

An Interview—Without Words

MADAME ORIKA KAMATSU

BY RUTH AGNES ABELING.
[Written for The London Advertiser.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—"Goo morning."

It was such a light, thistle-down voice and such a dainty little lady, slim of waist, slim of ankle, small of feet. The latter, pink enough to have been manicured, were thrust, bare, into tiny pink satin sandals. "Eh—ah?" With a delicate rising inflection and a pretty smile, Madame Orika Kamatsu didn't understand English very well. She's the wife of the chief adviser with the Japanese delegation to the disarmament conference.

We were helpless! But there is a language every woman understands—clothes. So Madame Kamatsu opened one of her huge trunks and began laying out her costumes. "Evening gown," delicately.

She held up a wonderful thing, green, shimmering green silk crepe with a border of heavy pink silk. The sleeves of the gorgeous garment must have reached to the very toes of the dainty little Madame Orika.

"Ovi," she said, and wound around her very slim waist a width of gold embroidered silk. "Evening gown." Again, and she laid out a handsome thing in black with a fastened lining of white silk of gossamer softness. Flowers in lavender and pink bordered the gown, which was very long.

"Ovi." The sash was gold embroidered in blue and scarlet. Madame Kamatsu's husband is a graduate of Harvard University and distinguished himself while there for his ability in public speaking.

FINANCIAL, MARKET AND COMMERCIAL SECTION

Canadian Grain Markets

WINNIPEG, Nov. 18.—The local wheat market held steady during the first hour of trading today and then turned sharply higher with an advance of 40 cents.

The strength was really in the November position but the more deferred positions were following in line. Buying orders in November found that month decidedly tight, which forced up the prices. The buying was evidently for tonnage purposes. The market reacted slightly from the high of the day and closed with a gain of 2½¢.

There was an excellent demand for the two top grades of cash wheat and premiums were fractionally higher. Offerings were more liberal.

There was very little change in the coarse grain situation, with prices firmer today in sympathy with the advancing wheat market.
