

	PAGE
CHAPTER VIII.
Farewell to Kate; departure of the brigade; Charley becomes a voyageur ,	89
CHAPTER IX.
The voyage; the encampment; a surprise,	95
CHAPTER X.
Varieties, vexations, and vicissitudes,	114
CHAPTER XI.
Charley and Harry begin their sporting career, without much success; Whisky-john catching,	122
CHAPTER XII.
The storm,	133
CHAPTER XIII.
The canoe; ascending the rapids; the portage; deer-shooting and life in the woods,	158
CHAPTER XIV.
The Indian camp; the new outpost; Charley sent on a mission to the Indians,	175
CHAPTER XV.
The feast; Charley makes his first speech in public; meets with an old friend; an enemy in the grass,	191
CHAPTER XVI.
The return; narrow escape; a murderous attempt, which fails; and a discovery,	207
CHAPTER XVII.
The scene changes; Bachelors' Hall; a practical joke and its consequences; a snow-shoe walk at night in the forest,	218