The affairs of Canada continue to occupy our Paris contemporaries. It is needless to state that the ultra-Liberal journals remained joyous at the anticipation of their countrymen (as they choose to term the Canadians), and even speak of the departure of volunteers from Paris to assist them in their struggle with the English.

LATEST FROM NAVY ISLAND.

Head Quarters Toronto, Jan. 16, 1838.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.

Colonel Foster, Commanding the Forces in Upper Canada, has great satisfaction in announcing the evacuation by the Rebels and their practical associates of Navy Island.

As the particulars, however, have not reached the Colonel Commanding, they are unavoidably deferred for a future order.

J. FOSTER, Colonel Commanding in Upper-Canada.

Two companies of the 24th Regt. are in possession of the Island. Mackenzie escaped—Van Rensselaer reported killed, along with about fifty rebels—about 150 prisoners.

Since the above was received, we have seen a letter from Toronto, dated 16th instant, in which it is stated that Navy Island is in full possession of the British Troops, two companies of the 24th Regt. being on it. McKenzie has escaped and it is said that Van Rensselaer is among the list of Killed, along with about 50 of the rebels. About one hundred and fifty have been taken prisoners. The rebels were nearly starving when the island was taken, as only about two days provisions were found on it. The gallant bombardment on the 14th, and 15th, by Capt. Glasgow, caused the greatest number of the rebels to evacuate the Island.

The American authorities carried their guns off the Island.

From the Kingston Herald, Jan. 16.

The Traveller also brings the accounts of a gallant action at Amherstburgh. A gang of pirates robbed the arsenal at Detroit, loaded a schooner with the spoils and sailed to Amherstburgh, and fired on the town. The inhabitants had no arms, but they collected in the night, armed with pitchforks and whatever came to hand; they then attacked and captured the schooner, killing one man, and taking 12 prisoners, with 400 stand of arms, 3 cannon and a large supply of the munitions of war. Thus, in every quarter, defeat and ruin wait on the rebels and pirates. Fifty rebels have also been killed on Navy Island, and four or five of Colonel M'Nab's army.

The Rebels defeated at Amherstburgh,—one Schooner, 3 pieces of Cannon, 400 Stand of Arms, and abundance of ammunition taken, 1 killed, 3 wounded and 12 prisoners, amongst them notorious characters from this and Detroit.
