"Pet" Show at Bannerman Park

A large number of people visited Bannerman Park yesterday afternoon to witness the exhibition of pet animals. Over one hundred children entered their pets for the competition. At 3 p.m. an orchestra from Mount Cashel began to play and the show was on. The animal parade led by the mascot kid of H.M.S. Constance, exhibited by Miss Helen Campbell, consisted of tortoises, canaries, rabbits, a hen, various kinds of cats and dogs, three ponies and a donkey. The parade marched around the bandstand where the judges were watching with interest. The various groups of animals were then brought separately before the judges and prizes awarded. The judges were Mr. George Williams, President of the Society for the Protection of Animals, Mr. W. A. Butler, Hon. Samuel Milley, and the Rev. Brother O'Regan. Those who planned on the ribbons were Mrs. W. G. Gooding, President of the Junior Branch of the Society for the Protection of Animals, and Mrs. Vincent P. Burke. Other officials were Mrs. W. S. Monroe, Sir Joseph and Lady Outerbridge, Mrs. A. W. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. James MacKenzie, Mrs. Alan Fraser, Mr. David Baird, Secretary of the Rotary Club, Mr. Arthur Donnelly, and Mr. Eric Bowring.

A speech of appreciation to the Rotary Club for its interest in the boys and girls was given by Mr. George Williams, President of the S. P. A. He particularly thanked them for their help in encouraging in the children by this pet show, the love and care of animals. Much credit was given Mr. Barton for his work with the children on the playground.

Dr. Burke replied on behalf of the Rotary Club, thanking the judges for their assistance and their interest in the work which the Rotary Club had undertaken. This pet show was the first of its kind to be held for the boys and girls of St. John's. The large attendance, interest and pleasure of the children were ample proof of its success. It is hoped that a similar event can be made an annual affair. To award the prizes on the basis of merit alone was a difficult task for the faces of the children were upturned with eager expectancy, each child tightly clutch-

HEALTHY BABIES.

"An Ounce of Prevention is worth a Pound of Cure."
Baby's Meals—So often we hear, "My milk doesn't satisfy baby so I had to give him the bottle," and that is why we are talking so much about baby's meals; more often than not it isn't "the milk doesn't satisfy" but the way mother gives the milk—we have already talked of:
How—Slowly and regularly;
When—Every four hours for a normal, healthy baby during the day.
Not at night;
Quality—To have good milk mother needs a clean, healthy mouth.
Hot Weather—In hot weather especially we don't want bottles. Breast feeding is a great shield against disease and death.
Breast milk is cheaper;
Breast milk is cleaner;
Breast milk is more easily digested;
Breast milk is of better quality;
Breast milk builds better teeth;
Breast milk builds better brains;
Breast milk gives greater resistance to disease.
But because mother isn't well or we don't start good habits from the very beginning baby has to have the bottle with some other sort of milk. It is best never to do this without a doctor's advice and having baby weighed two or three times to see if he is really losing.
Fishes—If baby is already on the bottle beware of the flies, as they are very troublesome this time of the year and a great danger. Come and get some mullin from us to keep the milk and food covered.

Sunday morning next the Battalion will parade at 9:45 a.m. with Old Comrades for a drum head service at eleven at "Appleton" owned by Inspector Noseworthy at Kenmont Road in the Freshwater Valley. The Chaplain taking the service will be from St. Thomas's Parish. All ranks will please answer the roll Sunday morning.
All ranks are glad to welcome Lt. Colonel Sir Joseph Outerbridge—the Brigade's first Colonel—back to Newfoundland from his winter home in Bermuda. Sir Joseph looks hale and hearty after the winter and has always taken a great interest in the boys of his old Regiment.
We note Old Comrades Geo. Edgecombe and Gordon Yates left us last week—the former for his ranch in British Columbia and the latter back to business in New York. We bid them an revoir and good luck.
Lt.-Col. Walter Rendell, C.B.E., Officer Commanding has been honored with an autographed photo of Field Marshall Earl Haig as a souvenir of his visit. With the Colonel's usual big heart he is passing it over to adorn the walls of the Officers' Mess Room at Headquarters Armory for which we thank him. The Brigade has a pleasing visit from the Rev. H. Kirby, Officer Commanding Lamshe Company Thursday evening. The Colonel and staff were glad to see him present and to confer on him the freedom of the Mess. Lamshe Company is doing good work and we hope another year to try and arrange to have a contingent of their Company at Toppal Camp. Q.

C. L. B. Cadets

The past two weeks' events will go down the years in the pages of history. The dedication of Newfoundland's War Memorial, and the Review of the Church Lads Brigade Cadets and kindred organizations by Field-Marshal Earl Haig, Commander of the Empire's Army in the World War, are honours indeed that any country might well feel proud of.

During the ceremonies, Lt.-Col. Walter Rendell, C.B.E., placed the Armoury at the disposal of the C.W.V.A. when Earl Haig addressed the gathering, also for the organization of the Newfoundland Naval Reserve Comrades Association, and for the practices of the massed city choirs and brass bands, as well as for the Headquarters of the special Guard of Honour of the Royal Ndd. Regiment organized for Earl Haig's visit. The C.L.B. Regimental band was also placed at the disposal of the various official committees, free of charge and the bandmen deserve a V.A. credit for their personal sacrifice. The brigade band from the tug "John Green," played a final "au revoir" outside the harbour as the "Caronia" sailed for the homeland. Scotch airs and national music comprised the programme. Earl Haig's visit will long be remembered in Newfoundland and every day was sunny! Will he not come back again!

Twenty commissions for various Newfoundland Regimental officers came by last mail for various companies. These will be presented officially by the various officers commanding very shortly.

Headquarters' staff are proud of the Brigade's latest hero. Pte. George Smith, 16 years old, of 8 William St. St. John's, who Friday last whilst visiting Sliding Rock swimming pool jumped with his clothes on in this pool and saved a young lad of about 10 years old named Walsh from drowning. Young Walsh lives on Cook Street, could not swim and was being swept down by the current and had sunk for the second time when fortunately for him the Brigade lad Smith jumped to his rescue. Congratulations Pte. Smith on your pluck and courage to do the right thing—of course it was just what everybody expects from a lad of the Old Brigade!

The Officers held a conference last night arranging for camp. The date is July twenty-fourth to August second; at Toppal, Captain George House as Camp Commandant with Capt. Harold Hayward as Adjutant in all probability will be in charge. All lads must pack in their kit bags the following: two blankets, a suit of underwear, 1 extra top shirt, 1 pair extra boots, and 1 pair rubber boots if possible, two pairs socks, two towels, soap, clothes brush, tooth brush and paste, boot blacking, brass polish, one plate, knife, fork, spoon, and one mug. Camp fees for privates $1.50; N.C.O.'s $2.00; Warrant Officers $2.50; and Officers $5.00. Lads from Outpost Companies will be guests of St. John's Companies unless numbers are extra heavy when a voluntary cheque will be acceptable. Lieut. Moty will be food Controller and Captain Burden Chief Medical Officer as usual.

We note Old Comrades Geo. Edgecombe and Gordon Yates left us last week—the former for his ranch in British Columbia and the latter back to business in New York. We bid them an revoir and good luck.

Lt.-Col. Walter Rendell, C.B.E., Officer Commanding has been honored with an autographed photo of Field Marshall Earl Haig as a souvenir of his visit. With the Colonel's usual big heart he is passing it over to adorn the walls of the Officers' Mess Room at Headquarters Armory for which we thank him. The Brigade has a pleasing visit from the Rev. H. Kirby, Officer Commanding Lamshe Company Thursday evening. The Colonel and staff were glad to see him present and to confer on him the freedom of the Mess. Lamshe Company is doing good work and we hope another year to try and arrange to have a contingent of their Company at Toppal Camp. Q.

During the ceremonies, Lt.-Col. Walter Rendell, C.B.E., placed the Armoury at the disposal of the C.W.V.A. when Earl Haig addressed the gathering, also for the organization of the Newfoundland Naval Reserve Comrades Association, and for the practices of the massed city choirs and brass bands, as well as for the Headquarters of the special Guard of Honour of the Royal Ndd. Regiment organized for Earl Haig's visit. The C.L.B. Regimental band was also placed at the disposal of the various official committees, free of charge and the bandmen deserve a V.A. credit for their personal sacrifice. The brigade band from the tug "John Green," played a final "au revoir" outside the harbour as the "Caronia" sailed for the homeland. Scotch airs and national music comprised the programme. Earl Haig's visit will long be remembered in Newfoundland and every day was sunny! Will he not come back again!

Twenty commissions for various Newfoundland Regimental officers came by last mail for various companies. These will be presented officially by the various officers commanding very shortly.

Headquarters' staff are proud of the Brigade's latest hero. Pte. George Smith, 16 years old, of 8 William St. St. John's, who Friday last whilst visiting Sliding Rock swimming pool jumped with his clothes on in this pool and saved a young lad of about 10 years old named Walsh from drowning. Young Walsh lives on Cook Street, could not swim and was being swept down by the current and had sunk for the second time when fortunately for him the Brigade lad Smith jumped to his rescue. Congratulations Pte. Smith on your pluck and courage to do the right thing—of course it was just what everybody expects from a lad of the Old Brigade!

The Officers held a conference last night arranging for camp. The date is July twenty-fourth to August second; at Toppal, Captain George House as Camp Commandant with Capt. The C.L.B. Athletic Association will prepare a programme for the Toppal Church Garden Party on Wednesday the 30th of July. All lads going to Camp are asked to "enlist" for the Toppal front at once. Quartermaster Moty expects two hundred lads this year which will be a record camp and he has had to cable for
