A FORMER Publication on this Subject obtained a considerable degree of attention, and was favorably received. What is here added, in my opinion, will demonstrate that on this day there exists a Tribe or Tribes of Indians in North America, who speak the Welsh Language, and also that they are descended from Prince Madog's Company who sailed West-ward about the Year 1170.

It is rather singular that a Tradition so ancient and so general, should so long remain a matter of doubt, when its Truth or Falshood might have been determined Centuries ago.

If five, six, or more Persons, properly qualified were employed to make the Enquiry, they would be able within the compass of a few Years, fully and finally, to settle the matter. To ensure suc-
