SATURDAY'S CONTEST.

A very fine exhibition of the noble game was given on Saturday afternoon when the Shamrock and Pelicans Clubs met in friendly combat. The match was only one innings, and the Pelicans won by the goodly margin of 24 runs. Some very fine batting was produced, as it was a bat day. The wind made it very difficult for bowlers, and constant changes had to be made. The Pelicans were first to bat and M. G. Winter, Jr. and E. Jerrett first faced the music to the bowling of Ryan and Finn. Jerrett appeared to be justly settled when a very brilliant catch by Jerry Savage sent him to the tent. Harry Winter took Jerrett's place and was playing a very good game, and was playing a very good game, and was playing a very good game.

turned back for Fox found his wicket and Harry was run out with 7 runs to his credit. R. Martin now partnered Duke Winter and between them, they gave the Shamrocks a lively time leather hunting. When Winter had 15 runs to his credit Finn thought it time to remove him, and with a well pitched ball took his "middler." Jack Paterson now took up the cudgel, and after adding six to the score gracefully retired. A. Martin, H. Hayward, N. Hunt and H. Thomas did not add materially to the score, but the Pelicans reached double figures before resting from their labors. Thus when Finn's wicket fell, their score with 5 Byes added, reached a goodly total of 83 runs.

SHAMROCKS TO BAT.

The Shamrocks immediately took the wicket, and Simms and Purlong opened the ball. The first over Simms placed a catch nicely in the vicinity of Ellis, who availed of the courtesy thus extended, and Simms retired with the distinctive ducksegs to his credit. T. Ryan replaced him, and after a short life he also retired. Purlong had been playing a pretty fair game and gave promise of making doubles, but R. Martin by a very nice catch ended his career, and 7 runs were all that he could add to the Shamrock total. Dr. Fox and P. Berrigan gave a very brilliant exhibition. The Doctor had some very sweet hits, and when he was "held" by Thomas he had the respectable score of 13 to his credit. Berrigan added 18 runs, the highest score for the day. Neddy Power contributed 7, and Savage, Finn, Dug French, F. Edens and C. Morris added 6 between them. The sum total of the Shamrocks amounted to 59, thus the Pelicans were victors by 24. A goodly number of spectators were present and enjoyed the game immensely. Rumors of a return match are in the air. Appended are the scores:—

Prospects Good.

Fishery prospects along the Northern coast are good, according to reports brought along by s.s. Prospero, which reached port from the northern coastal service Saturday afternoon. Several big catches had been made on the Labrador, one crew having 200 qts. landed. Salmon are plentiful north, but icebergs are interfering with trap fishing. The following passengers came on the ship: Messrs. Furge, Brown, Barbour, Baker, Murphy, Lodge, Barbour, Howlett, Bishop, Loveless, Flight, Bragg, Tiller, Oake, White, Dawe, Newhook, Penny, Rev. Fr. Nolan, Quirk, Frost, Coyell, Wells, Sacker, Morgan, Maunder, Pilliar, White, Collett, Blackburn, Hunt, Moore, Newell; Mesdames Barnes, Connolly, Harding, Bragg, Bugden, LeDrew, Stuckley, Rideout, Boyan, Wells, Misses Campbell, Nickle, Sparkes, Rideout, Davis, Sutton, Hynes, Anthony, Norris, Winsor, Foley, Gillett, Flynn, Richards, Garland, Strong, Clark, Hatch and 52 in steerage. The ship sails again at 10 a.m. Wednesday.
