

The Templar Quarterly

A SOCIAL REFORM MAGAZINE.

VOL. I.

HAMILTON, CANADA, AUGUST, 1895.

NO II.

THE GIANT DRINK.

Once upon a time there was a huge giant who lived by plundering the surrounding country. "Why is it," exclaimed the people, "that although we produce plenty we are still in want?" "'Tis the crows who rob you," said the the cunning giant, and while the people railed at the birds he continued his depredations unmolested.