transfer—No recognition of sale or transfer of birds during the contest will be made, nor shall any entry be withdrawn during the contest, except for reasons stated above.

17. Record of Performance—All birds in the contests not otherwise disqualified, and whose eggs average 24 ounces to the dozen that in 23 consecutive weeks lay 150 eggs, will receive certificate of record of performance AA, and those that lay 225 eggs will receive certificate of advanced records of performance AA.

tests substitutes will be accepted when deaths occur

3. Acceptance of Entries.—As the accommodation at each contest is limited, the acceptance of the pens will be influenced by—

(1) Whether the entrant breeds the pen entered or not.

(2) The number of birds of the same strain kept by the owner.

(3) The inspector's report of the flock.

(4) The time of application.

4. Inspection—Pens for which applications have been received will be inspected between Aug. 15 and Sept. 30, and those that may be among diseased flocks or in unsuitable conditions will be rejected, and those that do not promise to be mature or those that may mature too early may be rejected.

5. Declaration of Health—Each entry of a pen, and each additional entry of a male or female, must be accompanied by a declaration stating that the bird has not been affected with chickenpox or tuberculosis for at least three months previous.

6. Banding—The birds may be banded by the owner with his own bands before shipment, but will be rebanded with sealed contest bands upon arrival at the contest, and the original bands removed. The contest numbers corresponding to owner's number will be supplied him.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Hard and Awfully Sore.
Icked. Cuticura Heals.

"I had never had a pimple and then my face became covered. Later on the pimples became hard and awfully sore, and they itched so that I could not rest one moment. I had to scratch so that at last I thought my face was poisoned."

"I was advised to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using them three weeks I was healed." (Signed) Miss Edith Grover, West Oldham, Me., Dec. 16, 1918.
