Be careful of your companions. Hyon want to succeed, the theatre, the saloon, the gambling hall, are not the places for you. He would not be a prudent merchant who would open accounts with young men, knowing them to be frequenters of such places. Don't seek companions who can only corupt, while you can find so many who can profit.

Be careful of your character. "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches."—Prov., xxii. 1. Character, like a shadow, accompanies all men, and, whether good or bad, it cannot be shaken off. aside to make room for a couple of young men who had just entered, and the landlord waited upon them very politely.—
The other stood by silent and sullen, and when they had finished he walked up to the Landlord and thus addressed him:
"Six years ago, at their age, I stood where these young men now are. I was a man with fair pospects. Now, at the age of twenty-eight. I am a wreck, body and mind. Formed the habit that has been my ruin. Now sell me a few glasses more, and your work will be done! I shall soon be out of the way; there is no hope for me. But they can be sayed; they may be men again. Do not sell it to them. Sell to me and let me die, and the world will be rid of me; but for Heaven's sake sell no more to them."—
The landlord listened pale and trembling. Setting down his decanter, he exclaimed, "God helping me, that is the last drop I will ever sell to any one." And he kept his word.

Eminent men of science have discov-

Eminent men of science have discoved that electricity and magnetism are developed in the system from the blood. This accounts for the debility, low spirits, and lack of energy a person feels when this vital element because reduced. The Peruvian Syrup, a protoxide of irou, supplies the blood-with its iron element, and is the only form in which it is possible to enter the circulation.

A majority of the mortality cases in this country may be traced to disease of the lungs. Indeed, these maladies are alarmingly on the increase. We do not know a remedy better suited to this dis-case than the Combination of Hypophos-phites discovered by Mr. Fellows.
