

SPECIAL.

1,000 Rolls Gilt Paper,

72c

O. B. GRAVES, 222 DUNDAS ST.

Here's a Splendid Opportunity

To get a spring suit at reduced price. We will sell

Scotch Tweed Suits at $20

Formerly we have made reductions at the end of the season, but this spring we have decided to give our patrons the benefit when the goods are required. Also see our

TROUSERS at $5.00

Fashionable patterns.

O. LABELLE

MERCHANT TAILOR,

372 RICHMOND ST.

THE AMBASSADOR 10c CIGAR 10c

Warranted clear Havana filler and hand-made. A delightful and healthful smoke.

TRY ONE

COAL $6.00 A TON

For one month I will sell very best Sarnia coal $6.00 per ton, 2,000 weight to ton, weighed on market scales if necessary. Also best black wood, $5.75 per cord.

George McNeill, 537 Richmond St. PHONE 465.

We are showing the newest and most artistic designs and colorings in Wall Paper.

H. & C. COLERICK

443 Richmond Street.

BOBBINET RUFFLED CURTAINS.

A. SCREATION & CO. 134 Dundas Street.

Sarnia Observer:—"E. B. Phelps has received word from Calgary, that Eugene Phelps, who was so seriously injured in a railway accident recently and whose life was despaired of, that he is gradually recovering from the terrible shock to his system, and that hopes are entertained for his ultimate recovery. His many Sarnia friends will be pleased to hear of this."

GENTLEMEN, SEE OUR

New York Stiff Hats for $2.00,

AND

Swell Soft Goods for $1.75 and $2.00 in all the new shades for spring.

GRAHAM BROS.

Moth Powder

A compound of RED CEDAR and TAR CAMPHOR is a convenient and effective article for keeping moths from upholstery, rugs, carpets, furs and clothing.

W. T. STRONG & CO.

Chemists, 134 Dundas Street.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

ASTRONOMICAL.

Sun rises, 5:13 a. m. Moon rises, 3:40 p. m. Sun sets, 7:17 p. m. Moon sets, 3:08 a. m.

FAIR WEATHER.

Toronto, April 28, 8 p. m.—The weather continues fair and extremely mild from the lower lakes to the Maritime Provinces and especially the Ottawa Valley where the temperature to-day rose to 50 degrees in the shade. In the Lake Superior district it is cool and showery, whilst in Manitoba and the Territories it is fine and turning milder again. Milwaukee and maximum temperature—Victoria, 48-50; Calgary, 20-34; Qu'Appelle, 28-50; Winnipeg, 48-52; Port Arthur, 36-50; Pelly, 24-36; Regina, 34-48; 72; Ottawa, 40-50; Quebec, 40-76; Halifax, 32-42.

Probabilities.—Lower lakes and Georgian Bay—Fair, not much change in temperature. Local temperatures.—The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the Observatory on Sunday, April 27, 1901, were:—Highest, 73 above; lowest, 33.5 above.

Local temperatures.—The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the Observatory on Sunday, April 28, 1901, were:—Highest, 77.5 above; lowest, 35 above.

Fashionable Tweeds

and Overcoats for spring. Our stock is in now.

THOMAS WILSON

MERCHANT TAILOR,

218 DUNDAS STREET.

CITY NEWS.

The poor man's story—usually the one next to the roof.

A man likes to feel that he is loved and a woman likes to be told.

Nobody talks much that does not occasionally say unwise things.

Many a man has to do with a short allowance, but it's hard to get along.

We value a thing according to the struggle it has cost us to secure it.

When entrusted with a commission do not fail to perform it. It is rude to "forget."

Once more it seems safe to put away the snow shovel and bring out the lawn mower.

Never run when your clothes catch fire; lay down on a rug and roll it over you; smother the flame.

It was a minister who advertised for the return of a lost umbrella. He must have been a very young minister.

Pte. Lessard, of Wolseley Barracks, who recently received his discharge, will work on the steamer Manitoba this season.

His Lordship Bishop Baldwin will hold services in St. George's church, Goderich, on May 5th, and during the morning service will admit a large confirmation class to church membership.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

London's district complement of men for the Halifax garrison left for the east on Saturday afternoon in charge of Sergt. Carter, of the garrison, who had been in London on furlough. The men were given a send-off by the permanent force at Wolseley Barracks.

Mr. Mathew Rigeau, driver, of McGillivray, while showing Mr. J. Laughlin a couple of cards the other day, had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. Mr. R. was standing between the two, when his coat, it is supposed, touched the one, which kicked him down with the first stroke, with the above results.

The Napanee Beaver says:—"On Wednesday morning, a pleasant and important event occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keller, Robert street, the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Etta Mathieson, to Mr. George Grange, of the well-known business firm of A. W. Grange & Brother. Both the contracting parties are well known and highly popular here, were born and have spent most of their days in this vicinity, and they have hosts of friends and relatives who wish them a hearty God-speed and many years of domestic happiness on a long life's journey. The wedding was a very quiet one, only a few members of the immediate families being invited. Rev. E. E. McIntyre, of the Eastern Methodist church, was the officiating minister. The bride, who is an accomplished and a highly popular lady with her many friends, received many beautiful and valuable presents, including a beautiful gold watch and chain from the groom. She is a sister of Mrs. Orin L. Herring, of Bridge street, and of E. E. Switzer, of Toronto. The groom, it is well known, is a son of the late Wm. Grange, of Richmond, and a brother of our townspeople, J. T. Grange, ex-M. P. A. W. Grange, Mrs. Samuel McNeil, Mrs. P. L. Bogert, all of Napanee; Mrs. G. McCreer, of Riverside, and Mrs. J. L. Haycock, of Cataraqui. He has large business interests in London, Ont., where he has resided much of his life, and, as well as at Napanee. There are few more popular men among his very large circle of acquaintances. The newly wedded couple left on Wednesday for an extended honeymoon, taking in Montreal, New York, Washington and the Pan-American exhibition at Buffalo. They may not be expected to return here for some weeks. We have not learned whether they intend to make London or Napanee their future home."

Mr. R. Sparling and Miss Philip sang a duet in the Askin Street Methodist Church Sunday evening.

A number of drunks arrested by the police on Saturday night were discharged by Magistrate Love yesterday.

The traffic to Springbank Park Saturday was large. Cars returning from the lovely resort were crowded with excursionists.

Several swimming "holes" in the river and at the Cove were in use yesterday. The boys were "rushing the season" a trifle.

Rev. Prof. Ballantyne, of Knox Church, Toronto, formerly of this city, preached in the First Presbyterian Church yesterday at both services to large congregations.

Mr. S. Wheaton, J. P., has leased his farm, lot 13, con. 3, London Township, to Mr. Waters. Mr. Wheaton will shortly move to his new brick residence on Richmond street north.

The G. T. R. will to-day begin taking up the heavier rails on the Kingscourt branch and replacing them with lighter rails from the main line. Greater tax on the main line demanded the change.

Miss Addie Sutton, of Clark & Pennock's wholesale millinery, here, is spending a few days at her home in decision on the applications of Messrs. Sillson and Patrick for hotel license at Ilberton, and J. H. Ross and Tom. Lewis, for the Queen's Own. The matter was laid over to Mr. R. P. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.

The Seventh Regiment Band had its first battalion shoot at the Cove ranges on Saturday afternoon. As

Mr. P. B. Wade, late station agent for the C. P. Ry., at Bathurst, who has for the past year and a half been residing in this city, has accepted a similar position with the L. E. & D. R. Ry. at Highgate, and leaves to-day for his new duties. His family will follow him in a few days.