SIXTH YEAR
OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

Speaker Peck was elected with out opposition.

London, Jan. 12.—Parliament opened today. Large crowds had congregated in the vicinity of the parliament house before the hour for the beginning of the session, and when the doors were opened the vast throngs were loudly cheered. The members of parliament were seen to thoroughly absorb this morning, but no indications of a Gay Hawkins plot were disclosed. Right Hon. Arthur Wellesley Peck was elected speaker.

The Daily News says: "The conservatives wish to move a single clause in the address, involving a vote of confidence in the ministry, but the speaker refused to allow such an innovation." The Telegraph says: "The conference of the parliament members of parliament, at Dublin yesterday was a fiasco. There was no popular demonstration in honor of the event. The absence of Parnell from the meeting was a lucky accident, as he was thus saved the necessity of being compelled to indicate a parliamentary program. The members who were present privately agreed that the best policy of the party was to wait, as the time had not yet arrived for obnoxious honors."

The Fall Mill Gazette writes Mr. Chamberlain that he is detected in his habit of can overhurl Mr. Gladstone and some radical party from the ruins of the liberal party.

Mr. Chamberlain, Earl Spencer, and Mr. Gladstone were present at the Graville conference with Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Chamberlain. The moderate liberal party were entertained at dinner this evening by Mr. Chamberlain. No radical liberal party were present. Mr. Chamberlain is attempting to form a cabinet with the moderate party. Mr. Gladstone, in the house of commons, made a speech welcoming Speaker Peck.

AN EMBASSY OF COMPLIMENT.
Prince Bismarck and the Pope have some friendly correspondence.

Rome, Jan. 12.—Count de Bismarck has received a long telegraphic despatch from Prince Bismarck in which the latter requests the cardinal to convey his thanks to the Pope for his kind and generous reception of him recently by his holiness. The letter expressed the Pope's appreciation of the honor conferred upon him in selecting him as mediator in the Caracoli troubling and the belief that such selection was made through the influence of Prince Bismarck. The reassurance of the cordiality shown by the Pope in his recent relations with Prince Bismarck has caused great satisfaction in various circles.

THE BRITISH IN BURMA.
A Sharp and Ambitious Campaign with the Burmese.

London, Jan. 12.—The claims of the creditor of Theobald, the dependent king of Burma, amount to 1,500,000 rupees.
A body of British troops attacked the Dagun at Sagan and had a sharp engagement which resulted in the death of killed. The British loss was 1 man killed and 2 wounded.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE IN BOOKS.
American Publishers Complete the Proceedings of Amsterdam.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The secretary of the treasury has received a letter from a New York publishing house complaining that the mails are used for the carrying of books from Canada to the United States to the detriment of those doing business in the regular channel. They say this is done mostly with bibles at an expensive price character which compares with the books of the same size, so that a small bible is very apt to get through the mails and reach the consignee with a trivial charge for duty, if any at all, while at the custom house the regular importer pays 25 cent on the declared value. It is asserted that bibles received from Canada by mail are being sold at prices much cheaper than they could be supplied in the regular way.
The matter has been referred to the assistant secretary of the treasury.

The senate committee on patents has fixed Thursday, Jan. 23, for the hearing of a bill for the improvement of refreshment houses.

Stagnated and the Ports.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 12.—Prince Alexander and the ports have come to an understanding on the following conditions: That the union of the Bulgarian and Serbian ports be recognized by the party that is at the disposal of Turkey in the event of war with Greece or Serbia; that the ports be paid regularly to the ports that the customs rights of the ports be maintained and that Prince Alexander pay to Constantinople the amount of the government of Eastern Roumelia.

The sergeant's mess of the Q.O.R. has elected these officers: President, Col.
Serg. S. C. McNeill (ex officio); Vice-president, Col. Serg. J. H. Keiffen; secretary, Staff-Serg. Williams (re-elected); treasurer, Staff-Serg. F. Strachan (re-elected); committee, Serg. Langtry, Serg.
F. Robertson, and Serg. Farley, Col.
Serg. MacDonald was elected to fill the position of superintendent of refreshment houses.

THE COLD IN TENNESSEE.
Traffic Almost Entirely Suspended and Coal Feasted Immense.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Jan. 12.—The cold of the past three days in the most extreme yet experienced in this section. The suffering is intense. Rail road traffic is virtually suspended. No freight trains have been running on the Virginia and Georgia and the Cincinnati and Northern for three days and passenger trains are arriving out of question. No mails have arrived from west in this section of the country for forty-eight hours. The blockades of freight is causing a coal famine, and the prospect is very gloomy. Three of the largest industries have already closed for want of coal, and unless a supply can be put in tonight the situation will be alarming. The suffering among the poor throughout this section is very great. Over 200 distressed cases were relieved by the associated charities yesterday. Fifty 3000 hands are idle on account of the cold weather.

A Big Local-Fire Incident.
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12.—The furnace men and the managers of the Edgar Thompson steel works had another conference this afternoon, but failed to arrive at a settlement of the differences. Both sides are determined and to-morrow the firm will close down the mill in its own department.
The 3000 employees will be paid off and work will not be resumed until the scale has been signed.

WHERE RUIN LURKS.
A Peep Into Rochester's Old Gambling
Houses.

Rochester, Jan. 11.—If this city is free from the curse of drunkenness, it is counterbalanced by gambling houses, and gamblers. Not less than a dozen of regular gambling houses and faro-banks are in full blast in the city. Year correspondent visited one or two of them of curiosity to see how they were conducted. The principal and most popular is well known as Miller's Casino. It is on the fourth floor of one of the jagged buildings on the street. The room is a very spacious one, and so arranged that over 500 can be accommodated. The game that is played is called keno. Situated, like a public, in one end of the room, a man has an apparatus resembling like a revolving cylinder, which contains over 300 balls, each of the size of a small marble, and each has a number upon it, "the balls are drawn three cards with thirty-six numbers or twelve numbers on each. These three cards contain the numbers from one to thirty-six, and the balls are numbered in like manner from one to thirty-six, and a player can have his card in three, paying 10c for one card or 25c for three. The playing commences the numbers of the number of the cards, and the numbers on them, and if there were fifty playing on the cards the pot or pool, would be $12.00, and the operator of the keno (who is barred) should seat number each player crosses that number upon his card. If he has his first number that crosses six numbers upon a line calls out "Keno" and if two call out at once the pool is divided between them.
The pool is 25c, which goes to the keno house. It would stir amazement in any day to see the hundreds of dollars being drawn there with the excitement of life and death. All sorts of people, old and young, black and poor, black and white, and many others are present. The keno is a very popular game here. In the other apartment, a clerk that is very popular in the city, spends his day each night, and in his cigars and later he goes to the Fred Bellinger's faro bank is more generally known as French Fred's. This is the popular faro bank in the city. It is a magnificent parlor, furnished most luxuriously, and lighted and kept like a saloon. The keno is a very popular game
