rank on rank were thronging to the stores, the head push of a Pittsburgh bank quite calmly closl its doors. Some forty thousand children had their savings treasured

there, and many a WALT MASON little girl and lad was filled with black despair. "Perhaps," the urbane cashier cried, "in seven years or so, the grim receivers will divide the assets-I don't know." The heartsick little children wept, their cheeks with tears were soiled, as warily they homeward crept as warily they homeward crept—their Christmas time was spoiled.
Then Henry Frick reared up and said, "This will not do. I swow: the kids sha'n't weeping go to bed-they'll have their money now!" Aladdin rubbed his wondrous lamp, in smoky old Pittsgrad, and bade the children's woes decamp, and made their Christmas glad! The children, rescued from the hole by him, no doubt declare: "A man may have a large white soul. e'en though a millionaire!"
