

Send to Room 20 or the Depots for a sample copy of the Flag Exercise, price 7 cents, postpaid. The twelve Large Flags required, and as many small Union Jacks as are necessary, can be rented from Room 20 for $1.00, and the return express charges. The flags are to be returned the day after being used, care being requested in packing them.

The "Large British Ensign" and "Large Stars and Stripes" are to be obtained from local societies.

Note.—The Flags are in such request that they can only be loaned for about ten days, so, in order to avoid disappointment, it would be well to send the date for which they will be required, to Room 20, as soon as it is decided upon.

ORDER IN ADVANCE.—Letters are frequently received ordering leaflets by return mail. When one reflects that the same mail that brings such an order also brings many other orders, each of which must be opened, carefully read, and the remittances which they contain entered upon the cash book before the orders can be filled, it will be seen that it is quite impossible to comply with the request. Besides, detention in transmitting by mail is of not infrequent occurrence. All of which leads us to emphasize the desirability and necessity of ordering in advance to be certain of securing supplies at desired dates. Remittances should be sent by registered letter, postal order, or postal note. If nothing but stamps can be procured, please send as large denominations as possible.

SUBSCRIPTIONS for the following missionary periodicals will be received and forwarded by MISS OGDEN :

Missionary Review of the World, per year, $2.25; Gospel in all Lands, per year, 65 cents. (Subscriptions to this magazine may begin at any time, but must close with June or December.) Message and Deaconess World, 50 cents.

Please Send Remittance With Order.
