ACCORDING to announcement, Professo Buell gave an illustrated lecture in St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Monday evening highest degree artistic.. He presented, by means of the stereopticon, pictures of persons, buildings and natural scenery in Europe and Asia, as well as Canada and Newfoundland. The first picture was of the great loss they have sustained. the sphynx and a pyramid in Egypt; the came scenes in the Holy Land. In the transition from Jerusalem to Rome, a most beautiful view of the Magi was presented. These pictures were really exquisite, the blending of colors appearing to be perfection itself. St. Peter's, the Vatican, Leo XIII, and other views of Rome were presented, Milan, Venice and other secti of Italy followed, then came Switzerland, and next Paris. Many splendid views of this beautiful city were given; other portions of France were not forgotten. Cologne Cathedral and other Garman scenes followed in quick succession. London, Edinburg, Glasgow, Dublin, Kilkenny, Queenstown, and other places of importance in Great Britain and Ireland were brought on the canvas, and their principal nstitutions presented to the delightfed gaze of the spectators. Crossing the Atantic, St. Jonn's, Nfld., and Harbor Grace, with their principal buildings and other objects of interest were shown. After cenes in other portions of Newfoundland and St. Pierre, Halifax, Pictou, and in turn Charlottetown, were brought out. After leaving our own city, the audience were conveyed in spirit along the route of the steamers plying between here and Montreal. Gaspe, Perce, and many other places along the St. Lawrence, and Baie de Chalcurs were presented. Quebec, with its many interesting features was thrown on the canvas. Then came Montreal and Ottawa, Needless to say, these were views of the highest interest to all present. After this a trip across the continent to the Pacific coast, was made via the C. P. R. Winnipeg and other cities, as well as many interesting prairie scenes were brought be fore the audience. The stupendous and magnificent mountain scenery of the rockies and Selkirks was most vividly presented, Visits to Vancouver, New West Minster, Victoria and Esquimault, finished the ranscontinental trip. Some splendid views of statuary were next presented and greatly admired by the audience, Among the eminent personages whose pictures were presented, were His Holiness the Pope, Sir John A. McDonald, Sir Wilfred Laurier, His Eminence Cardinal Tachereau, the late Archbishop Fabre, of Montreal, Archbishop du Hamel, of Ottawa, Bishop Blais, of Rimouski, Father Lacombe, the celebrated Oblate Missionary, His Lordship Bishop McDonald, and Rev. Dr. Morrison. The organ played during the greater part of the entertainment, different airs being adapted to the different scenes. During the presentation of the scene representing the Star of Bethlehem and the Magi, the "Adeste Fideles" was charmingly rendered. The "Ave Maria" was exquisitely rendered by Mrs. Byrne, and also by Mr. Charles Hermans. The preentation of the Scottish Scenes elicited from Professr Caven, an excellent rendition

WE deeply regret to learn of the great loss the Rev. Allan J. McDonald, the pastor of Fort Augustus, and his parishioners have sustained in the distruction of the Church and other buildings by fire. The conflagration took place between one and two o'clock on Monday morning last. The outbuildings were discovered to be a few outbuildings were discovered to be on fire about the hour mentioned. As soon as this became known the neighbors came on the scene and did every thing possible was save the buildings. The attempt was vain, very soon the barn, stable and coach was book and house were destroyed. The live stock and most of the other contents were saved. The wind was blowing directly on the church, and from the burning outbuild: ings the fire communicated to that structure. Soon, despite the efforts made to save it, the church was in the grasp of the devouring element, and it was not long before its interior was badly gutted.
