

nature. It appears that one of the excise-officers, whose duty it was to attend the brewery, suspected that drugs were used; and, in order to ascertain the fact, he contrived to place himself at the top of the brew-house, and, having removed a tile from the roof, he was thus enabled to command a view of all that was going forward below. Having remained in this situation for some time, he perceived the younger Mr. Wyatt approach. At this moment a small orifice was opened in the dome of the boiler, and Mr. Wyatt proceeded to cut open a brown paper parcel which he held in his hand, and the contents of which he threw into the liquor in the copper, which had not yet begun to boil.—The vigilant officer instantly exclaimed from his peep-hole, to the utter alarm and confusion of the parties below, that, if they stirred, he would fire upon them. He then descended, and rushing towards the copper, took off his hat, and, dipping it into the fluid, succeeded in bringing forth a portion of the illegal drugs, which yet remained floating on the surface. This he secured and conveyed to the surveyor, with whom he afterwards returned to the brewhouse, and seized the copper, which was valued at £1000.

The Attorney-General was this day prepared to open the circumstances of the case to the Jury, having in his possession a model of the brewhouse and of the dome copper which had been seized, when the defendant submitted to a verdict being entered for the Crown—for a penalty of £500 for the use of the drugs, and of £1000 for the value of the copper.

To the Editor of the Enquirer.

Sir,

The beautiful eastern imagery of the following piece, induces me to think it worthy of preservation; and as the Enquirer is destined, to exist at least—FIVE HUNDRED YEARS HENCE—if the anticipation of a piece which appeared in the last number, is to be relied on; there cannot be a better repository in which to lay it up.

I am yours respectfully,

G. S.

A MAHOMETAN SERMON ON THE ATTRIBUTES OF DEITY.

God alone is immortal!—Ibrahim and Solomon have slept with their fathers; Cadijah the first born of faith, Ayesha the beloved, Omar the meek, Omri the benevolent, the companions of the apostle, and sent of God himself, all died; but God, most high, most holy, liveth for ever and ever!—Infinities to him are as the numerals of Arithmetic to the sons of Adam; the earth shall vanish before the decrees of his eternal destiny, but he liveth and reigneth for ever.

God alone is omniscient!—Michael, whose wings are full of eyes, is blind before him, the dark night is unto him as the rays of the morning;
