LANGFORD AND RICE IN FINALS WHICH WILL BE PLAYED TODAY

London Thistle Skip and Toronto Queen City Skip Will Battle This Afternoon For Labatt Trophy—Finals in Tecumseh

The finals of the Labatt trophy will be played this afternoon between Skip R. B. Rice's Queen City four and Skip A. A. Langford's Thistles, of this city. The semi-finals were reached early last evening, and the rinks named justified the good opinion held of them by bowlers, by winning from their opponents.

The semi-finals were well played games. Rice was pitted against Hoover, of Clinton, one of the best skips attending the tourney. The northerners had been playing great bowls all through the tourney, and it was expected that the game would be the most brilliant of the tourney. The large gallery following the play were large gallery following the play were not disappointed, as the bowling was excellent, but the Clinton rink did not show the form expected of them. Not one of the four played the kind of a game shown in the earlier contests, game shown in the earlier contests, and Rice got away to a running start. The Queen City quartette were all up to their best game. Sykes, the lead, kerr, the second man, and Phelps, the third player, could be relied upon to deliver the necessary bowl in the right place, and Dr. Rice himself was in rare form. It is seldem that four players can be gathered on a rink, who play such a uniformly good game. who play such a uniformly good game. After the first few ends there was no doubt who would be the winner. It was a fine contest, truly played.

Langford and Tom McCurdy fur-nished the most exciting contest of Langford and Tom McCurdy furnished the most exciting contest of the series, so much depending on the result. McCurdy lost literally by a hair's breadth in the last end.

During the whole game the two rinks see-sawed in the leadership. First one would be ahead and then the other until the interest of the spectators was worked up to a high pitch. When the last end was commenced, McCurdy was one up, and bowling splendidly. Owing to good work on King's part, the Stratford man was lying shot. Claude Bluett placed a beauty within a few inches of the kitty. Manion could not get the shot away, and it was up to Langford to draw another shot to win the game. "Longboat," as he is called by his club mates, did not fail his rink, but laid down a beautiful bowl. London lying two. Tom McCurdy endeavored to trail the kitty a few inches into a cluster of Stratford bowls, but missed it by a bare fraction with his first bowl. Langford's second was not good. It was up to McCurdy on his last bowl. He again tried an overthrow to take the kitty, but again missed by a bare inch. It looked as if his bowl would be shot, but it wobbled just out of range. There was no question about Langford having one shot, but it was necessary to measure for second, and fortune favored the home skip, and he contained the contained the home skip, and he contained the home skip

A large gallery followed this game. Thistle rink skip is president of his club and his club mates did not to show how much they thought of him. They rooted all the time for him to win. McCurdy was not with-out his friends, and the brilliant Stratford skip was given many an ovation for his great playing.

Hoover's Clinton four bowled a wonderfully good game against George Nightingale's Thistles in the fifth round. Courtice, the lead, and Tayround. Courtice, the lead, and Tay-lor, the third player, were in particu-larly good form, and repeatedly made almost impossible shots. It can be said, without detracting from the consistently good bowling of Skip Hoover, who is one of the most reliable players in the game that it was the work of Courtice and Taylor that made the Clinton four so comfortable winners. Nightingale did not show his usual ability with running shots.

Langford trimmed Dr. Wiley, of the Brantford Heathers, a former winner of the Labatt trophy. It was a tight game until the last few ends, when

Langford drew away, winning by comfortable margin. The Tecumseh trophy competition has reached the sixth round, the rinks remaining being Frank Smoke, Paris; remaining being Frank Smoke, Paris; H. O. Hawke, Galt; Newman Booker, Avlmer: John Stevenson, London; Aylmer; John Stevenson, London; Hoover, Clinton, and Dr. Wiley, of Brantford. All these rinks are in rare form, and some great bowling should be seen during the day. The finals in this competition will be played at

5:30 o'clock this afternoon. There are many rinks remaining in the McNee, but it is expected that be-fore evening the semi-finals at least will be reached. This is an extremely open race, and anything is likely to

The grounds were so thoroughly soaked that several loads of sawdust were sprinkled around the field, Manager Barrett and the London players objected to playing at all on account of the slippery footing. It was a case at best of taking chances on broken limbs and charley-horse. However, a compromise was reached and it was decided to play one game only.
