A Fair Exhibition of Ball at Britannia Park Yesterday Afternoon— Guelph Won From Niagara Falls. Hamilton was honored yesterday by With Doremus and Perkins the opposers. Though both dispensed the real mother's kind of assortments, Perkins had a shade the better of the argument. Features of the game was Corcoran's one-handed stop of Shea's line drive in the first and two double plays by McGuire Allen and Murray. Score:

at the next regular meeting of the Contrary Club. The game did one thing however; it showed that the leading team in the International League is hours slower than the third team in the Eastern. While the Tigers were running on Central or Western time, the Torontos were doing things according to Eastern time.

While the visitors did not extend themselves to the limit, they had the safety valve open all the time when heaving to bases, and there was not steam enough in their throws to keep the ball straight, they won the game by a score of 6 to 1. At the same time the visitors did not play "rag." Once the second baseman took a somerault after catching a fly, but he was the only one in the team that cut up. Several of the Torontos were not in their regular positions, so there is no telling what would have happened to Paige's Pets had the visitors done their best.

The Tigers did not exhibit any fear at the Toronto Giants, and they did their knitting just as complacently as they would have on their mothers' knees. Kilroy, who is attached to the Torontos' No. 3 road car, did the heaving for the visitors, and he did pretty good work according to the Barton street ball yard standard. Although four hits were charged against him, strictly speaking, he was only touched for three hits, and some of the scorers thought two was the correct figure. The local scorers were generous with the Tigers, however. McMillan's three-bagger in the ninthwas handled by Weidensaul in left gar. ne was only tonched for three hits, and some of the scorers thought two was the correct figure. The local scorers were generous with the Tigers, however. McMillan's three-bagger in the ninth was handled by Weidensaul in left garden, but the Swiss dropped it after stepping into a hole. It was a pretty hard fly, however, and McMillan got the benefit of the doubt.

The visitors started in to count in the second innings. Wiedensaul walked and stole second. The next man up, Cockman, made a hit, and the Swiss reached the red light bag, coming home on Brennen's error, on which Frick reached first. Brown bingled and Cockman galloped over the plate, giving the Torontos their second run.

In the fifth the visitors tallied one more, Gettman was given free transportation, reached third on shortstop's error, and came home on Mertes' sacrifice. In the sixth they scored another run.

slandering Hamilton. Here is one jab that appeared in to-day's World:

"The rubes in Hamilton are said to have gazed in wide-open wonderment yesterday at a real live baseball team."

In another column the statement is made that the shooters whose names have been sent to England as the Canadian clay bird team, are from Toronto-Montreal and Sherbrooke. As a matter of fact, of the 11 men mentioned, three are from Hamilton, and members of the H. G. . They are J. E. Overholt, ("Dr. Wilson") M. E. Fletcher and Geo. Beatty.

Nat Ray's old jumper, Spencer Reiff, much improved by his first outing, won the Helter-Skelter steeplechase all the way. Little Wally, saved in the early part, was able to outrun the favorite, Hiddy, ridden by Mr. Kerr, when the final struggle came. Sam Parmer fell with Jockey E. Stone, and Cumberland Lass shook off her rider after almost completing the course.

El Dorado led from end to end in the last race. Campaigner avoided the fast early pace and finished second. St. Il-ario went up in the air when the barrier rose and lost much ground, but was able to finish third.
