THE TORONTO WORLD: TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 29, 1881 does us the honor of ubmitting to us his had added that he has never overshadows but a few spots here career. His whole future depen his success at the responsible head French ministry, for it is hardly p int he will rise again if, as with T itrigues and malevolence causes his row. On the other enough of any matter to be in a position to depends upon ble head of the

The Toronto World. An Independent Liberal Newspaper,

In blished every morning at five o'clockat No. 4 In strat cast. Extra editions are published h.never there is ews of sufficient moment to

SUBSCR "TION PRICE:

panies, TEN CENTS a line. Paragraphs among news items, double the ordin-ary rates. Special notices, twenty-five per cent. n on

riage and death notices, TWENTY

Condensed advertisements are charged at the fol-owing rates: Situations Wanted, FREE; Help Wanted, Properties for Sate, Houses or Stores to Rent, Houses or Stores Wanted, Board and Lodging, Booms to Let, Rooms Wanted, Articles for Sale, Tricles Wanted, Articles Lost or Found, Profes-ion or Pusiness Cards, Business Changes, Money o Lend, Personal, and Miscellancous, TEN CENTS or Twenty words, and one-half a cent for each ad-

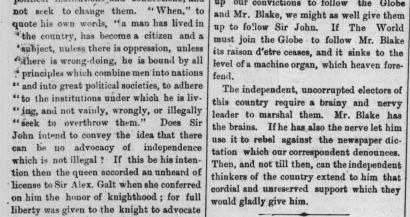

hal word, for each insertion. The Toronto World.

The Only One-Cent Morning Paper in Canada, and the Only Exclusively Morning Paper in the City of Toronto.

TUESDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 20, 1881.

" THE VEILED TREASON OF INDEPENDENCE." In the course of his pavillion speech Sir

John Macdonald touched on the question nationalist as an annexationist and a traitor of Canadian independence, only of course to to the state. Sir John A. Macdonald did denounce it, in a phrase attributed to Lord the same at the tory banquet, and therefore taken reads thus : Beaconsfield, "a veiled treason." He took upon that, the only fruitful issue before the the ground that every man living in this Canadian people, Sir John and the Globe country is bound to be satisfied with its are in the same boat. If we have to give political institutions and connections, and up our convictions to follow the Globe

Canadian independence. It is not to be presumed that the newly made knight was to overstep the limits of the law, or that he is the duty upon coal. It can only be aisle is filled, so that there is no means of to everstep the limits of the law, or that he was specially authorized by the sovereign to defended upon the score that it is part of a exit in case of panic. The city commis-equal for relieving pain, both internal and do wrong.

crown and dignity would, by such a course, render himself liable to indictment. The advocacy of independence, such as Sir Alex. Galt is authorized by the governor to pursue, is here set down as equivalent to a conspiracy against the

" (independence) into action, would render

he called his friend, "obliged to stand on "his trial under an impeachment proposed of joke, if joke it was intended to be. We

It is not fair for one public man to insinuate threats against another. The occasion which Sir John imagines,

has not, in the case of Mr.

Blake, arisen. Sir John sets up a man of straw that he may enjoy the valiant sport of knocking him down. But suppose Mr. Blake had expressed the opinion that Canada would thrive better as an independent country than under the restraint of its present connections, and suppose further that

Sir John caused an indictment to be drawn against him for treason, the effect would inevitably be to make Mr. Blake the greatest political force in the country and bring his assailant down from the pedestal of power.

During the last quarter of a century, a large number of leading English statesmen who have been responsible for the government of the nation, have frankly avowed

that if Canada desired to take up her ma-

ferity, to assert her independence, England would not oppose her wish. Palmerston said the old country would, in that event, cheerfully bid her offspring godspeed. It is only in Canada that we have this talk about opinion being treasonable. Every Alex. Galt enjoys in this regard.

" by Mr. Mowat." Whether this sally had would "be sorry to see Mr. Blake," whom the national policy.

Sir John aiming an arrow at Mr. Blake, whether half in jest or in downright earnest does not quite appear, said that a man who had been a privy councillor of Canada, and who in that capacity had sworn to disclose to show that so far from enhancing the Sir John aiming an arrow at Mr. Blake, who in that capacity had sworn to disclose to show that so far from enhancing the free of people. iracy against her majesty; her dency to cheapen it.

cheaply as to the other.

OUR LITERARY CENSORS

This is midwinter madness.

price of coal the duty actually has a ten-ernlexities. give such instructions, it would have miled But, true liberal that he is, our esteemed rrespondent has no intention of accepting truth upon truth Our London contemour dictum, for which we like him none the porary asks why such less. Political sympathisers should be methods, not to be tolerated by a free brethren to counsel together, not slaves to people," are not practiced apon the library wenty-five cent a month, or $3.01 year in ad-vance, post-paid. Single copies, one cent. Sold on the streets and by revealeders in every city and t wn in Ontario, Qurbec, and Manitoba. ADVERISING RATES: ADVERISING RATES: Course best designed to subserve the in-Emerson says that Methodists are saved The World is not pursuing the the library at Ottawa?

tweive lines to an inch. Casual advertisements of whatever nature, FIVE CENTS a line for each insection. Reports of meetings and financial statements of banks, a d rallway insurance and monotonic follow Mr. Blake in an attempt to stem the tide of corruption and to assert the saved by book seizures. rights of the people against the dictators of both the grit and tory partizans. OUR TEMPERENCE FRIENDS will be We are quite prepared to join, though alarmed to learn from a scientific contriperhaps not to follow, Mr. Blake or any butor to the New York Sun that the earth other man in so good a work, but we must is drying up, the water yearly decreasing in first have some assurance that he is in volume, and the globe upon which we live opinion upon the subject, but we have heard it hinted that this is a New York We go a good way with our correspondent in his commendation of schems to prevent the success of Mr. Mr. Blake, though he is not without his Livingstone's temperance colony. Still it faults as a party leader. We believe him is a fact that the delegates to the tory conto be an honest able man, who is a credit vention last week experienced an unusual to his country, provided a Canadian has a dryness, and economised what little water country, but he has so far not risen equal there is left, as much as possible. If the to his opportunities, or to the expectations predicted calamity does come we must look of his admirers. Our correspondent detests to the law of compensation for consolation. Globe dictation, yet asks us to follow a The milkmen will then be above suspicion man who submits to it ! So long as the and the streets of Toronto become passable reform leader remains in alliance with the all the year round.

clear grits, so long as he deals in barren THE OFTAWA FREE PRESS does a quesgeneralities about Canadian nationality, and tionable thing in giving a quotation from refuses to express himself in plain terms, so The World as under :. long will it remain patent that he is under the thumb of the Globe, which brands every

"The Toronto World says of Sir John Macdonald : 'His public character is not of the best ; his political rurpose is not of the noblest ; his oratory is of the flattest.'" The paragraph from which the above was taken reads thus ; We feel delicate about saying again that Sir John A. Macdonald is the eleverest politician in Canada ; but the gathering of the elans, of all kinds and con-ditions, held in this city yesterday for the purpose of registering the "old man's" decrees, proves that we did not over-estimate the power of his secret a few days since. His public character is not of the best ; his political purpose is not of the noblest; his oratory is of the flattest, and yest the "old man" captures more hearts and turns more heads than better and abler men. Hence this convention. Hence his influence. Hence many things his politi-cal and personal opponents cannot understand. A cardid yeadlow might part of the the the As and if reader might not say that the Free Press did a fair thing in seizing upon four lines only and omitting all the rest four lines only and omitting all the rest public elsewhere. of the above brief paragraph. A PANIC in a New York theatre on thanksgiving day caused a number of serious accidents, but marvellously no loss of life. A steampipe burst, a fool cried fire, and immediately three thousand people in a crowded theatre formed a mass of confusion. | Iowa. We direct the attention of the trustees of the Bond street church and the city com- sented to the sultan yesterday at Con missioner to this accident. That church The weakest point in the national policy every Sunday night is packed and every whole--the keystone of the protective arch sioner has before this compelled the thea- external. It cures Pain in the Side, Back and there. THE KINGSTON NEWS says that there is "no room for an old woman's party." Sorry our contemporary can't find a political organization to belong to.

MR. RYKERT, M P., is pained because Toronto aldermen are not pure. Mr. Rykert knows from experience how sad a thing it is not to be pure.

MR. J. D. EDGAR is president of the West York reform association. He will write them a poem and get them a railway charter.

ughter-in-law.

tinople.

THE BAKER. Who is it in an idle hour Grinds up some beans both cheap and sour, To mix them with his wheaten flour? The baker !

Who, if a trifling rise in price Occurs in corn, will not be nice, But in the bread will charge it twice ? The baker ! Who, when the corn is " down again,"

Who, the unpleasant truth to state, Cheats us at such a fearful rate That every loaf is short in weight? The baker !

Mrs. Garfield, Miss Mollie and Maste Herbert and Abram are now comfortably quartered in their new Cleveland home, No.

570 Yonge street, Toronto. COMMON BEDST. ADS – WE MAKE A spec thy of common bedsteads. KENNEDY Own Sound, Ont. tf TOAL AND WOOD – WE ARE NOT CONNECTED The imperial library at St. Petersburg with the coal combination for cash orders. Give us a call. J. DAVIS & CO., 46 Church st. tf D RESS PLAITING BY STEAM IN A SUPERIOR manner.

2 Revere Elock, 149 King street west, 2 Revere Elock, 149 King street west, 135 Opposite Windsor Hotel. FLOUR-FLOUR-WARBANTED VERY BEST quality, delivered to any part of the city, $3 15 a bag. R. J. FLEMING, 205 Yonge st. 136

GENTS-BUY YOUR WINTER BOOTS AND Overshoes at J. BUTLER'S, Rossin House Block, King street west.

2 Revere Block, King street west, Opposite Wmdsor Hotel. ADIES WISHING HAND-MADE EMBROI DERY done can have same by applying Box 48. World Office

COAL AND WOOD.

Telephone Communication between Offices

POINTUATION, AND OTHER TIPOGRAPHI-CAL matters, for the use of Printers, Authon, Teachers and Schools. By Marshall T. Bigelow, correction at the University Press, second edition, 60 cents. W. R. HAIGHT, Dealer in Old and New Booka 92 King street east, Toronto. FINANCIAL. Motor Cold $2000 OR $5000 WANTED. SUBSTAN tial evidence given that capital will yield Fifteen per cent. Address box 124 World MONEY TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES, ON . J. DAVIS & CO., 46 Church street. Is such a thorough rogue in grain, The rise in bread still to maintain ? The baker ! MORTGAGES ON GOOD FARM LANDS IN Manitoba, paying 8 per cent. for sale. LIB-ERAL COMMISSION. P. O. Box, 785, Toropto. MONEY TO LOAN AND BUSINESS CHANCES. ARMSTRONG, 17 Jordan street. 19 $100,000 TO LOAN At 6 per cent. on city or farm property. Half ma duartered in their new Dieveland nome, No. 1106 Euclid avenue. They left Mentor for Cleveland on Monday, and it is Mrs. Gar-field's intention to reside in her present home until April next, she having made C. W. LINDSEY, Real Estate Agent, 62 King street e SPECIFIC ARTICLES. arrangements with Judge Burke to occupy the house until that time. She will probably make Mentor her summer home. She will only remove a number of personal effects from Mentor to Cleveland. Her ANTIDOTE FOR DRINK-CRAVING AND indigestion; new remedy; sample 10 cents. Mailed for stamps to any part of Canada or United States. Address W. HEARN, druggist, Toronto.

effects from Mentor to Cleveland. Her brother-in-law, Mr. C. O. Rockwell, is in Cleveland and is assisting her in arranging matters. Miss Mollie is now attending Mrs. Mittleberger's pivate school. Herbert and Abram will commence to-day. Grandma Garfield, who is now residing in Solon, is expected daily. She will winter with her doughter in law A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOR EVER !" Seud your photograph (any type) with name and address, and get a Gold-Phated Locket, containing Your Likenees elegantly painted in oil. Only $2 or LOCKET AND POR-TBAIT. Photos returned. Address J. E. YOUNG, Portrait Painter, 570 Yonge street, Toronto.

contains over 1,000,000 volumes. Among the treasures of the institution is Voltaire's library, many of the volumes of which bear

G to MISS PHCENIX AT 415 QUEEN-ST. Growest for your dresses. Latest French and American styles-All garments cut according to the magic scale-Perfect fit warranted, without the "Handsome is as handsome

"Handsome is as handsome does." Eight years ago Esta Williams took the price offered by the management of the Ottumwa (Ia.) fair for the prettiest girl, Not long after this event she married John Carnahan, and last week left him to elope with his father. It is a wise child that knows how his father is going to jump, in Long magic scale—Perfect trouble of fitting on. MESCALL, MANUFACTURER OF FINE perfect-fitting shirts, and dealer ingents' fur

Wallace, the American minister, was pre-REST AND COMFORT TO THE SUFFERING

ODORLESS EXCAVATORS

WM. BERRY.

ODORLESS EXCAVATOR

AND CONTRACTOR.

Residence, 151 Lumley Street ; Office 8

Victoria Street, Toronto.

AT Night soil removed from all parts of the city

SANETARY.

don. Head office, 9 Adelaide street cast. e office, J. Alberry, saddler, opposite Se wery. S. W. MARCHMENT & CO., 246 Attracted Circ Contracts

EXPRESS LINE.

9 ADELAIDE STREET EAST

T. FISHER'S EXPRESS LINE

CHEAP ST EXP ESSI ME IN THE GITY

5 Cent Parcel Delivery in Con-nection.

Arrangements made with merchants for parcels in large quantit

UNDERTAKERS

M. M'CABE & CO.

UNDER FTAKERS, 33 GIEEN STREET WEST. ORDERS ATTENDED TO NIGHT AND DAY.

WI. IN OLA IN, 537 Queen stree west. Funerals supplied in First-Class style at the Lowest Rates The best Heurse in To

V. P. HUMPHREY.

JNDERTAKER.

:) Y Vonge St., Opp. Agnes Et.

J. YOUNG,

THE LEADING

NDERTAKER

lesirous of advertising in Weste

tario would do well to patronize the

THE LEADING LOCAL JOURNAL OF BRUCE,

$500 REWARD !

CITY MERCHANTS.

347 YONGE STREET,

TELEPHONE COMUNICAT

T. FISHER, Proprietor.

The Excelsior Odorless Excan

orders for removal of ni

Prize at the Cen

of the City

44 4 S 0 a 2 × -2

English statesman and writer takes the liberty of giving his opinion about the concerned aro not likely, any more, than Englishmen, to conceal their thoughts and can scarcely be said to be wanting. THE GLOBE AND MR. BLAKE.

THE GLOBE AND MR. BLAKE. Elsewhere we publish a communication from a valued correspondence, who in communication mon with thousands of other educated and intellectual Canadians, is pondering the momentous question. "What shall we do to be saved ?" He admits the ills that stills the line the free Press leaves Mr. Patton to belabor the minister of customs, stills this hudding nation. He detests afflict this budding nation. He detests it proceeds logically, and for a tory organ it shall have ceased to publish any editorial afflict this budding nation. He detests tory corruption and grit narrowness. He turns away from the aristocratic apishness of the Mail, and the dictatorial bigotry of the Globe, and his eyes light upon the yo mg lut lively and liberal World, and he

THE BELVILLE INTELLIGENER has the customery article upon "Toronto's selfishness," without which our exchange editor If this were the case protection would would feel that he missed an old familiar and is for sale by all Druggists at 25cents cease to protect. The chief Canadian obface. But we beg that The World be exjection to a low tariff is that it makes this a slaughter market for our neighbors. If cepted from the list of Toronto newspapers erown. Sir John proceeded to say that a high tariff has the effect argued by the which uphold Upper Canada college against "the first desire to carry such a principle chief tory organ, this still remains a the wishes of the masses of the people. We have before now, suggested a compromise slaughter market for coal, and the Nova "a man liable to indictment;" and he Scotian mine owners derive no profit from whereby the classes who derive a benefit from that institution would be given the privilege of supporting it. With this cor-So far as this portion of Ontario, lying rection the Intelligencer's article has all conterminous to the United States coal vein is concerned, the duty must enhance the the venerable attributes dear to our exfor its object to evoke the laughter and cost, more or less, though not necessarily change editor's memory.

cheers that followed it, we cannot say; to the full amount of that duty. The THE GLOBE of yesterday had an article but it was a very grim and unworthy kind editor of the London Advertiser states, of on hazing, in which it said it was "glad to "learn that the affair at University college "was not nearly so bad as at first represent." to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere at his personal knowledge, that coal costs just apprehend Mr. Blake, or any other public the amount of the tax more in Windsor or private person, would have a right to the than in Detroit, and we all know that a same liberty of action as that which Sir vessel can carry coal to the one port as "ed." As the Globe did the misrepresen-25 cents a hottle tation and stated that the students consumed forty bottles of whiskey, which state-It is also unfortunate for the Mail's conment has caused paragraphs like the follow-tention that the government permitted Mr. ing to go the rounds of the press :

tention that the government permitted ar. McCallum, M. P. for Monck, and a tory of course, to import coal free of duty on a plea of public expediency. If Mr. McCallum did not consider the remission of the duty the behave used in the province feel a proud satisfac-tion in paying $50,000 a year for the purpose of giv-ing ingenuous youths that more lofty and refined culture which enables them to get rid of whiskey in wholesale quantities.—Kingston News. tract the falsehood more specifically. his political influence to obtain it. Again,

Sir Charles Tupper told his Nova Scotian PROFESSOR THOROLD ROGERS, who has just visited the United States, said in a speech on his return home that "an uneducated American of the second generation was hardly ever met with."—New York Telegram. constituents that as an offset to the duty apon breadstuffs, they had the duty upon their coal, which is paid by Ontario. Professor Rogers is another of those dis-Byron said of Bishop Berkley's theory of tinguished Englishmen who in their visits tinguished Englishmen who in their visits to America carefully avoid Canada, and at J. H. Lemaitre & Co.'s Studio, 324 the non-existence of matter : "The bishop says there is no matter ; it is no matter what the bishop says." It is little matter what the Mail says upon any question affecting its party's interests, but the people of this province do not like to have their intelligence insulted by pretentious stupidity. stock in colonies and super-loyal colonists The London Free Press is severe upon the Toronto collector of customs for his se-UNDER THE HEADING of " stealing from cond seizure of books. It puts the case a clothes line," the Globe yesterday inmuch as it has been put in these columns formed us that "a sneak thief entered the hefore now. It is needless to demonstrate "yard of No. 290, Bathurst street on of England trouserings, &c. again and again that upon the literary Saturday night, and stole a valuable saw." shelves of many of our best citizens will Whither are we drifting? Where were the future of Canada, what would be best for be found such works as "Volney's Ruins police that they never saw this? A pretty of Empires" and Paine's "Age of Rea-state of affairs, truly, when a washerwoman son," to say nothing of many others much cannot wring out her saw and hang upon more objectionable to puritanical and or-the clothes line to dry, without having it desires on the subject. Many of them are thodox criticism. Not to possess and read carried off by a sneak thief. The first thing expressing them every day ; and if political Shakespeare, to say nothing of Ovid, whom we know thieves will break into our cellars Mr. Crooks has condemned to be burned and steal our books. by the hangman, is to argue oneself's illiterate, and we have no doubt that Mr. THE LONDON ADVERTISER SARCASTICALLY iever, and of double the strength of any E. JOHNSTON, 268 Qu other Elixir or Liniment in the world, should be in every family handy for use when wanted, "as it really is the best remedy in the world for Oramps in the Stomach, and Pains and Aches of all kinds, Mothers: Mothers! Mother Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and cry-ing with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bo of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTH! SYRUP. It will relieve the poor lat-sufferer immediately-depend upon if there is no mistake about it. There not a mother on earth, who has ever used i who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother and relief and health to the child, N. PEARSON, DENTIST, No. 2 KING STREET operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste,

O'SULLIVAN & PERDUE, BARRISTERS, AT-Offices—72 Yonge street, next the Dominion Bank D. A. O'SULLIVAN. W. E. PERDUB.

-A man of punctuality, energy land science, Mr. Charles Cluthe, surgica mechanist, of Toronto, left Montreal on the expiration of his professional visit on the expiration of his professional visit on the evening of the 27th, attended to this day on the 28th in Port Hope, arrived here at 9 a.m. (the last Saturday in each month being the day he is due here at the Ameri-can hotel.) He leaves at 5 p.m. to-day for Washington, D.C., where he may be found at the U. S. patent office on -Monday morning to secure a most valuable J. E. ROSE, W. M. MERRITT treet. be found at the U. S. patent office on Monday morning to secure a most valuable invention in the shape of a truss for the cure of rupture. Mr. Cluthe will be home from Nov. 3rd to the 12th, on which day he will start on his western trip.—Hamil-ton Times, Oct. 29.

to America caretury avoid connada, and return to Europe as emigration agents of the United States. The professor's work on political economy is a text book in our on political economy is a text book in our University college. And when Bonamy Price came over to study American econo-mics he confined his attention to the United States. Englishmen don't take any stock in colonies and super loval colonies. Tablets $5 per dozen 246

-The latest style of overcoating for the A large variety of the above can be seen a J. M. Maloney & Son's, merchant tailors, 89 Bay street. They have also on hand a complete new stock of colored worsteds, west

-Don't buy a sewing machine until yo have seen the Wanzer new family "C" a 103es; all latest improvements, nickl plated in all bright parts, simple, durabl noiseless, and guaranteed ten years. 4 King street west, Toronto. 246

-Peopie have no more right to becom -People have no more right to become dyspeptic, and remain gloomy and misera-ble, than they have to take poison and commit suicide. If the stomach becomes weak and fails to perform its functions, Burdock Blook Ritters will speedily remedy the traphle

U. E. CLUB BUILDINGS, KING STREET WEST NOW OPEN. EUROPEAN STYLE. MEALS AT ALL HOURS. leatly-fitted Ladies Dining-room with priva J. QUINOLLE & F. ARNOLD.

PROPRIETORS. SHELL OYSTERS | SHELL OYSTERS First of the Season. Fresh and Fat at the ST. CHARLES RESTAURANT 70 YONGE STREET.

BOY WANTED. To Learn Printing Business

Apply at once to

For an Ache, Cut or Sore on Man or Beast that Kennedy's Light-ning Remedy will not cure, if the Birections with each bottle are followed. It cures Sick. Head-ache in 5 minutes; Toothache in 1 minutes Earsche in 5 minutes; Neuralgia in 5 minutes; Rheu-matism in from 1 to 10 days. Sold by all Dealers in Medicine. Of-fice: 116 King Street West, To-ronto. WORLD OFFICE. ronto.

"No. If he must be finust do that." "We'l, I will to mo Chara more good than all i Our story passes hastily that followed. A brief s over Mrs. Bute's remains b ary known to Mrs. Wheat sent with Mrs. Jocelyn, Be Three or four neighbors fro leut chairs and came in alse the ribbon counter clubbe sent an anchor of while flow hour of the funeral they bour of the funeral they lo were quiet in manner, thus the solemnity in the only In due time the city de which the duty devolved s wagon;" the morsel of hum turned to its kindred dus Field." a unblic correct wagon;" the morsel of hum turned to its kindred dus Field," a public cemete Island, in which are interr in the city and whose friend pay for a grave or a buris however, had not the pai mother placed in the repuls mished by the department, 1 sent a plain but tasteful of woman's age and hame inser Mrs. Wheaton went with grave, and then brought h little nock in the old mans had said she had no relatives anything about except a few d side, and she had no relatives anything about cateful after house than to them. "Don station-'ouse till yer can see for yer," the good woman h hearty way, and she did 1 Samaritan so well, and po and wine" of kindness into ture's wounds so effectually t to change for the better daily. Mildred redeemed Belle's between them all they soon ther trip to the country. By Atwood's reply reached Mildre hearty answer came back in hearty answer came back in Belle's characteristic note, si to go. "There's a man's ha cried Belle exultantly as a Roger's chirography. "It's can be demoniated used the site of the site of the can be demoniated used the site of the site of the site of the can be demoniated used the site of the Roger's chirography. "It's can be depended upon, strong Mildred suited as she rep welcome to it. Belle." "You needn't smile so plac torted, with an ominous no not through with Roger Atwo Perhaps quotations from written by Clara to Mildred a received a week later, will for form and in the through the source of the source of the form and in the through the source of the

WITHOUT

By Edward P. Roe,

Away, "Openin with Small

"In the first pla

didn't starve at all tered. "Possibly! If so of her misery. At blame, since as you Now a funeral such be very costly, and good. It would sca for considering the for considering the stances it would be a father, in a tone of a

"Let us rather eo daughter," Mr. Schu say she is worn and and work. A quart a funeral would cost or three weeks in the

he concluded impress needed a little soothi plethoric with the th from those who had from those who had in his power.—"I w some quiet farm-hom and then she'll come l to her old place." Belle's eyes filled w "You are right, sir, a and generous I have and generous. I kno her to go-the people summer. They are everything for her, strange feeling at one

it's all ending so much I thought this morning

happy again, but you' different and hopeful.

over and over, and I'l the store, and be resp The man be resp

The man was touch flected glow of the gir

a moment his own icy grew moist momentan child," he said.

child," he said. "H dollars for your friend friend to her indeed. have let them starve

Now send the girl off t as soon as I can I'll raise dollars. I'd do it no would talk and say it w pay beginners so high congratulate you on the a daughter, and I since soon retrieve your fortun position to which I see th rally belong," and he boo a politeness and respect any means assumed. Belle almost danced ho fide so great march side so great was the repressed feelings. Thirty-much that would do for p would help her make up a she would have nothing material. She would wri material. She would with that very night and to H he must be kind to Clara, to drive. Her heart fai with plans and projects f "place she had taken." The poor child had so letter to Mrs. Atwood drooped, and Mildred said to say, Beile, and I'll wrii done your part to day, and "That's good of you, get sleepy it's no use to tr I'd go to sleep if the hou But you won't write to Re "No. If he must be "must do that."

"Belle, Mr. Schri

"I think she di

CHAP'rER

received a week later, will fo tory ending to this chapter. C taught to real and write i schools of the city and but lit later years she had occass opportunity to attend some schools established for those leisure came after the busy da and so had learned to use ha tolerable correctness. In wait tolerable correctness. In wait education people who frequent she had caught, with the apt American girl, a very fair po pressing herself in speech. letter, however, was a form in which she had scareely any Her missives, therefore, were ar - somewhat defective in ou but they suggested some inter

"DEAR MILLIE (ran the firs sad and hapy. The Country All are so kind. Even the dog do Allare so kind. Even the dogde me, and Mr. Roger says that's groles at everybody. I feel so I don't know myself. I feel lik breths of air all the time and I such milk. Every glass puts I can get work up here 1'll n to town and stand all day girls up here have a chance t haven't any chance at all in a strongest will brake down an are good for nothing. I wish are good for nothing. I wish do something else. I wish would go in the country and d would make us look like S

