LONDON, Oct. 4. Hostilities between the Balkan States and Turkey have already commenced, according to reports from many quarters. A despatch to the Russian Government says that the Bulgarians are crossing the frontier. Military action has thus outstripped slow-footed diplomacy, for no ultimatum has yet been presented to Turkey, and in Constantinople none is expected until Monday. The Porte, however, has sent an official notification to the Powers, which reads: "In view of the manifestly aggressive attitude of the Balkan States, Turkey reserves to itself full liberty of action, convinced that the civilized world will do justice to its moderate attitude, but this cannot exclude care for safeguarding its dignity and security, as well as its right." This it would seem is the Porte's way of preparing the world for the success or failure of the Powers to stave off hostilities. No official confirmation of the rupture of peace is to be had, but skirmishes are reported to have occurred in the neighborhood of Jambol in Bulgarian territory. In the village of Sentan, along the Montenegrin frontier, near Danckliya on the Serbian border severe fighting between Turkish and Serbian troops is reported to have occurred.

ATHENS, Oct. 4. Plans to annihilate all Greeks now in Albania, have been laid according to reports from the Greek-Turkish frontier. The Government of Jovina, Albania, has created a force of armed military police, composed of 100 outlaws. These men he ostensibly sent out to pursue Greek rebels, but it is alleged that the real object of the expedition is to annihilate all Greeks in the vicinity. Three battalions of Montenegrin troops are reported to have crossed the Turkish frontier to assist the mutinous tribesmen in resisting the approach of the Turkish troops.

LONDON, Oct. 4. In another message through the Times correspondent, on the Panama dispute, President Taft explains that his proposals before the Supreme Court were preferable because an adverse decision would be less galling to the Americans than an arbitration award, and Britain still not lose her legal right to demand arbitration. An editorial in the Times considers the President's explanation as very satisfactory, and as removing the apprehension that appeal to the Supreme Court was being offered as a substitute for the right of appeal to the Hague, but it points out that it still leaves the whole matter in a confused condition.

The Fishery on Labrador.

By the Solway we learn that twelve vessels have to date left the Labrador from various ports. The fish laden for Europe. These left from Grady south. Several other vessels are still on the coast loading fish. The fishery, Capt. Parsons says, is all over as there is no cod to be had. There are fifteen banks at Bateau and several others at other places but they are only catching 10 to 15 barrels per day which is comparatively nothing, and by this time most of these will have reeled up and should be now on the way home. Last week the weather was exceptionally fine and all hands rushed the work of making their fish to get home as quickly as possible. The greater part of the catch will be cured all right. Capt. Parsons estimates the catch among the stations to be about 170,000 qts. This, of course, does not include the amount taken by the green fish catchers of Green, Trinity and Bonavita Bays and which must amount to thousands of qts. which are brought home to be made. There is not near enough tonnage on the coast to take all the fish to market and a lot of fish will have to be freighted by the Conception Bay people to St. John's and sold here. The weather on the coast was "shuffling" with snow showers occasionally and all the hills are covered with a mantle of white.

Missing Man Found.

Yesterday forenoon Const. Humber

was sent to the country about Bas Island to search for the missing man T. Nagle. He got no trace of him there but going to Mount Pearl found the man (Nagle) quietly working on Patk. Coughlan's farm. Nagle was surprised when told that people feared he was dead and said if they were so much concerned about him that they might give him work so that he could live. He said anyhow he was tired of the city and yearned for a breath of country air. He was quite happy and intends to live with Coughlan.
