FOR NEW RIFLE RANGES

Plans Now Being Laid to Carry Out Minister's Intentions.

Several Sites Already Reserved in Different Parts of the Country.—The Ontario Rifle Association matches begun at Toronto.—Three Completed Events.—The First Day—Record Breaking Attendance of Rifle Shots.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—The Minister of Militia, in his department estimates last session, made provision for the encouragement of rifle practice throughout the Dominion. Plans are now being laid in the Department to carry his intentions into effect. In company with his colleagues Sir Frederick is now framing the contracts for the erection of rifle ranges in different parts of the country. The Minister has already reserved sites in British Columbia and in the Northwest Territories for ranges. There will be a new range at Winnipeg. A contract has been given to Martin Jock for the building of a range at Cobourg, Ont. Sites have been acquired for one at Goderich, Ont., and another at Agnes, in Megantic County, Quebec. The Department has decided to build a new range at Sussex, N.B., where the militia of New Brunswick spend their annual camp. A range will also be built at Woodstock. The proposal is now under consideration to provide ranges for the militiamen at Windsor, Ont., and at Amherst, N.S.

ONTARIO RIFLE MATCHES.

Three Events Completed First Day—Record Breaking Attendance.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—The annual competitions under the auspices of the Ontario Rifle Association were begun yesterday under the most auspicious circumstances. The weather approached the ideal from the marksmen's viewpoint during the afternoon, the sky being a cloudless blue and little wind stirring.

Canadian Club Match.

The number of contestants who appeared was considerably in excess of that of any previous year. In the Canadian Club match the principal of the three events brought to a conclusion yesterday, there were no less than 325 entries. The Canada Company contest, open to tyros alone, the definition of tyro being one who had never won a prize in any former year at any Provincial, Dominion or National Rifle Association match, save in the novice class, attracted 156 entries, a number overshadowing last year's list, and supplying a healthy indication of the interest being awakened in the sport among the youthful element. The winners of $10 and above were: Pte. D. Mitchell, 13th, 49, $20; Staff-Sergeant A. Graham, 48th Highlanders, 49, $15; Capt. W. H. Forrest, 6th D. C. O. R., 48, $12; Pte. P. Armstrong, O. Fishery Inspector Drowned.

Barrie, Aug. 24.—A report has reached here of the death by drowning of John Steele, fishery inspector, of Uptergrove. At 2 a.m. Sunday he left Strawberry Island in a canoe for the mainland. About 4 a.m. a farmer's wife was awakened by his cries for help, but not having any boat, could not go to his aid. A few hours later the body was found by a searching party not far from shore. The hands were badly lacerated in his attempts to hang the canoe. Steele was a powerful man, about 35 years of age, and was an expert canoeist and boatman.

Crashed to Death.

Walkerville, Aug. 24.—A young team driven by W. Moore, of Windsor, became frightened at a passing train Monday. The team started to run away. Moore, in trying to stop them, caught the wrong line, thus causing the truck to turn towards him. He was caught between the truck and a brick wall and badly crushed, three of his ribs being broken. He was taken to the Hotel Dieu, Windsor, but died yesterday morning from the effect of his injuries.

Woman Fell From Window.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Margaret Dougherty, 85 years of age, was killed early yesterday morning by falling from a second storey window at 83 Allan avenue. She had shown signs of mental derangement recently. She had lived in Toronto for ten years.

MARCH OF JOHN BROWN

Premier Ross and Mr. Stratton Charged As Corrupt Agents.

North Perth and Muskoka Election Protest Particulars Filed—Personal Charge Made Against Mr. Brown—Mr. Whitney, Leader of the Opposition, Mentioned in the Particulars in the Muskoka Case.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—Particulars in the election protests of North Perth and Muskoka were filed yesterday at Osgoode Hall. The Premier and Mr. Stratton are named as having assisted in the distribution of large sums of money in North Perth; Mr. Whitney and others are mixed up in the "purity fund" in Muskoka. There are 125 charges against the Liberals in Perth and five less against the Conservatives in Muskoka.

Charges Premier Ross.

Of the charges in the North Perth petition, this is what is said of the Premier.

"During the said election, or shortly before it, Hon. J. R. Stratton and Hon. G. W. Ross, agents of the respondent, sent Edward Cullen of Toronto, baker, to Stratford to assist in the election. Mr. Cullen was instructed by Hon. Mr. Stratton and Premier Ross to call upon R. T. Harding, an agent of the respondent, and that the said Mr. Harding would instruct him what to do. Mr. Cullen received from him, the said Harding, or some other agent of the respondent, a large sum of money to be used in bribing, treating and corruptly influencing voters. The said Cullen did so spend a large sum."

"And Hon. Mr. Stratton, either alone or with some other member of the Ontario Reform Association or other agents of respondent, gave or provided the said Cullen a large sum of money to be brought into the riding and to be used partly by him in bribing, treating and other corrupt practices."

Brown's Political Quietism.

A charge, which the Conservatives say will alone give John Brown his political quietism, is this:

"Shortly before the polling day the respondent either personally or by and through Capt. John Sullivan and James Vance, Liberal organizers for Ontario, and other members of the Liberal Association of Ontario entered into an agreement with James T. Nelson of Buffalo, by which he was to supply men who were to go into the electoral district of North Perth to persuade voters, spend money and do other corrupt acts."

"The said James T. Nelson, Leon J. Mulloy, John Freeman, James Haskitt, Frank Gallagher, William Bain, Michael Crosby, F. Schley and John McCarthy did go into the electoral district, and in connection with R. T. Harding, barrister, Stratford; W. M. O'Brien, publisher, and others, agent of the respondent, did give, lend or promise money or valuable consideration to James Campbell, Donald Campbell and George Schwob, all of Stratford, voters in the riding, to induce them to vote for the respondent or to refrain from voting."

Distribution of Money.

Charge 37 alleges that liquor was stored in Alexander Basson's barn, and that he was provided with money for corrupt purposes.

The very first of the 125 charges gives these details of the distribution of money:

"Within one week of the election, Hon. J. R. Stratton, Provincial Secretary, and James Vance, Liberal organizer, held a meeting at the Grand Central Hotel, Listowel, at which were present John A. Hackling, Francis W. Hay, William Clime, John H. Macdonald, P. J. Livingston, J. N. Hay and others. All were told that the money 'wherewith to win the election' had arrived, and Hon. Mr. Stratton and Mr. Vance distributed among those present a large sum of money."

Petition Against Mr. Mahaffy.

Dr. Hart's petition against A. A. Mahaffy, M.P.P., charges Mr. Mahaffy with having, through Newton Langford of the Township of Ridout, fraudulently, by the use of threats of force, violence and restraint, and of the infliction of injury and damage, intimidated Michael Cassidy, a lumberman, in order to induce or to compel him to refrain from voting, and that he did prevent the exercise of the franchise.

The respondent is accused of having, through T. H. Lennox of Aurora, the Conservative candidate against Hon. E. J. Davis in the last two elections, offered money to voters, and obtained from them drink and refreshment corruptly.

It is charged that the respondent, either personally or by and through Samuel Hurling of Medora, did illegally furnish liquor within the limits of the polling sub-divisions for corrupt purposes.

T. W. H. Leavitt of Toronto, and the respondent, are charged with having distributed a large sum of money received from outside the polling division for corrupting the electorate.

Mr. Whitney Charged.

Charge No. 117 reads: "Some time prior to said polling day, Oct. 27, 1903, J. P. Whitney, M.P.P., leader of the Conservative party in the Province of Ontario; Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, M.P.P.; E. B. Osler, M.P.P.; Dr. Pyne, M.P.P.; E. B. Ryckman, J. W. Flavell, all of the City of Toronto, and other persons, whose names are at present unknown to the petitioners, being members of a political association or organization, corruptly and illegally contributed and raised a fund or sum of money under the guise of a 'purity fund,' for the purpose of assisting and promoting the election of the respondent by corrupt and illegal means, and did give and furnish to the respondent and his agents a large sum of money to be corruptly and illegally expended by the respondent and his agents in order to induce voters whose names have been mentioned, and others whose names are at present unknown to the petitioners, to vote for the respondent, or to refrain from voting at the said election."

Brought in Strangers.

The final paragraph of the particulars charges that R. L. Joynt, M.P.P.; Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, M.P.P.; R. R. Ganev, M.P.P.; Donald Sutcliffe, M.P.P.; Edward Little, M.P.P.; Dr. Pyne, M.P.P.; M. D. Morrison, M.P.P.; W. H. Bennett, M.P.P.; H. Lennox, and J. D. Cotes, all agents of the respondent, and a large number of those persons whose names are at present unknown to the petitioners, expended the funds by bringing into the electoral district strangers whom they had hired for corrupt purposes, and to prevent the free exercise of the franchise.

FISH STORY

Robert Hallinan, the popular butcher, was the king actor in a little fish story, the details of which happened yesterday. Now, strange to say, Robert does not tell this story himself. Stranger still, it is true. Robert and a companion, Bill Doolin, were bringing a boat down the Creek. The boat got stuck in some logs and Robert pulled off his shoes to go in to release the boat. His toes had no more than touched the water as he started overboard than a big fish, a pike, a carp, a shark, or something, made a rush for the toes, missed them by a quarter of a second and landed full in the boat. Bill set out to kill the fish but before he arrived it had leaped back into the water again. If any one doubts this story Robert will show them the shoes he was wearing yesterday, his toes, and the place in the Creek where the fish made the hole when it struck the water.

Before you pass judgment be sure that it's the other fellow who's wrong.
