

Amusements.

MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY VERY LARGELY ATTENDED.
The Nickel Theatre was filled yesterday afternoon and last evening. It being a general holiday the place was crowded and everyone was delighted with the pictures. The 17th episode of the "Million Dollar Mystery" was shown; it proved most interesting. There was a beautiful drama entitled "Minerva's Mission" in which Dorothy Gish played the leading role. "The Leopard's Lair" is a thrilling story of the jungle, and there was a very funny comedy—"Alias Greased Lightning." Messrs. Huskins and Cairns will repeat their popular numbers this evening. Be sure and attend to hear them. Tomorrow Flo Labadie, the well known actress will be seen in "The Final Judgment" a picture which attracted immense audiences in America.

BRITISH THEATRE.

A holiday programme of extraordinary brilliance was presented to patrons of the above theatre yesterday. Included in the excellent plays selected the magnificent two part drama: "The Lieutenant Governor"—from the celebrated Essay studio, was also shown. This particular photo-play is replete with interest and excitement throughout and is undoubtedly one of the best which has yet been turned out by that famous organisation. Madame Olive Timmons sang the late Sir Arthur Sullivan's greatest composition—"The Lost Chord"—as SHE can sing it—everybody knows what THAT means. In other words the bill which is presented at the British will be difficult to duplicate anywhere.

AT THE CRESCENT.

See the advertisement of the Crescent Picture Palace in another column of this paper for particulars of the big picture programme they are showing to-day, it is certainly a fine show, the crowds who attend the popular palace yesterday were more than satisfied. Mr. Harvey Collins sings "My Own Kentucky Lady" and having a rich silky finish, unlike any we have yet handled; faint shades of "Pale Blue, Salmon and Fawn, mixed with White; deep knotted fringe edging, large enough for the largest bed; size 2 1/2 x 2 3/4 yards. Remember only 8 for this sale. Friday, Saturday and Monday $4.68.

ROSSLEY'S THEATRES EAST AND WEST ENDS.

At the East End Theatre during the remainder of the week, the Ian MacKenzie Co. will give a complete change of programme, songs, stories and violin selections. Mr. MacKenzie has already won golden opinions from all who have attended, and his songs and humorous Scottish tales met with unstinted applause. Mr. MacKenzie's record as a singer is of the very best; he is a pupil of Dr. Henschel and has been a soloist at the Queen's Hall, Royal Albert Hall and Crystal Palace, London, Eng., with all the best British artists. He was leading bass in St. George's, Edinburgh, under Sir A. G. Mackenzie, now principal of the Royal Academy, London. Miss Rix Curran has an established reputation in New York and Boston, and has been enjoyed at many of the best concerts in these cities; Mr. William Wallace, the phenomenal boy violinist has given ample proof of his mastery of the instrument. His delicate phrasing and complete control of the high class music he has already rendered is only a foretaste of what is in store for the patrons of Rossley's Theatre. His playing is marvellous for one of his years, and the people of St. John's will miss one of the greatest musical treats ever presented to the city if they fail to attend.

At the West End Theatre by special request, will be shown the great film of the Nfld. Regiment and other troops on Monday next, together with splendid new films just received from New York.

THE CONQUEROR.

Who is this man of stately mien, who gains applause wherever he wends, who makes a hit in every scene, who has all people for his friends? The rich and poor, the high and low, behold his coming with glad smiles, the women say he is a Jo, the merchant princes lift their tiles. He is no soldier, who in vain a million quarts of blood has shed; he has not cluttered up the plain with ricks and windrows of his dead. He is no statesman who has held a senate breathless while he spied, and he has never whooped and yelled throughout the broad Chautauqua field. He is no author, who has made a book with fire in every line, that made Gene Stratton Porter fade, and H. Bell Wright take in his sign. Who is this man of lordly air, whom all the people thus applaud, and greet with fervor everywhere, whenever he may walk abroad? Why does he cut such sads of ice? What has he done that is sublime? He is the man who has the price—the man who pays his bills on time.
