Kaiser Alone Can Break Deadlock at Algeciras

France in Open Conference Today Reiterates Determination to Dominate Moroccan Affairs.

Algeciras, March 6. — The positions as defined before the conference show that the Franco-German deadlock is practically the same in open conference as it was during the private exchange of views. The text of the speech of Herr Von Radowitz, head of the German delegation at yesterday's session of the conference, as given out, concludes as follows: "The powers being equally interested in the police organization, they should equally participate in it."

France specifically declines equality in the organization of the police, claiming that it is a mere ruse to undermine France's legitimate special position in Morocco. The text of the speech of M. Revoil, chief of the French mission, reads: "The internationalization of the police would then have no guarantee of order and presents grave difficulties. We ask for recognition of the legitimate interests of France as a power in North Africa, and our special interests in the maintenance of order in Morocco.

M. Revoil's speech also gave France's first exact plan for the police, showing that the rank and file should consist of 2,000 Moroccans under sixteen French and Spanish officers.

Germany's chief objection is that military bodies officered by Frenchmen would be stationed at four of the great Moroccan ports on the Atlantic coast, thus giving France a dominating influence on the Atlantic coast. The positions of France and Germany are so diametrically opposed that the delegates see little hope of reconciling them, unless Emperor William personally intervenes.

TURNER, BAD MAN, GETS THREE YEARS

Bigamist and Thief Sent to the Penitentiary by Magistrate Love.

Arthur Herbert Turner will sojourn in the quietude of Kingston Penitentiary for the next three years, and will once more walk in step with "Texas," his former pal, and other distinguished of earth. Turner was given that time by P. M. Love this morning, on a charge of bigamy, and also the same term on the charge of stealing a watch, the sentences to run concurrently.

When asked whether he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed, Turner replied: "I don't know why I have to suffer on account of that woman"—referring to his first wife.

P. M. Love, in referring to Turner's crime, characterized it as most audacious. There were no extenuating circumstances whatever. He was convinced that Turner's motive was to obtain what land and money his second wife possessed, and then desert her. His life since coming to the city had not been good; he had appeared in police court on several occasions, and had in many ways lived badly. He was idle, vicious, and a thief. His wife had accused him in court of the worst offenses. It appeared also that his life in the old land had been bad, as he was convicted of theft there. In all probability, declared the magistrate, Turner would never have had to leave England, had it not been for his crimes.

"It is a bad thing for the country that the like of you should come to it," said his worship, in conclusion.

Turner's second wife was not long since a supposedly hopeless cripple in the Woodstock House of Refuge.

HAZING AT WYCLIFFE

A "Tapping" Administered to Fourth Year Student for Slashing Copy.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, March 6.—There is a warm row on in Wycliffe College, which culminated on Saturday in the "tapping" of J. Abraham Connor, a fourth-year art student, who boards at Wycliffe. Tapping is a process of rude ducking in the bath tub, and is just another name for hazing. Connor has not sustained any injury to other than his feelings, but the matter is to be taken up by the faculty. The cause of the row was the too generous use of the blue pencil by Mr. Connor, who is one of the editors of 'Varsity, when handling the matter which emanated at Wycliffe College. The reporter from Wycliffe threatened to resign, and finally did resign, but this having no effect on the stony-hearted news editor, the tapping process was resorted to.

Robbed of $10,000.

St. John, N. B., March 6.—George E. Faulkner, an Englishman, who arrived in Halifax on Friday on the steamer Laurentian, passed through here en route west to settle. The C. P. R. provided him with transportation to Montreal, for he said he had been robbed of $1,000, practically all his money, in Halifax.

THOS. ORR DEAD, ILL FIVE MONTHS

Manager of London Printing Company Succumbs to Heart Trouble and Paralysis.

After an illness extending over a period of five months, Mr. Thomas Orr, manager and part owner of the London Printing and Lithographing Company, died this morning at his residence on Waterloo street.

Mr. Orr's death had been expected for several days—in fact, he had been in a critical condition for several weeks. An affection of the heart first necessitated his taking to his bed, but from this he seemed to recover temporarily, only to suffer a relapse. A week ago Sunday the patient was stricken with paralysis, and this was followed by a second stroke on Saturday morning. This caused the attending physician to abandon all hope of Mr. Orr's recovery.

served his apprenticeship under Mr. Wm. Southam, now of the Hamilton Spectator. On Mr. Southam's removal from London Mr. Orr was made foreman, a position he occupied until twelve or fourteen years ago, when the London Printing Company was formed and took over the Free Press job and lithograph business. He was made manager of the new concern and continued as such up to the time of his death.

The deceased was one of the leading members of the Memorial Church, being one of the wardens for several years. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter, at home. A number of brothers and sisters also survive, among the latter being Mr. Orr, of the customs house; Mrs. Barrett, and Mrs. Davis, of this city, and a sister in the States.

China Is Worried.

Pekin, March 6.—The Chinese Government is greatly perturbed by the reports of anti-foreign movements printed in the American and European press and particularly by the dispatches announcing American preparations for a military expedition in case of need. These reports, it is alleged, tend to embarrass the foreign ministers and create strained relations between them and the officials here.

GENERAL GATACRE DEAD

Distinguished in Soudan, But Unfortunate in Boer War.

London, March 6. — The death is announced this morning of Major-Gen. Sir William Forbes Gatacre, aged 63 years. Gen. Gatacre served with distinction in the Soudan, but his persistent ill-fortune in the Boer war dimmed his reputation as a soldier.

WANT DAIRY INSPECTORS

Dairymen Say It Will Block Shipping of Inferior Article.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, March 6. — A deputation, representing the Eastern and Western Dairymen's Associations, waited on the Hon. Nelson Monteith this morning, requesting that the Government appoint dairy inspectors for cheese and butter factories. Great harm, they say, has been done to the Canadian trade by the shipping of inferior butter and cheese.

Hon. Mr. Monteith was impressed with the reasonableness of the request and promised to take the matter up with the Government.

WARD FOREMAN HURT

Sid Loveless Kicked in Chest by Old Fire Horse.

Sid Loveless, one of the ward foremen in the employ of the city, was kicked in the chest by a horse at the city's stables at the foot of King street, last night, and will be laid up for some time.

Mr. Loveless was coming down the ladder from the loft at the rear of the stalls, when he slipped and fell. He had a lantern in his hand at the time, which luckily did not explode, but Loveless fell under the horse's feet. The frightened animal, which, by the way, was old Delaware — the late Chief Roe's buggy horse at the central first station—kicked viciously at the foreman, hurting him severely. Loveless managed to escape and crawled out of the barn. His condition is not serious, but he will be laid up for some time.

MAY ASK AN INCREASE

Street Railway Employes Reported After a Higher Wage.

Employes of the London Street Railway Company, it is said, will shortly ask an increase in wages from the management of the company.

It is understood the company now pays its men 15 1-3 cents per hour, as a minimum wage, and 17 cents per hour for a maximum, and that the employes are thinking of asking for a maximum of 20 cents an hour.

Manager King when seen by The Advertiser today, stated that the story was news to him.

"The men have not made any demand upon the company for an increase," he said.

EVA FAULDS' CASE.

Eva Faulds, accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Gibbs, and their solicitor, Mr. J. C. Elliott, arrived in the city this morning from Wardsville, to be examined before Mr. R. K. Cowan, local master, in connection with the habeas corpus proceedings instituted by her father, Mr. J. F. Faulds, for the recovery of the child. Miss Faulds was met by two officers at the station and escorted to the county buildings.

Hats Off in Church

New York, March 6. — At the request of the men of his congregation who not only want to hear, but see the preacher as well, Rev. Warren H. Wilson, pastor of the Arlington Avenue Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, has requested that the women in his congregation remove their hats before the services begin. "I know that in his Epistle to the Corinthians, St. Paul declares against women going to prayer uncovered," Mr. Wilson said last night, "but it is not always possible to run a modern church along the lines laid down by St. Paul."

CALL OF ST. JAMES IS SUSTAINED

London Presbytery Unanimously Grants Permission.

REV. THOS. MITCHELL ACCEPTS

The Induction Fixed for the Fourth of April—Business of This Morning's Session.

The call to Rev. Thomas H. Mitchell, M. A., of Barre, Vermont, to the pulpit of New St. James' Presbyterian Church, was this morning unanimously sustained by the Presbytery of London.

The meeting was held in the new St. Andrew's Sunday school, and a large number of members were present. Rev. John Lindsay, of Kintore, was elected moderator.

The first matter dealt with by the Presbytery was the call to Mr. Mitchell. Rev. Dr. Ross presented the desires of the congregation represented in a written document, signed by 295 members and 88 adherents. The stipend was fixed at $1,800 yearly, with four weeks' holidays allowed.

Sheriff Cameron, P. J. Thompson, and Rev. F. Ballantyne, B. A., were heard as commissioners for the congregation. They urged that the presbytery hasten the settlement of a pastor. The call was unanimously sustained, and a telegram from Mr. Mitchell read, saying that he accepted.

The induction was fixed for April 4 at 8 o'clock, the moderator to preside, Dr. Munro to preach and Dr. Ross to address the pastor. Rev. Mr. Rollins will address the people.

Rev. Mr. Rollins gave notice of motion that all commissioners to the General Assembly be this year appointed by ballot.

St. James' Church, Yarmouth, asked leave to mortgage the new church for $3,000 and to sell the old one. This was granted.

A motion of sympathy with Rev. J. G. Stuart and his congregation in his long and severe illness, was unanimously passed.

Rev. Wm. Anderson, B. A., who was formerly in Aylmer and recently in Scotland, applied to be received back into the church in Canada. It was agreed to apply to the General Assembly to receive Mr. Anderson back.

BEWARE THE GRAB BAG

Decaying Figs, Rotting Sweetmeats and Vermin in Some.

Beware of the deadly grab bag.

Today a lady brought a bag of candy to Inspector McCallum and claimed that her little girl had bought the bag at a store on Richmond street, north of the Grigg House.

The contents of the bag looked like a rat's nest. The bag was full of figs, and candy in various stages of decomposition, and it was well peopled with a species of depredators as large as angle worms.

Dr. Hutchinson, when the case was reported to him, took Assistant Inspector Lutman along and visited the store, intending to make a seizure but he found no other grab bags on the premises.

His advice to the children of London is, "Beware of the deadly grab bag."

"I ONLY DID MY DUTY"

Boy Who Saved Lives Refuses to Accept Reward.

Port Huron, Mich., March 6. — Glenn Clark, the Port Huron boy, who a week ago saved the lives of a number of passengers on a train passing through here, by his presence of mind in turning a switch which was by mistake set against the train, has now refused to accept a purse of $100 offered him by the party on the train at the time.

"I only did my duty and I don't want any reward for it," he says.

SNAP SHOTS AT SCHOOL CHILDREN

Here's a picture of a bright-looking school girl, who was enjoying a good laugh with some of her chums when she came within range of The Advertiser kodak. She was photographed on a sharp, bright day, hence the pictur turns out unusually clear. She will receive a prize of one dollar if she calls at The Advertiser tomorrow between 5:30 and 6 o'clock, and presents a copy of the paper containing the picture. To make her identification easier, she should appear in the same dress as she were when photographed.

The little boy whose picture appeared in The Advertiser on Saturday failed to call for his prize. Upwards of twenty boys from all parts of the city called yesterday afternoon, thinking the picture might have been of them, but the right lad was not in the number. This is the first time the prize-winner has not put in an appearance.

SNAPSHOT NUMBER ELEVEN.

Springbank Fares To Be Increased on May First

Ten Cent Return Rate Will Be Abolished--Advance About Twenty Per Cent.

The London Street Railway Company has decided to put a new system of fares in force on the Springbank line on May 1.

Since the original rate of 15 cents was abolished, two or three years ago, 10 cents has been charged for the round trip, with transfers to any part of the city, but the company does not consider this sufficient, and has resolved on a new scheme, which will mean an increase of about 20 per cent.

After May 1, Springbank tickets will be sold at the rate of six for a quarter, good either going or coming on the line beyond the city limits. Passengers, however, will have to pay a green ticket to carry them to the city limits on the down trip, but on the return transfers to any part of the city will be given on the Springbank ticket only. Thus, if passengers use tickets altogether, the trip to and from the park will cost them 12 cents. If cash is paid instead, it will mean 10 cents on the down trip and 5 cents to return—a total of 15 cents.

Manager King, when asked the reason of the changed rates, said:

"Well, the Springbank line has never been a every profitable investment, and as the previous rate was 15 cents, we thought we would make somewhat of a compromise between

DOPED, 'TIS SAID, ROBBED OF $160

And Only Doctor's Efforts Saved This Man from Dying in the Cells.

That booze imbibers are being doped systematically at some of the local hotels is the opinion of several police officers at present.

Last night a drunk was arrested—he's a merchant in the city—and it was one of the worst cases that have come to the notice of the police. The man was very sick, and in a desperate condition. Shortly after he was placed in the cells, the officer on night duty noticed that everything was not right, and phoned for a doctor. The physician worked over the drunk for a considerable time, and had some difficulty in pulling him through.

The drunk appeared before P. M. Love this morning very much the worse for wear. He said that he had $160 last night, and after a few drinks he lost all recollection. He found himself in the police cells this morning. His face was a sight. One eye was as black as coal, and completely closed, and his face looked as if it had been tattooed with an axe. He had a bank book in his pocket, showing that he had money to his credit.

P. M. Love said he could hardly conceive a hotelman to be so low as to deliberately drug a man. There were several cases of it lately, however, and the matter was becoming serious. Such a man was too vile for consideration.

The police are at a loss to know what will be done in the case, as the man was so drunk he did not remember who was with him or where or how he lost his money. It is possible that some of his friends may be keeping the money for him.

Another drunk, first time up, was certainly hilarious last night, but his previous good behavior got him off without a fine.

CHARGE DISCRIMINATION

Railway Commission Hears Complaints Against the C. P. R.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Ont., March 6. — The railway commission this morning met to consider the complaints of the boards of trade of British Columbia, regarding alleged discrimination in rates between Vancouver and interior points, as far east as Calgary, on the main line, MacLeod on the Crow's Nest branch, and from Winnipeg to Calgary, MacLeod and points further west, including the Kootenay district.

There was also taken up at the same time the complaint of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and the New Westminster Board of Trade, charging that the C. P. R. unjustly discriminates against Pacific coast cities in charging higher rates on freight originating in Eastern Canada. The Canadian Pacific and other railways are also accused of discriminating unjustly against the Pacific coast cities by charging higher rates on traffic originating in the Eastern United States. Hon. Joseph Martin appeared for the complainants and Hon. A. G. Blair for the Canadian Pacific.

FARMER FACES AWFUL CHARGE

Aged Man Near Belleville Is Accused of Beating His Wife to Death.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Belleville, March 6.—Fred Klengbell, a farmer, 70 years old, who resided about two miles from the city, is under arrest on a charge of murdering his wife, a woman 72 years of age. They lived alone, and the assault, which was committed about 5 o'clock yesterday, was not discovered till the boy went after his wages. He looked in a window and saw Mrs. Klengbell in a terrible condition. When the old man came to the door his hands were covered with blood. The boy told his story, and the man was lodged in jail, but it was too late to do anything for the woman, who expired three hours later. Klengbell admits quarreling with his wife and beating her with his hands, but Dr. Yeomans does not think all the injuries could have been inflicted in that way.

ROOF GARDEN FOR LONDON

One May Be Located in Center of City This Summer.

A gentleman, who is on the inside, informed the Advertiser today that a scheme is now on foot to provide a roof garden for London this summer.

"It will be located in the heart of the city," said the gentleman quoted, "and will be up-to-date in all particulars. There will be a performance, probably vaudeville, every afternoon and night.

"The men behind the scheme are waiting to hear from outside capitalists who are interested, before making the announcement. But at present the chances for the roof garden look good."

MATHESON HANDS IN HIS ACCOUNT

Ontario Estimates Call for Nearly Six Millions.

INCREASES FOR GOVT. OFFICIALS

Large Sum To Be Devoted to Educational Purposes—Criticism by Opposition Leader.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, March 5.—The interest of today's five-minute sitting of the Ontario House centered around the bringing down of the estimate of the expenditures of the Province for the year 1906. The Premier submitted a message from the Lieutenant-Governor, asking the voting of the $5,625,543 15, which comprises the total of the estimates.

The House will be treated to an echo of the Gamey case on Wednesday, when the member for Manitoulin will inquire:

1. Is the Government aware that Chief Justice Falconbridge and Chancellor Boyd, acting as commissioners for the late Government, investigating the Gamey charges, improperly impounded $500 cash, and a marked check of Mr. Gamey's on the Traders' Bank of Sudbury for $1,500, and that they still have this money and check to their order? 2. What do the Government propose to do with this money?

Matheson Explains.

Hon. Mr. Matheson, in moving that the estimates be referred to the House in committee of supply, said that some of the apparent large increases were mere matters of bookkeeping. In the department of agriculture, for instance, the receipts last year were deducted from the estimates. This year this had not been done, but instead there was a gross estimate showing an increase of $83,000, which later would be covered by the receipts. Last year the $67,000 earned by Central Prison industries had been deducted from the estimates, this year a vote was taken for the entire expenditure, and later the receipts would be credited against that amount. The item of $50,000 for clearing the land along the right of way of the Temiskaming Railway would be fully met later by the sale of the timber. These three items alone showed a nominal increase of $200,000, which would in the end be covered by receipts. The usual sum had been set down for public school education, but the Minister of Education proposed to bring down a very large increase, which would be put in the supplementary estimates.

Back to the Ross System.

Hon. Mr. Ross said he was glad the Government in the case of the agricultural department was going back to the system discarded last year, but in vogue for the preceding half dozen years. He did not know what had been the custom regarding Central Prison accounts, but he approved of the system by which the full expenditure in each department would be shown.

Estimates in Detail.

Of the total estimated expenditure of $5,625,543, the sum of $4,980,328 is for current expenditure, $432,805 for capital account, and $212,410 for other purposes. As the total expenditures for 1905, as shown in the public accounts, amounted to $5,396,016, the increase shown in the estimates is $229,537. The various amounts are as follows, the first figures being the esti-

Winnipeg Thugs.

Winnipeg, March 6. — Two robberies occurred here, both evidently being the work of highwaymen. One pedestrian was attacked and slugged on Notre Dame avenue, but escaped, as he was near the police. However, H. McKenzie, of Vonda, Saskatchewan, who is visiting in the city, was not so fortunate. He was robbed of $468 while crossing the university grounds and severely handled. The police have a good description of the thugs.

LONDON MEN HAVE A LARGE VAUDEVILLE CIRCUIT IN VIEW

To Include Montreal, Ottawa and Hamilton—Important Theatrical Rumor.

A very important theatrical rumor was going the rounds today to the effect that Manager C. W. Bennett, of the local vaudeville theater, has concluded an agreement with certain prominent capitalists of London, whereby a company, of which Mr. Bennett is the head, will build vaudeville houses in Montreal, Ottawa, Hamilton and other cities.

The object is to establish a Canadian circuit, so that when looking for acts Mr. Bennett can give performers from two to four weeks' work, instead of but one week, as at present.

This would give him a great prestige, and would insure the very best attractions practically all the year round for his houses. Mr. Bennett has now theaters in London and St. Thomas, but the latter house was not a great success when run six days, without a change of bill.

The local vaudeville theater has proven such a success that many moneyed people are anxious to get in with Mr. Bennett, who is certainly an up-to-date manager, and one who knows how to handle the people to mutual advantage.

Mr. Bennett is away today, and it is understood is making an inspection of sites in several places for new theaters.

It is understood he is in Montreal with Mr. J. C. Duffield, of the City Gas Company, whose name is connected with the big enterprise.

KILLED FOR RESENTING INSULT

Raleigh, N. C., March 6.—The jury in the Hasty case at Gaffney, S. C., returned a verdict of guilty today. The prisoner was recommended to the mercy of the court. Hasty was tried for the murder of Milan Bennett and Abbot Davison, members of the "Nothing but Money" company. Hasty was sentenced to the penitentiary for life, but it was announced that counsel would appeal to the supreme court.

Bennett and Davison were killed by Hasty because they resented his insult offered to a woman member of the theatrical company. The "Nothing but Money" troupe gave a performance in Gaffney and stopped at an inn conducted by the Hasty brothers. The next morning one of the actresses told Davison and Bennett that Geo. Hasty had tried to get into her room the night before. Bennett went to Hasty and demanded an apology. Hasty denied that he was guilty and Davison struck him. Hasty then shot Davison and Bennett. Davison was star and part owner of the company, and Bennett was the musical director.
